We learn that school district No. 3 wants a teacher, six months term, gentleman preferred.

We are informed that John C. Spears, of Little Cottonwood, has oats and wheat six and a half feet high and it was not irrigated.

If you want a farm paper get one published in Nebraska. THE JOURNAL clubs with the Nebraska Farmer. Call and see a copy of it.

Neglect of the hair often destroys its vitality and natural luster, and causes it to fall out. Before it is too late, apply Hall's Hair Renewer, a sure remedy.

The school house is being repaired and will be ready for use in a few days. The fall term will begin one week from next Monday.

The base ball players will go to Lusk to-morrow to play a game with the knights of the diamond of that place. A good many contemplate going to witness the game, among them a number of ladies. A good time is anticipated.

Last week Mrs. Jacob Wasserberger was thrown from a load of hay and had her right leg broken, just above the ankle. Dr. Phinney was called and reduced the fracture and left the patient resting comfortably.

Presiding Elder Julian came up Saturday and remained until Monday. We should have been glad to have published an announcement of his appointment but no intimation of his coming was given us.

A party started from here Saturday for an outing in the wilds of Wyoming, and they went prepared to wash gold or slay anything which the scientists tell us have inhabited that part of the globe. In the party were Sheriff Dew and City Marshal Smith, of Harrison, and J. S. Bonsell, of Lusk.

Not one complaint has ever been made by those using Ayer's Sarsaparilla according to directions. Furthermore, we have yet to learn of a case in which it has failed to afford benefit. So say hundreds of druggists all over the country. Has cured others, will cure you.

J. C. L. Bagland informed us that he received a letter a short time ago from G. W. Cobb, with the information that his wife had died recently. Mr. Cobb has a large family of children to care for, the youngest being but a few weeks old.

The first of the week C. F. Coffee went to Douglas, Wyo., to appear as a witness against a man who had been arrested and was under bond on the charge of having stolen a horse belonging to Coffee. The man evidently considered his chances pretty good for a term in the Wyoming penitentiary and kept away and let his bondsmen pay the three hundred dollars which the bond called for.

Geo. H. Turner was in town Saturday walking on crutches and had his left foot in a sling. On investigation it was learned that he was the victim of a rather peculiar accident. While engaged in hauling grain from the field he tossed a jug of water from the ground to the boy who was leading. The latter failed to catch it and in falling it struck Mr. Turner on the instep, heaving the leaders and bruising the foot badly. Mr. Turner is old enough so that he ought to know better than to take any chances with a jug loaded with anything as dangerous as water.

On last Friday evening a lecture was delivered at the court house by Prof. W. S. Worden, of Crawford. A fair audience listened to him. His remarks were chiefly directed to the teachers of the county who had gathered, and while not as prominent factor in his remarks it was used to urge the teachers to strive to attain higher and better things than to simply do what they had to do. Prof. Worden gave an illustration of free-hand drawing and demonstrated that even with conditions and circumstances against him he had the true artist's ability. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered him at the close of the lecture.

Harvest is well under way on the table while in the valley it is completed. In most instances a fair crop is reported. Some fields were poor while others were very good, so that taken as a whole the small grain crop is much ahead of what it was last year. Corn is not very promising, many reporting that they will only get fodder, but for those who have stock that will be a paying crop. Potatoes will not be so good as last year, but the acreage being much greater the product of the county will aggregate more than the crop of 1894, while other vegetables will be fairly good. The people as a rule see no reason to make complaint.

Important Notice.

A polite but firm invitation has been received from the county treasurer by the publisher of THE JOURNAL to call and settle some delinquent taxes. To do that cash is needed as the county treasurer will not take wood, garden truck, etc., in payment of taxes. THE JOURNAL has hundreds of dollars due and when a demand is made for settlement of our debts we must pass the demand along, and we hope that those indebted to us will bring or send in the amount due without further notice.

Notice has been served on the chairman of the board for the village of Harrison to appear and defend itself in a suit before Justice Paddy of White River precinct wherein Leon E. Smith seeks to recover judgment on some old outlawed and cancelled village warrants. There is no objection to the court before whom the case is brought except its location. The village has enough to contend with to pay its just obligations once and to have a shyster lawyer bring suit in a justice court a long distance from the town where expense of making defense will be greatly increased savors considerably of persecution and indicates that it is more of a bull-dozing scheme than a legal claim. Attorney Guthrie has been retained to look after the interests of the village and the case will come up on Monday.

Notice to Delinquent Tax Payers.

I wish to call your attention to the fact that the County Treasurers have been very lenient with you during the several crop failures, and as nearly all school districts are in need of money and the prospects are good for fine crops this year, I shall insist upon the payment of your personal taxes, gentlemen they have stood long enough.

Very Respectfully,
H. S. WOODRUFF,
County Treasurer.

Pop-Fiz-Fizzlet!

Of all the political conventions ever held in Sioux county the pop convention at the court house on last Saturday—the cake. After skirmishing all around town and running in all the available timber possible for delegates the throng was called to order by R. E. Thomas, secretary of the county central committee.

F. W. Knott nominated Brother W. J. A. Raum for chairman and on a vote being taken he was elected.

On taking the chair Mr. Raum thanked the convention for the honor, and then proceeded to tear open the sores of two years ago in great shape. Verity, Conley, Lindeman and others were scored for their actions. As the talk went on Fred Knott saw the possibility of his ever getting a chance to handle the county funds grow fainter and more faint and he arose and called Brother Raum down. He tumbled and on motion committees were appointed on credentials and permanent organization. J. C. Lewis of Andrews was tendered a place on one of the committees but declined, stating that he was not a delegate. The report on permanent organization recommended that no change be made in the officers.

The committee on credentials reported quite a list of delegates, but the following is the personnel of the aggregation: Cottonwood precinct, W. J. A. Raum candidate for county treasurer, J. W. Graham candidate for county clerk, and —Burson, aspirations unknown.

Five Points, Ex-County Superintendent A. Southworth, candidate for county clerk.

Hat Creek, Ex-County Commissioner and Dispenser of Patronage F. W. Knott, candidate for county treasurer.

Sugar Loaf, A. P. Rosenberg, aspiration not yet made public.

Warbonnet, Ex-Surveyor B. F. Thomas, candidate for county superintendent, Jerry Will, candidate for sheriff.

As per agreement Candidate Knott moved that no nominations for county officers be made until later and the motion was carried.

In selection of delegates to the state and judicial conventions, Rosenberg nominated Candidate Raum and Candidate Knott nominated M. J. Weber.

Candidate Raum told the multitude how he had attended every pop state convention since the party was organized and how last year he started for Grand Island from Crawford with twenty-five cents in his pocket, beat his way on the train a part of the way and swiped a passenger's ticket for the rest of the trip, but he failed to tell whose leg he pulled for his expenses and return ticket. The nominees were elected.

Then came fun. Although at the head of the delegation Raum did not feel that he could trust himself, so without leaving the chair he moved that the delegates to the judicial convention be instructed for Ricker. It was remarked by Knott that he thought the delegates could be depended on. Raum then said that the fight in the convention would be between Ricker and Westover and he sailed into the latter in one of his characteristic tirades, and finally the instruction asked was given and Raum knew where "he was at."

The convention of conglomerate candidates then adjourned until the 12th day of October, 1895.

P. S.—We asked the secretary of the convention for an official report of the proceedings, but he is evidently ashamed of the affair as no report has been sent in up to time of going to press.
