have money. There is a large amount due us on subscription and our creditors want us to settle so we must call on those indebted to us to pay up. We have some who have simply neglected ed. who do not have ready cash, and then there are some who do not seem to be inclined to settle at ail. The latter class need not be surprised if steps are taken to collect what is due us. We do not intend to crowd any who are honestly trying to meet what they owe but we have earned what is owing to us on subscription and those who can pay and will not will have to take the consequences.

-Jacob Stoneking and Archie Akers were arrested in Cottonwood precinct last week for rustling beef. The case was brought before a justice of the peace but was changed to the county court and the examination began or Tuesday and lasted until last evening and resulted in the discharge of the prisoners. The prosecution was conducted by the county attorney and Messrs. Porter and Lailey were for the defense. A number of witnesses were examined and Judge Wilson decided that the evidence was not sufficient to hold them to appear at the district court. It is said tint the cattle were taken out of the yard of the owner, who is a poor man, and it is also said that one of the men do not feel very good over the result and it is pretty tough when a poor man has term of the district court is as large or dress. The Companion Calender For 1896.

The Publishers of The Youth's Companion are sending to their subscribers free an art calendar which will be highly appreciated. Four elegant water-color paintings are reproduced in all the beauty of color and design of the originals, and of such size (7 x 10 inches) that they may be framed with fine effect.

The first two pictures offer a striking contrast-a blustering March day in a sugar orchard, and a peaceful seene in midsammer. Then follows the noonday color with a foreground of goldenrod ments from the 4th day of Januryy, 124, to and brilliant autumn foliage. The winter walk to church over the snow covered fields is the last of the series.

> To all new subscribers to the paper who send their name and address and $1.75 at once the publishers offer to send free this handsome calender, lithograpoed in nine colors, the retail price of which is 50 cents, The Companion free every week to January 1, 1896, including the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's double numbers, and The Youths Companion fifty-two weeks, a full year to January 1, 1897. Address, The Youth's Companion, 195 Columbus Avenue, Boston.

It May do as Much for You. Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price Pharmacy.
