RANCH SUPPLY HOUSE.

The Toledo Weekly Blade and Campaign of 1896.

With a great presidential campaign coming next year, every thoughtful citizen will need, besides his local paper, a great national weekly. The greatest and most widely known of these is the Toledo Weekly Blade. For thirty years it has been a regular visitor in every part of the Union, and is well known at almost every one of the 70,000 postoffices in the country. It is edited with reference to a national circulation. It is a republican paper, but men of all politics take it because of its honesty and fairness in the discussion of all public questions. It is the favorite family paper, with something for every of the household. Serial stories, poetry, wit and humor; the household department (best in the world), Young Folks, Sunday School Lessons, Talmage's Sermons, the Farmstead, the Question Bureau (which answers questions for subscribers), the News of the Week in complete form, and other special features. Specimen copies gladly sent on application, and if you will send us a list of addresses, we will mail a copy to each. Only $1 a year. If you wish to raise a club, write for terms.

Address The Blade,
Toledo, Ohio.

—The services at the M. E. church still continue.

—For the highest cash price for wheat see Grant Guthrie.

—Fine line of jewelry and clocks at Pioneer Pharmacy.

—FOR SALE—Two full-blood poland-china boars. WM. NORESCHE.

—Geo. H. Turner received a large invoice of clothing and invites all to call when in need of such goods.

—Horsebound compound cough syrup the great remedy for coughs and colds at the Pioneer Pharmacy.

—J. C. L. Regland has traded his place on Antelope to O. W. Story. Jack says he is now out of real estate.

—Dr. Phinney reports the arrival of a boy at the home of Surveyor Ellis on Monday. All concerned doing well.

—Don't forget that THE JOURNAL has a large clubbing list and when selecting reading matter for the coming year call and give us your order. We can save you money.

—Chadron people are still after the factory and claim to be sure of getting it.
Perseverance will accomplish much and those interested seem to have plenty of perseverance.

—County Treasurer Biehle received a voucher from Auditor Moore a few days ago for some thing over four thousand dollars school money, which was found to have been intended for the treasurer of Custer county. A state apportionment of that sum would gladden the hearts of many Sioux county teachers.

—The commissioners have been hard at work checking up the books of the treasurer's office for the past two years, and when completed they will know just how the outgoing treasurer stands and in future should an investigation be made no shortage will be found. It was supposed that was what the state examiner was for but his work was a farce.
The commissioners will likely complete their work to-day.

—Reduced rates will be given over the F. E. & M. V. to delegates to the meeting of the Nebraska Beet Sugar Association at Fremont, Feb. 5th and 6th. A great deal of interest is being taken in the matter in the eastern part of the state and a large gathering is looked for.
If there are any in Sioux county who desire to attend the convention they can easily get credentials, as the county is entitled to a number of delegates.

—It would be well for merchants to be careful about furnishing goods to paupers on the order of a justice, as the commissioners do not seem inclined to allow bills for anything but the necessities of life. In some counties the merchants require that orders from a justice be endorsed by one of the county commissioners before it will be honored. That certainly would help to hold the bills down to reason.

—Young man, do not swear. There is no occasion for it outside of a printing office, where it is very useful when the paper is behind. It also comes in handy in proof reading, and is indispensable when the ink works badly, or the press is to be run by hand. It has been known to entirely remove that tired feeling of the editor when he glances over the mistakes after the paper is mailed. Outside of the printing office it is a very foolish and unbecoming misuse of the language.—Grand Island Independent.

—At the meeting of the Sioux County Stockgrowers' Association held at the residence of E. J. Wilcox on last Thursday three names were added to the roll of members. C. B. Hollingsworth, J. T.
Hewitt and J. T. Anderson were chosen as a board of directors. The next meeting will be at the residence of S. R.
Story on January 30th at 10 o'clock, a.
m. A vote of thanks was given to Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox for hospitalities extended. The association has adopted the constitution and by-law of a similar organization which has been in successful operation for some years in Fall River county, South Dakota, and there seems to be no reason why it should not do just the same in Nebraska.

—Sheriff Bartlett informed us that the county commissioners had instructed him to close the court room against all gatherings, unless a permit was obtained from the board. The commissioners are responsible for the county property and consequently have authority for taking such action, but there are grounds to question the wisdom of such a course.
It is the only place in the town or county suitable for public gatherings and it does not seem right to deprive the people of its use. It may be that in the past its use has been so easily obtained and so free from responsibility that some have come to consider it a right rather than a privilege and abuse of the privilege followed, but it hardly just that all should be denied the use of the place because of such acts by a few. If the room was put in charge of the sheriff with instructions to grant permission to use it to responsible parties for any public gathering, the party obtaining such permission agreeing to leave it in as good condition as it was received, and to make good any damage, and to rent it at a fair price to any one who desires to use it for private gain, it would be better than to close it for the whole time except the few days it would be used for district court purposes.

—Yesterday morning it began to snow and is still at it as we go to press.
The winter so far has been unusually fine and many are predicting an open winter, but there is time for much bad weather before spring comes.

—Miss Fannie VanBoskirk presided over the primary department of the school Tuesday on account of the sickness of Mrs. Fisher. Superintendent Davis taught in the grammar department during the morning session.

—E. Rohwer and L. Riechstein have been having their ice-houses filled with ice and J. W. Scott is converting his burn into an ice-house and will have it filled. The ice is obtained from the dam at Commissioner Johnson's place and is of fine quality and good thickness.

—Parties desiring cuts of animals with their brands and marks engraved thereon can obtain them through this office at small cost, and once obtained there is no additional expense to having it put on your stationery to plain printing.

—The settlement of the controversy between Turner and Hough was submitted to arbitration, the arbiters being County Clerk Blewett, P. B. Bigelow and J. L. F. Jager, of Chadron. The findings were in favor of Turner, but we did not learn the exact amount. It is not known whether the case will end where it is or go to the courts.

—The action of the commissioners at the last meeting rejecting the bill for goods furnished to paupers on the order of a justice of the peace, led Justice Klein to write a long communication addressed to the county board defining his authority and instructing the board as to their duty in such case, and threatening the board with legal proceeding if his orders were not promptly honored. He gave special instructions to the clerk to file the communication as it might be needed. Some one must have given him a "hunch" for he came the day the board met and before they convened he withdrew the document. He showed it to Commissioner Weber and soon got his opinion of it and a request to leave it to come before the board, but he did not care to do that and it will likely be some time before he will write another such letter.

Notice to Taxpayers.

Parties holding road overseers' receipts for road tax or poll tax worked out, and wishing to have them applied in payment of taxes must present such receipts to the county treasurer or no credit can be given therefor.

CHARLES BIEHLE,
County Treasurer.

sentence, in English, containing all the letters in the alphabet. The other prizes will go in regular order to those competitors whose sentences stand next in point of brevity.

CONDITIONS.

The length of a sentence is to be measured by the number of letters it contains, and each contestant must indicate by figures at the close of his sentence just how long it is. The sentence must have some meaning.
Geographical names and names of persons cannot be used. The contest closes February 15th, 1896, and the results will be published one week later. In case two or more prize-winning sentences are equally short the one first received will be given preference. Every competitor whose sentence is less than 116 letters in length will receive Wilkie Collins' works in paper cover, including twelve complete novels, whether he wins a prize or not. No contestant can enter more than one sentence nor combine with other competitors. Residents of Omaha are not permitted to take any and it is required that each competing sentence be enclosed with one dollar for a year's subscription. The WEEKLY WORLD-HERALD is issued in semi-weekly sections, and hence is nearly as good as a daily. It is the western champion of free silver coinage and the leading family newspaper of Nebraska.
