The Toledo Weekly Blade and Campaign of 1896.

With a great presidential campaign coming next year, every thoughtful citizen will need, besides his local paper, a great national weekly. The greatest and most widely known of these is the Toledo Weekly Blade. For thirty years it has been a regular visitor in every part of the Union, and is well known at almost every one of the 70,000 post-offices in the country. It is edited with reference to a national circulation. It is a republican paper, but men of all politics take it because of its honesty and fairness in the discussion of all public questions. It is the favorite family paper, with something for every of the household. Serial stories, poetry, wit and humor; the household department (best in the world); Young Folks, Sunday School Lessons, Talmage's Sermons, the Farmstead, the Question Bureau (which answers questions for subscribers), the News of the Week in complete form, and other special features. Specimen copies gladly sent on application, and if you will send us a list of addresses, we will mail a copy to each. Only $1 a year. If you wish to raise a club, write for terms. Address: The Blade, Toledo, Ohio.

Hester & Son shipped a car load of fat sheep to Chicago last Thursday evening. V. A. Hester accompanied them.

An old man by the name of Wallace who resided on Indian creek, died the first of last week from cancer on his face and neck.

J. H. Bartlett completed a well for Otto Dietze a few days ago and a windmill will soon be at work lifting the water to the surface.

A county judge in one of the surrounding counties sent a homestead application to the land office in which he says the party was a natural born female.—Alliance Grip.

E. E. Lavenore received word a few days ago that his mother had sustained a stroke of paralysis at her home in Worcester, Mass. She is past 85 years of age.

Wanted—500 cattle to head during the coming season. Good range and water, and careful attention guaranteed. Terms, 50 cents for the service.

P. N. KIMPTREK, Harrison, Nebr.

John Dieckmann's father and others from the same locality in Iowa arrived on Monday, bringing with them four carloads of stock and goods. They will locate a few miles north-west of town, having taken land when here last fall.

A car-load of white-faced hinds arrived here Monday from Merrick county. They had been purchased by Bartlett Richards and were taken to the 34 ranch. It has been demonstrated that that kind of cattle are the best for this country.

The old sign that the first three days of March indicate the kind of weather to prevail during the ensuing three months, March and most of April are likely to be rather stormy, and the fellow who has plenty of feed and fuel will be in luck.

The annual village election will occur on Tuesday, April 7th. As there are only fifteen voters there is not likely to be a cast amount of excitement. As five trustees are to be elected, one-third of the voting population will be elected to office on that day.

W. D. Hunter and L. Skov, who were in this locality for some days securing specimens of the birds which winter here, returned to Lincoln Saturday evening. They were quite successful in their efforts and well pleased with the treatment accorded them by the people.

As spring approaches those who remain to town to enable their children to attend school will move back to their farms and ranches. Some have already gone and by the next of June there will not likely be more than seventy-five unattached residents within the corporate limits of the village.

The Kinsey Co., did not get here to give an entertainment last Friday evening, but went west Saturday. The only thing our people were out was the work some of them did to get the Woodmen hall in readiness. Guess it was not much of a show or they would not run things quite so loosely.

Herman Kroning informs us that the construction of dams across dry ravines in the north part of the county to impound the flood waters has proven a success and numerous dams will be constructed in that part of the county. It creates a water supply for stock and also makes irrigation possible to quite an extent.

Dr. Phinney and P. N. Kiepatrick are not twins, but they each had a birthday last Saturday, and each was thirty-six years old. They certainly should have appreciated the event for it is the first birthday they have had for four years, and what is more, they will not have another until 1904, as February does not again have 29 days until then. To have birthdays so rarely ought to suit those who dread getting old.

The following is a list of those drawn to serve as jurors at the March term of the district court: H. Richardson, Dennis Moran, Samuel Tebbet, Solomon Borkey, R. C. Tally, John Irion, Sr., S. L. Ellis, W. S. Nicholson, Neils Anderson, Leslie Crane, John Debeno, H. H. Lorimer, J. C. Eberspacher, C. T. Greenell, E. A. Bigelow, O. W. Story, W. L. Hoyt, Otto Dietze, Octave Harris, J. T. Mason, John L. Kay, S. B. Coffee, Henry Covey, John W. Hisson.

It is a significant fact that the hauling of water from town by people residing outside has almost ceased. A number have had wells put down and so have no further need to haul water, and the rest have gone out of the country. Considering this and the fact that the population of the town is less than ever before, there is no reason why the cost of pumping should not be reduced for the next year. The debts contracted in the early days when it was expected that by this time Harrison would be a city, are to be met and economy will need to be practiced wherever possible.

A party of emigrants passed through Harrison on Monday. They came from Greeley, Colo., and were enroute to Edgemont, S. D.

Sheriff Bartlett received the papers a few days ago to serve notice on Claus Christensen that suit had been commenced against him and his bondsmen for between $200 and $1,000 (total) to be due to Cedar County from the defendants. Mr. Christensen was county clerk of that county and an expert recently checked up the books and on his report the action is based.

Mrs. Henry Warnock came near making a fatal error last week. She was suffering from a severe pain in her head and purchased some morphine powders. No one was with her but the children and she took the powders often-er than she should and it required hard work on the part of Dr. Phinney to overcome the effects. It is not safe for any one to rely on themselves to take such remedies, especially when suffering acute pain.

The cost of seeding a piece of ground to alfalfa now does not exceed that of seeding to red clover. It is well known that it is an easy matter to get a good catch on our uplands in Nebraska. No matter if it does kill out in from two to four years, which, however, we are not yet ready to admit, under anything like normal conditions throughout the state, the crop has the power to re-fertilize worn out lands. It is the custom among clover growers to turn the crop under in a few years from the time of sowing, putting this new land into grain crops, and turning the old grain fields that have been robbed of their fertility over to clover growing. Alfalfa is taking the place of clover here, and if upon our uplands we should be compelled to do by necessity what we should do of our own free will, there can be no difference as to results. As a matter of fact we can point to uplands in western Iowa that have supported fine alfalfa fields for twenty-five years without a rest.—Nebraska Farmer.
