NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

The rules of the local land office have recently been amended so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application.

Men's suits and overcoats at cost at Turner's.

Old papers, five cents per dozen at THE JOURNAL office.

Call at THE JOURNAL office and have your final proof papers made out. It will cost you nothing.

So far little complaint can be made of the kind of weather the "ground-hog" has produced.

The Sioux County Agricultural Society is hereby called to meet at THE JOURNAL office on Thursday, February 4, 1897, at 1 o'clock, p. m.

Grippe in various forms has had its grip on a good many people in this locality, but no very serious cases are reported.

At the regular meeting of the board of village trustees on Tuesday evening L. J. Simmons tendered his resignation as village clerk, to take effect February 15, 1897.

Tuesday was "ground hog day" and as the animal would have been able to see his shadow during part of the day, it is presumed that winter will prevail for six weeks to come.

The Geneva Signal says it is informed from the office of the auditor of public accounts that office will not accept a publication of a bank statement made in a paper that is not a legal newspaper according to the terms of the act passed two years ago.

The following is the prayer with which Chaplain Madley opened the proceedings of the House of Representatives one morning recently, and it certainly indicates that he is a shepherd who knows the needs of his flock.

President elect McKinley has selected six of the eight men who will compose his cabinet and they are as follows:

Secretary of state—Sherman of Ohio.

Secretary of the treasury—Gage of Illinois.

Secretary of war—Aber of Michigan.

Secretary of the navy—Long of Massachusetts.

Secretary of the interior—McKenna of California.

Secretary of agriculture—Wilson of Iowa.

That leaves the positions of attorney-general and postmaster-general yet to be filled.

Preparations are being made by the school to give an appropriate entertainment on Washington's birthday.

B. F. Johnson had the misfortune to get mixed up with a falling horse the first of the week which resulted in the breaking of his collar bone.

While coming to town yesterday County Surveyor Thomas was dragged from his wagon and fractured his collar bone.

The tract of land at Andrews has been purchased by parties who expect to improve it.

It is reported by some that an effort will be made to establish a town there but as nothing positive is given out by the parties interested, the report can be taken for what it is worth.

It is Commissioner Young.

On last Saturday the appointing board, consisting of County Judge Wilson, County Treasurer Bieble, and County Clerk Blewett, met at the office of the latter pursuant to call of the clerk for the purpose of appointing a commissioner for the third district to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. F. Johnson.

The board organized by the election of Judge Wilson as chairman and Clerk Blewett as clerk.

They then proceeded to select a commissioner and it was decided unanimously to appoint James F. Young, of Whistie Creek precinct, and a certificate of appointment was issued to him.

The action of the board was a surprise to many, but it seems to meet with the approval of all, except some who approve of nothing that is not done in their interest.

James F. Young has resided in northwest Nebraska about seven years, about five of which he has resided in Sioux county. He is fairly educated and has had some experience in official work, so that he appreciates some the unpleasant features of the position to which he has been appointed.

He has a good reputation among those who know him for honesty and ability, and the writer believes that he will make a good commissioner, and that his work will reflect credit on those who appointed him.

As the place came to him entirely unthought Mr. Young naturally feels complimented by the fact that the office sought him leaving him in a position to do excellent work, for having asked no favors he is under no obligations to favor any.

Let us Save Our Public Men.

Collateral demands upon public characters are greater by far in this country than elsewhere. The scholar in Germany has due opportunity to pursue his scholarship unmolested.

PERSONAL.

C. F. Coffey was in town the first of the week.

James F. Young was in Harrison on Saturday.

Steve Coleman went down the road the first of the week.

Fred Piper, the Crawford tailor, was doing business in Harrison on Tuesday.

Judge Crites was up from Chadron on Monday on business connected with the B. & M. tax case.

A. R. Dew went to Lusk on Monday to take charge of the bank there for a few weeks while the cashier takes a vacation.

County Attorney Guthrie went down the road the first of the week on legal business and will visit Rushville, Chadron and Crawford before his return.

Joe Stastny is arranging to go to Ragged Top in the near future. He will make the trip by team and if he strikes something will send for his family.

Estrays.

I have at my ranch on Running Water the following described estrays: 1 black steer, coming two years old, with small stub horns and with overbit out of the end of right ear; 1 red heifer, with white face, coming two, with horns, no brands visible.

The Nebraska Legislature.

It is a recognized fact among Nebraskans that no matter what other daily paper they read other times, during the legislative sessions they must get the Lincoln State Journal if they want all the news. The Journal is right on the ground, can get the latest doings of the lawmakers and frequently gives the news one day earlier than the Omaha journals.

Final Proof Notices.

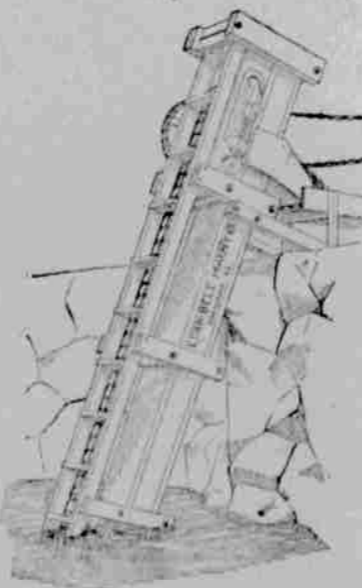

All persons having final proof notices in this paper with respect to a marked copy of the paper should be requested to examine their notices and if any errors exist report the same to this office at once.

Times Culture Proof Notice for Publication. Last office at A. J. Jones, Neb. January 19, 1897.

Notice is hereby given that M. J. Moore, of Chadron, Neb., has filed a notice of intention to make final proof before M. J. Blewett, county clerk, at his office in Harrison, Neb., on the 10th day of February, 1897, on a certain quarter section 36, 18, of the 13th range, 11th and 12th sections No. 34, in township 18 N., range No. 14 W., in the 6th principal meridian.

Paul Morris, Joseph Ross, John J. Meyer, Frank Meyer, all of Chadron, Neb. A. W. Woods, Jr., Register.

DO YOU WANT TO RAISE WATER?

I will put you a machine which will elevate from 300 gallons to 22,000 gallons per minute with the least possible power. It can be operated by windmill, steam, water or horse power.

It has been tried and its merits are known.

It is just the thing to use in streams where a portion of the water can be used to elevate the other portion.

They are cheap. They are durable. They are simple. They are up-to-date.

Priest on larger machines or on iron work alone, furnished on application.

Sioux County, THE LAND OF THE HOME-STEADER.

Free Homes for More Than 5,000 Men.

A new county with schools, churches, railroads, etc.,

AND 800,000 ACRES YET OPEN TO HOMESTEAD ENTRY.

Contains over forty-five miles of rail-road and has no county bonds.

Sioux county is the northwest county of Nebraska. It is about thirty miles east and west by about seventy miles north and south and contains of land. There are more bright, sparkling, small streams in the county than can be found in the same area elsewhere in the state. It has more pine timber in it than all the rest of the state combined.

Its grasses are the richest and most nutritious known so that for stock-growing it is unequalled.

The soil varies from a heavy clay to a light sandy loam and is capable of producing excellent crops.

The principal crops are small grain and vegetables, although good corn is grown in the valleys. The wheat, oats and barley are all of unusually fine quality and command the highest market prices.

The water is pure and refreshing and is found in abundance in all parts of the county.

The county is practically out of debt and has over forty-five miles of railroad within its borders, has a good brick court house and the necessary fixtures for running the county and there has never been one dollar of county bonds issued and hence taxes will be low.

The Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad crosses Sioux county from east to west and the B. & M. has about fifteen miles of its line in the northeast part of the county.

The climate is more pleasant than that of the eastern portion of Nebraska.

There is still

of land in Sioux county yet open to homestead entry. It is better land and more desirably located than that for which such rushes are made on the opening of a reservation. There is no railroad land in the county and for that reason its settlement has been slow for so special effort to get settlers was made, as was done in the early days of the settlement of the eastern part of the state.

Good deeded land can be purchased at reasonable rates with government land adjoining so that a person who wants more than one quarter section can obtain it if he has a little means.

There are about 1,700 people in the county and there is room for thousands more.

Harrison is the county seat and is situated on the F. E. & M. V. railroad, and is as good a town as the thinly settled country demands.

School houses and churches are provided in almost every settlement and are kept up with the times.

All who desire to get a homestead or buy land cheap are invited to come and see the country for themselves and judge of its merits. Homesteads will not be obtainable much longer and if you want to use your right and get 160 acres of land from Uncle Sam free it is time you were about it.
