OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. D. Canon, - - - Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

The Greek Government seems to have had a bigger job on her hands than she bargained for.

It is a pitty that Russia and England had'nt got a good threshing instead of Greece.

The Press Association of the 6th Congressional district will hold a metting nt Valentine, June 5th. Every editor in this district ought to attend.

One of the worst holocausts probably ever known in the history of Paris, Franc, occured on the 4th inst. About 200, people lost their lives; among them being some of the most noted personages in France and in fact all Europe. The reason for so many prominent people being sacrifised in the burning building was on account of a fair being held, and a great many of the rich society people of Paris wore in attendance.

The Albany Mo., Ledger says in speaking of boys, "Every boy and young man in town is spotted, and when vacancies occur in offices and other positions of responsibility they do not go to those who hang around public places, nor those who put in their time smoking cigarettes and apeing the style of dudes and mashers, but to the lad who has a clean record for industry, sobriety and honesty; to one who is anxious to do all he can for his employer. A straight, clean, manly boy never has to hunt very long for a job. He is always wanted."

How true the above is. No man, no matter how much of a tippler he may be himself or how much he may be addicted to the habit of gambling, if he is in need of hired help he will seek to employ a boy or man, as the case may be, who is not a frequenterat the saloon or who is usually found loirtering his time away at such place or at more disreputatle places. It is true every boy is being watched by the neighborhood in which he lives. Anybody who is desirous of hiring a boy is more apt to go to the Sabdath school for them than they are to the saloon. If young boys wish to grow up to be useful and honored men in life, the time to commence is in youth. Life is full of opportunities for good boys and girls. If boys could only know how bad it sounds to hear them useing profane language and how ungentlemanly it is in the presence of ladies and older people, they certainly would abstain from it. It certainly is no mark of a gentleman. The same rule should hold good with the young boys who are just blooming into womanhood. It is not an uncommon thing to hear, not only young ladies who go into society(and this article is not confined to this neighborhood, but seems to be quite universal every where),but young girls useing slang frases, which to us seems unbecoming to say the least.

What They Said.—In Former Times.

"Decaying nations should return to the principles upon which they were founded"—Aristottle.

"If I were an American as I am an Englishman, while a single foreign troop remained in my country, I would never lay down my arms,never NEVER NEVER." —Wm. Pitt.

"To support this declaration, we pledge our fortunes, our lives and our sacred honor" (56 cranks) 1776. "Where liberty is there is my home."—Franklin.

"There,—King George can read that without his glasses."—John Hancock.

"Give me liberty or give me death, if this be treason make the most of it."—P. Henry.

"God must love the common people—he made so many of them."—A. Lincoln.

"This is to be a government of the people, by the people and for the people,—if, "I bid the laboring people beware of surrendering a power (right to vote) which they already possess, and which, when surrendered, will surely be used to close the door of advancement to such as they, and fix mens burdens and disabilities upon them till all of liberty is lost."—A. Lincoln. 1st Inaug.

Tell us why they said it?

WHAT HAS BEEN SAID SINCE 1861.

"... the working men had no right to ... might be more amenable to ... of hard times"—1880 Indian...

"... (rich) must govern in every ..., regardless of any at- tempt to deprive them (by votes) of that right."—Richmond viz: State, 1882.

"It is very improper, of course, to intimidate votes; but there is a way(starving) of giving advice that is quite convincing."—1880 Boston Herald.

"In the western States labor is absolutely demanded; common labor is receiving a very high price, and it should be shown in Europe that it is to their paupers interest to come to America because prices are in favor of American labor."—John Sherman—on U. S. laws 1863-5—In 1866 B. F. Jones brought the first ship load of paupers to America to compete with home labor—In 1893 Chauncy Depew said, "For once, it seems that America has more labor than she can employ"—Hence the 50,000 starving in Chicago.

"The American laborer must make up his mind hence forth not to be so much better off than the European laborer, men must be content to work for less wages. In this way the working man will be nearer to that station in life to which it has pleased God to call him." —Aug. Belmont. N. Y. World.

Say, whither are we drifting?

The Charmer.

(Contributed to THE JOURNAL.)

The reason I'm a Batchelor
Said a man from great bend,
Its no matter who you marry
You can't tell where she'll end.

It was in the summer of ninty two
While courting in the west,
I witnessed what I shall not forget
Till I'm laid to rest.

The evening was long and tiresome,
The photoes not sublime
So a game of cards were started
Just to pass away the time.

The players four in number were,
The family as you'd suppose,
While I and Belinda sat chatting
Beside the kitchen stove.

I'll tell you what Belinda said,
In my trunk I've something strange,
We would have a most delightful time
If we only had some range.

I'll make the range the old woman said,
And started from her chair.
She soon returned with a correction rod
And the children ran up stairs.

Belinda then got out her pets,
I'll tell you they were strange;
They made us all climb on our chairs
The old woman on the range.

Several times Belinda held,
Her pets clost to her face,
And each time the old woman screamed
Those things are out of place.

Belinda then roiled up her snakes
And placed them in her trunk,
While I slipped on my over coat
And out the door did flunk.
