NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

The rules of the local land office have recently been amended so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application. All parties desiring to make final proof can have their papers made out at THE JOURNAL office, free of charge, and promptly transmitted to the land office so that no time will be lost.

—Thomas Snow was up from the Raw Hide last Thursday.

—May 30th is the time above all others when we should be patriotic.

—Mr. Geo. Cant was in town Tuesday from Sow Belly canyon doing some trading —James Nolan made final proof on his tree claim last Monday before Judge Wilson.

—M. J. Blewett and family went out to Hat Creek last Sunday to look after Mr. B's ranch.

—Dave Bartlett is having a new Aeromotor wind-mill put up at his ranch by Hester & Son.

—E. W. Brown, who lives in Wyoming, was in Harrison Tuesday buying supplies for his stock ranch.

—Chas. Umphenhour took a trip to the O W ranch in Wyoming last Tuesday returning on Wednesday.

—Herman Goedde of Ardmore was in Harrison last Monday, staying over night and returning home Tuesday.

—Isidor Richstein is now busily engaged remodeling his saloon building which he intends to rent for store purposes.

—Chas. Biehle and his mother with Mr. and Mrs. Lou Gerlach took a trip down to Sow Belly canyon, last Sunday.

—P. B. and E. A. Bigelow and J. C. parsons made final proof on a quarter section of land apiece in Sioux county, last Tuesday before Judge Wilson.

—Virg. Hester cut his alfalfa Tuesday of this week. Who says they can't raise alfalfa on the divide. Go to Hester's lumber office and see a sample of it.

—Mills Bros. of Gordon, Neb., passed through Harrison from the west last Friday with 700 head of cattle. The cattle are to go into the sand hills near Gordon.

—J. H. Cook was up from Running Water last Monday. He took occasion to call at THE JOURNAL office and pass the time of day and get acquainted. Come again Mr. Cook.

—John Pfister of Lusk, Wyo., was in Harrison last Thursday, buying some barbed wire and doing other trading returning home the next day. Mr. Pfister says it pays to come to Harrison to do his trading.

—R. B. Archard from Omaha, and Sidney his brother came in last Saturday, overland via Alliance. R. H. Archard has been a resident of Sioux county for some time until last fall when he went to Iowa and thence to Omaha on business. Mr. Archard returned in the nick of time to be present at the wedding of his oldest daughter, Jennie and her fiance, Mr. John L. Stratton. Mr. Archard and his brother will make this their future home.

—The station agent instructs us to say that parents would do well to prohibit their children from getting too near the trains when they are coming in and going out at the depot as the company will not be responsible should any of them get hurt.

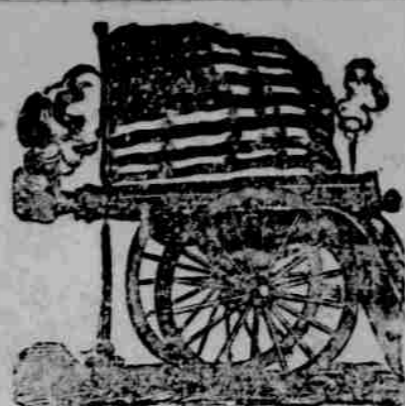

The above is a timely suggestion, and parents who's children make it a business every time the train comes in, to visit the depot and occasionally climb on and off the cars when in motion will have a more severe reminder than the above notice if they do not heed a timely warning. We regret to say anything that would in any way seem rude, but the time may come when parents will thank the company for doing its duty to the public in this matter.

—Every one should attend the decorating and memorial services to be held in Harrison, next Sabbath. Every body come and show your appreciation of what the boys in blue done to save the Union and our homes.

—The wolf hunt that was to take place last Sabbath down on the Running Water resulted in the killing of the horse of Mrs. Lewis who was riding it. In some way the horse stumbled and fell, breaking its neck, thus breaking up the hunt.

—All parties desiring to make application for fish from the State fisheries for supplying their creeks and dams can call at THE JOURNAL office, where blank applications are supplied free of charge to fill out for most any kind of fish desired in the streams of the north-west.

—Mr. Chas. Flimpton and his mother returned from Florida last Monday, where they went last fall to spend the winter. They took dinner at the Harrison House after which they went immediately to the boat house on Hat Creek. They were to have enjoyed their southern vacation.

—H. C. Kessler and Geo. Enslow of Douglas, Wyo. were in Harrison last Saturday and Sunday with the view of engaging in the saloon business in Harrison, but after looking the town over pretty thoroughly, concluded there was no money in the business here, and Monday morning returned to Douglas. So it continues to get dryer and dryer.

—County clerk Blewett had a severe attack of something similar to heart trouble Tuesday morning. Although Mr. B. thinks it is something else, yet he said it was pretty bad just the same. He was able however, to resume his duties at the court house about eleven o'clock the same day. The chances are that he will be all right in a day or two.

MARRIED.—At the residence of the groom's mother, Mr. John L. Stratton and Miss Jennie Archer, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at 3:00 o'clock p. m. by E. L. Snuck, J. P. The guests invited to the marriage feast were: Mr. and Mrs. Priddy, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. David Bartlett and Mr. Chas. Marsteller and Miss Nellie Harris. THE JOURNAL extends congratulations and a long life.

—Chas. Umphenhour our genial confectioner has sold his candy snap to Mrs. June Smith who lives on the little Boggy over in the valley, north-east from Harrison about 15 miles. She took charge of the business on the 25th inst.

Mr. Umphenhour informed THE JOURNAL scribe that the consideration was $300. He will try his hand at farming this season, he having taken the crop of Mrs. Smith's husband as part pay in the deal.

—R. B. Archard from Omaha, and Sidney his brother came in last Saturday, overland via Alliance. R. H. Archard has been a resident of Sioux county for some time until last fall when he went to Iowa and thence to Omaha on business. Mr. Archard returned in the nick of time to be present at the wedding of his oldest daughter, Jennie and her fiance, Mr. John L. Stratton. Mr. Archard and his brother will make this their future home.

—The station agent instructs us to say that parents would do well to prohibit their children from getting too near the trains when they are coming in and going out at the depot as the company will not be responsible should any of them get hurt.

The above is a timely suggestion, and parents who's children make it a business every time the train comes in, to visit the depot and occasionally climb on and off the cars when in motion will have a more severe reminder than the above notice if they do not heed a timely warning. We regret to say anything that would in any way seem rude, but the time may come when parents will thank the company for doing its duty to the public in this matter.

—Every one should attend the decorating and memorial services to be held in Harrison, next Sabbath. Every body come and show your appreciation of what the boys in blue done to save the Union and our homes.

—The wolf hunt that was to take place last Sabbath down on the Running Water resulted in the killing of the horse of Mrs. Lewis who was riding it. In some way the horse stumbled and fell, breaking its neck, thus breaking up the hunt.

—All parties desiring to make application for fish from the State fisheries for supplying their creeks and dams can call at THE JOURNAL office, where blank applications are supplied free of charge to fill out for most any kind of fish desired in the streams of the north-west.

—Mr. Chas. Flimpton and his mother returned from Florida last Monday, where they went last fall to spend the winter. They took dinner at the Harrison House after which they went immediately to the boat house on Hat Creek. They were to have enjoyed their southern vacation.

—Elmer Smith is on the sick list again.

—Miss Phebe Olinger, of Bodare, left for Kansas yesterday evening.

—Mr. Sherrill returned from Iowa yesterday, where he had been to attend the funeral of his mother.

—Mr. James Wright went out to Mr. Geo. Turner's ranch today to put in a flum for an irrigation ditch.

—W. O. Hester, who is engaged in the coal and lumber business in this place, was down in Iowa, some two weeks ago, and while there obtained from some of the neighbors in the vicinity an egg which he brought home with him and in turn handed to THE JOURNAL reporter with the inscription, "Cyclone June 6th. Look out" on it. The letters are quite large and are easily dissipated by any one who can read a little bit. Mr. Hester informs us that there was great excitement over it, believing that the old hen that laid the egg was the means used to warn the people to be on the lookout for the expected cyclone. The egg is now on exhibition at this office, any body wishing to call and see this queer production of the henry are invited to come and see for themselves.

Warbonnet Warblings.

Every one was so busy last week it was impossible to send in any items from this precinct.

Ernest Lyon is working for Mr. Rice on Pleasant Ridge.

Lin Ellis has his potatoes all planted.

Oscar Garton was helping James Merriam plant beans and corn last Tuesday.

Mrs. Lily Williams is slowly recovering from her late illness.

Mrs. Lie Ellis and Grandma Ellis visited with Mrs. Crane last Wednesday.

O. A. Garton's had the misfortune to have nineteen chickens killed in one night not long ago by an animal of some kind.

Wednesday and Thursday of last week two heavy showers passed over Warbonnet, or rather stopped there.

Lightning struck at the foot of a tree about twenty rods from Mr. Merriam's house.

O. A. Garton and Willie Garton took some cattle up to Irvin Garton's place in the edge of Wyoming Wednesday of last week.

Card of Thanks.

To all our friends and neighbors and those who have shown their sympathy and kindness in so many ways during the bereavement and after the death of my wife and our mother, Mrs. Emaline Corbin. We express our appreciation of their many kind acts and realize so well that friends in need are a great comfort and consolation to us all and we feel very thankful for what they have done and consider it a great favor that shall long be remembered.

JOHN CORBIN and FAMILY

In Loving Remembrance of Our Departed Friend, Mrs. John Corbin.

A long and patient sufferer, At last is called to rest, All pain and sorrow is now o'er And she is with the best.

A precious one from us is gone, A voice we loved is still, A place is vacant in our home, Which no one else can fill.

Oh, dear mother who has been so kind, And all the children love, Is now at rest in perfect bliss With the beautiful angels above.

Oh how we miss that greeting smile, Whenever we enter the door; But now she is smiling in heaven For on earth she will smile no more.

The parting of our dear friend, so sad, No tongue or pen can show; Sweet memory dwells within our hear Which God alone can know.

But there's one consolation still left in our hearts, Though our loved one now we cannot see, Some day trials and sorrows will end, And we'll meet in eternity.

Although her hand grew weary, Her loving eyes grew dim, Still she put her trust in Jesus, Casting all her cares on Him.

Trusting Him when all was darkness, Still trusting when 'twas light, Not losing faith in the hour of sadness Happy and faithful when all was bright

So only by our faith in Jesus, We may hope to stand With God's loved angels In that promised land.

Then let us ever pray to Jesus, Ask Him to guide our wandering feet, Pray that we may go to heaven Where our loved one we shall meet.

Almost the last that she spoke Where "I'm so tired I must go home". Then she closed her eyes And the Lord in heaven said "come".

Then softly over the silent river, And up to the pearly gates, She knocked and the angels bade her enter.

And now for our coming she waits, Her body so cold and still was laid to rest In the dark and silent grave.

But her spirit dwells in peace with Jesus, For he died our souls to save. Often to that sacred mound we'll wander, For memory will not fade with years; And we kneeling there beside it, Will refresh the grass with tears.

Oh what a gathering there will be When all our trials are o'er; When our Father in heaven bids us come To join those on the other shore.

Oh yes what a bright happy meeting, When we are called no more to roam, When we lay down our cross to sleep With Jesus.

As our dear one said, "we'll all go home". M. F. L.
