NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

-Old papers for sale, at this office.

-Court adjourned until Aug. 7th.

-Charles Coffee was a visitor at the Hub last Tuesday.

-Mr. Jenson from Montrose was a caller at our office on Tuesday.

-School marm's are as scarce in Harrison just now as McKinley prosperity.

-County clerk Blewett is enrolled among Dr. Johnson's patients still they cope.

-A few more of those boy's suits left at BARTELL'S.

-County sheep inspector Dave Collville has been inspecting the sheep of this district during the past week.

-Miss Nora Thomas left for Lusk the first part of the week. She did not know how long she would be a way.

-Go to BARTELL'S to get a square deal in everything.

-Eimer and June Smith are making hay for Van Tassell, ten or fifteen miles west of town.

-If you want a Tiger Hayrake, bare in mind that BARTELL sells them.

-Professor Gray lectured last Thursday evening to the teachers and students at the attended institute, several others were present also.

-The number of Dr. Johnson's patients continues to increase; that is not all they improve under his treatment. All speak in glowing terms of his work.

-The McCormick twine is the best, sold by J. H. BARTELL.

-G. M. Lacy, son of our own Pat Lacy, came in on the west bound train yesterday morning from Danbury, Ia.

-The families of Mr. W. B. Wright and the JOURNAL took an outing down the Betty canyon last Sunday, and the resolution of the party climbed and surmounted Castle Butte a height of 400 feet.

-The JOURNAL family the scene was planning beyond expression as it was one of the rarest treats we have enjoyed in some time; we take this opportunity to thank our friends Mr. and Mrs. Wright for their kindness.

-Three men from Pierre, who claimed to be agents passed through town last Monday enroute to Cheyenne, Wyo.

-The families of Mr. W. B. Wright and the JOURNAL took an outing down the Betty canyon last Sunday, and the resolution of the party climbed and surmounted Castle Butte a height of 400 feet.

-Mr. and Mrs. Pontius returned from their outing at Hot Springs, last Monday morning.

-Charles Dippert of Ft. Robinson, while in town last Thursday called at the JOURNAL office and enrolled his name among our readers.

-Mrs. A. McGinley left last Tuesday evening for Hot Springs. Mr. McGinley accompanied her as far as Chadron.

-Mrs. L. Dickinson and little ones together with her mother is away on a visit down to Bob Neas' near lower 33.

-J. C. L. Ragland of this place has been cited to appear at the preliminary hearing of the J. H. Brown murder case at Edgemont, S. D., July 31st.

-A dance will be given at Montrose Saturday July 31st for the benefit of the Montrose base ball players. Every body are cordially invited to attend and have a good time.

-Mrs. Morgareidre, a sister of Mrs. James Nolan of Warbonnet precinct came in on the train last Saturday from Valentine to visit her sister for a short time.

-Marcos Valdez, returned last Sunday from Reno, Wyo. where he has been for the past three months engaged on the round up. He left again Tuesday for an indefinite period.

-Mrs. W. H. Bousell from the O W ranch in Wyoming, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hester on Grand Boulevard during the past week, returned home last Saturday morning.

-J. F. McClung of Edgemont S. Dak., has been employed by Wallace the slayer of Brown, has written to Judge Wilson and asked for a transcript of judgement against John Brown to keep the peace in this county some time ago.

-There was joy at the Griswold mansion last Tuesday, the special occasion being the arrival of a brand new girl baby. Mother and child are doing as well as can be expected and papa Griswold, we think will, with care survive the shock.

-T. B. Snyder of Sheep creek was in town again last Tuesday to attend court which was to convene on that day. But for reasons that were justifiable no doubt Judge Westover has postponed the court from time to time until now it would seem that the adjourned term—for that all it is—should be carried over to the fall term, it would be better for every body concerned.

-Chas. Coffee, who has been to Reno, Wyo. after a large herd of cattle within the last two weeks, returned home last Monday morning. He reports having quite a serious time coming through a narrow gorge between Cheyenne river and old Woman Creek, he says his buggy tipped over on top of his horses, causing a general smash up of his vehicle &c.

He said it was worse than fighting cattle "rustlers" and hopes that he may not have another such an experience soon.

-The cow boys and cattle rustlers up near Casper, Wyo., have recently had a bloody encounter, resulting in the killing of Bob Smith one of the rustlers and the capture of Bob Taylor who was taken to Casper and lodged in jail. Another fight was expected to follow the next day, but up to this time it has not materialized. It is to be hoped that the rustlers will be routed and captured and placed behind the bars where they ought to be, then the cattle industry of this county will be safe.

-Don't fail to attend the agricultural society meeting on July 31. It seems to us that the people of Sioux county ought to have public spirit enough about them to attend these meetings and assist in every way possible toward having a county fair this fall, and then fix up a collection of the products of our county to send to the state fair to be held at Omaha in September. Next year the great Trans-Mississippi Exposition will be held within our borders and it behooves us as the people of this end of the state to be in the fore front with our county exhibits both at home and also at the state fair. Should we conclude to make a display at the state fair, it might be worth thousands of dollars to our county. Come out and let us make one effort together which will be for the good of our county as well as the state.

-Peter Betty and Mrs J. H. Brown, wife of John Brown who was murdered one week ago last Friday were in Harrison on business connected with the Brown estate which she intends to administer on at once. Mr. Betty and Mrs. Brown who, by the way is his daughter, called at the JOURNAL office last Friday and chatted pleasantly with us for a while, and gave a slight detail of the murder of Mrs. Brown's husband as far as they could find out. They did without hesitation say, they believed John Brown was murdered in cold blood, Mrs. Brown has two letters in her possession, which if true looks to us as if the men who are implicated in the killing of Brown would have to work hard to clear themselves, Mrs. Brown is determined to employ the best counsel possible to convict the two men, Wallace and Herman. Time will tell whether they are guilty, depends on getting a fair and impartial trial. If they are guilty of wilful murder they ought to be punished to the full extent of the law, if not the prisoners ought to be acquitted.

-Another nice little shower struck this place last Saturday afternoon.

-for want of space, we have been obliged to lay over some important matter.

-Mr. Eggert Rober went down to Andrews last Sunday, to look after his cattle and while there tried the pleasure of the hook and line; but the fish down there are evidently strict observers of the Sabbath, hence "nary" a bite did he get.

-Last Thursday evening Mr. Hiram Smoke met with a very painful and what might have been quite a serious accident while engaged in hauling a load of wood, his horses became frightened throwing him off the wagon, dislocating his elbow. He was brought to Harrison the same evening and Dr. Phinney reset the dislocated member.

White River Breezes.

Della Haines of Alliance is very sick at the residence of J. H. Pullen.

Rev. Sloan preached to us last Sunday evening.

Dennis Moran has a new buggy and harness, he goes in style now-a-days.

We have a large number of grasshoppers which we would like to sell, we are willing to sell by the head or gallon; the more the purchaser takes the cheaper we will sell. The little pests have some good qualities, they make very good chicken food and fish bait, but we ourselves are getting tired of them, and as we have an over production we must sell some or the feed will run out and they will die before spring, we hope to get enough out of the crop to go through the winter, if we fail we know no other way to get through except to get on the pension list; future prospects are dark.

Politics are getting hatched out some here. We expect they will be thick before election, we had a scheme about politics a few days ago but we lost it. Its so seldom we have such things that we dont know how to keep em.

Miss May Weber happened to quite an accident last Sunday while coming from Sabbath school, she fell from a horse and had quite a gash cut in her head.

Mrs. John Fry expects to start for Iowa in a few days, she will be gone but a short time.

Mariland News.

The merry buzz of the mower is once more heard in the land.

True Miller, consigned a load of fat cattle to the So. Omaha market Tuesday.

Luther Clark has gone to work for McGinley. His brother Henry is with B. F. Moore.

Running Water boys have organized a base ball team at Mariland, and they can make as much noise as any other league team a float.

C. H. Irion and Octave Harris, were down last week in the interest of the irrigation men up the river, to offer J. F. Roll $300, to settle. We understand the offer was refused.

Ned Criger has concluded to try a change of climate and will leave for Oregon as soon as he disposes of his cattle and ranch on Running Water.

Teachers Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted by the teachers on Friday:

We, the teachers of Sioux county who have been assembled in Harrison for the past six weeks for the purpose of better preparing ourselves for the work which is before us, realizing how little we could accomplish by our own unaided efforts and how much we have accomplished by the able and untiring energy and encouragement of our county superintendents and instructors, and the courtesy and hospitality of the people of Harrison, do hereby adopt the following:

Whereas, Supt. Davis has done more than had ever been done before in Sioux county toward elevating the ideal of teachers and the standard of scholarship, his advice having been so kindly and wisely given, his efforts to do justice to all so untiring, no eulogy however expressive, no praise however high can reach his high character as a man.

Resolved, That in the absence of power to express our love for him and thanks to him for all his kindness, we as teachers pay him the tribute paid our Saviour, the highest tribute that ever was or ever can be paid any man, viz: "He went about doing good."

Resolved, That we realize how weak words are when we undertake to express our gratitude and thanks to Professor Gray for his unflinching interest and untiring energy in our behalf; for his kind assistance in enabling us to overcome difficulties; for the zeal and earnestness which tell us plainly that words ever can that he was with us hand, heart and mind in our efforts to improve our education. We desire that when he leaves us he bear with him the knowledge that scattered among the hills and vales of Sioux county are many who will continue to remember him with love and gratitude while engaged in the good work for which by his efforts they have been so much better prepared. We desire also to heartily thank his efficient co-worker, Miss Gray, for her earnest efforts in our behalf.

Resolved, That we extend our sincere thanks to the M. E. church society for so kindly allowing us the use of their organ.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the students who have furnished us music for their valuable services.

Resolved, That we owe a debt of gratitude to the school board of Harrison for so generously allowing us the use of the school house and books and books and books under their signet.

Resolved, That we fully appreciate the kindness with which we have been received and entertained by the people of Harrison, and their interest in our welfare.

WOMAN'S COLUMN.

Edited by Mrs. Geo. D. Cason.

Short articles from the ladies of Sioux county are solicited.

Beauty or Brains.

There is a popular fallacy that beautiful women do not require intellectuality; that beauty is sufficient unto itself, and that whenever it is superlative it fills the void which the absence of intellectual attainments would have made manifest in a plainer woman.

Beauty is undoubtedly often productive of vanity, and vanity is a certain flaw in character, which, in some degree, subverts the possibility of high intellectual accomplishment; but the history of the world does not tell us of a single beauty who won her way, and who retained what she won, unless she was endowed with something more than mere beauty of face and form.

Wherever beauty exists it is heightened and enhanced and if its possessor is also endowed with those greater beauties of the mind which set it off and furnish the finishing touches, in precisely the same degree that a painting by one of the old masters is rendered ten-fold more attractive when surrounded by an appropriate frame and suspended in the place where the most favorable light may fall upon it. When beauty is deprived of these intellectual auxiliaries it is relegated to the same category as the frameless painting which careless hands have deposited in a forgotten corner, where even the shrewdest connoisseurs might pass it by a hundred times, unseen.

Beauty of the mind is always paramount; beauty of the face is only transitory. When the two walk hand in hand nations bow, and the world looks on and wonders. Beautiful women have swayed the world many, many times in modern history, but never by their beauty alone. The swaying has been done by the brain, not by the face; but when the brain and the face each possessed that extraordinary charm and strength comprehended by the word beauty, in its superlative sense dynasties have tottered, kings have trembled on their thrones, war has been declared, peace has been accomplished, and the world has been made better or worse according to the whim or the caprice of the beautiful woman who had the brain and the dominant will to compel men of great intellectual gifts, statesmen and generals, to do her bidding.

Such a woman was Cleopatra. Historians, novelists, and poets have recited her magnificent charms of person over and over again, and among them all the first one has yet to speak in denial of the extraordinary intellectual gifts of which she was possessed. During her career she conquered with her beauty two of the greatest men that the world ever knew; but she charmed Caesar and Anthony by her subtlety and force of brain, as much or even more than by her voluptuous and ravishing beauty. I she had not been a brilliantly intellectual woman all would remember her only as an incident in history, and not what she in reality was a history maker.

But while Cleopatra and the women of her time were beautiful in mind and body yet it is unnecessary to go to such remote ages in order to find beautiful types of woman, for we have them with us in all their perfection and culture. But let us cite a few. Such a woman was Martha Washington the noblest and most perfect model of true beauty, she whose name is one with the father of our country, her wise counsels were balm to his ears and hearkened to almost as divine. Such a woman was Harriet Beecher Stowe, she whose name is a household word which almost every child knows and only to love and the beauty of her mind was reflected in her countenance. Such were the numberless heroines of the barrack hospitals as those only can testify who have been nursed back to life and health under their gentle ministrations; and who were they? They were ladies some of whom possessed beauty and culture in its very essence, the world loves beautiful women but not the voluptuous beauty of the body alone, for the one beauty without the other which is the real acme is like the flowers born to please for a moment, then wither and die leaving no trace behind.

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui...

McELREY'S Wine of Cardui

taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chamberlain Medicine Co., Chicago, Ill.

W. L. ALDRICH, M.D., City, Minn., says "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."
