Comfort to California.

Yes, and economy, too. If you take the BURLINGTON ROUTE'S personally conducted once-weekly excursions which leave Omaha and Lincoln every Thursday afternoon.

Tourist sleepers—clean, bright, comfortable—through to San Francisco and Los Angeles. Second-class tickets accepted.

Only $5 for a double berth, white enough and big enough for two.

Write for folder giving full information. Or, call at the depot and see the local ticket agent.

I am prepared to do all kinds of mason work, such as plastering, stone work, chimney building and lathing. Inquire at the Harrison House.

NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

The rules of the local land office have recently been amended so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application. All parties desiring to make final proof can have their papers made out at the JOURNAL office, free of charge, and promptly transmitted to the land office so that no time will be lost.

Miss Annie Moravik is employed at the Pontius residence.

Mr. Kendall's oldest son Olney arrived in our midst last week.

Don't forget the Lutheran services at the court house on next Sunday.

A letter to the "boys" from Onley filed at Kirksville Mo. states that he has entered the school of Dr. Still at that place fully determined to master the science of Osteopathy. Good for him perseverance wins the crown.

Have you read the names of the candidates of the fusion parties? Well they are all men who are able fitted for the offices to which they are aspiring and some of them have proven their ability to fill their offices, all should receive the hearty support of the fusion party and thus make a clean sweep on election day.

Hon. Frank Tinkham handed in his resignation as county commissioner to the board of county commissioners which were in regular session yesterday. He authorized the JOURNAL to say that he had resigned for the reason that it was only fair to the people of the district which he represented that they have an opportunity to elect another man to fill the place and then also he could not afford to come down to Harrison every time the board met in order to do his official duty. He also asks us to say that he thanks the people of Sioux county for the courteous treatment he has received at their hands.

The JOURNAL wishes to say in behalf of Frank that we have as yet to hear of the first person making any complaint against Mr. Tinkham as an official and a word against his private character.

Mr. H. Sherman moved his family back to Sheep creek on last Saturday.

D. H. Griswold is having a new cellar dug.

Mr. Ed Bowker is now a member of the JOURNAL.

County treasurer Biehle moved his family into town Monday.

Yacht or a coal pilot Dr Phoney to Ft. Robinson on last Saturday.

Mrs. Eh Smith of Redox was a visitor at the Hub last Saturday.

The car bearing the Sioux county exhibit to the State fair at Omaha rolled into Harrison on last Saturday.

With this issue Mr. James Johnson adds his name to the roll of the JOURNAL readers.

County commissioners meet on last Tuesday it being the regular fall term of business.

James McCan made final proof on a quarter section of Nebraska soil on last Saturday.

The hum of the campaign seems near. All should vote the fusion ticket which is to their own interest.

The cattle of Mr. Tebbet's which were sold at auction on last Thursday went very high. He did well according to everyone's statement.

The good news comes to our friend John Kay that he has a young heir to his fortunes just arrived in the person of a son. Mrs. Kay is back in Ia.

A. L. Stodemaier of White river was a pleasant caller at this office last Friday and while here inscribed his name among the readers of the JOURNAL.

Robert Neece of Bell this county moved his family to town last Monday in order that his children could have an opportunity to attend school during the winter.

Commissioner Frank Tinkham came down from Spring Hill, Wyo., last Monday evening to attend the regular commissioners meeting which convened last Tuesday. Frank still thinks they have a good thing in their Wyoming mine.

Sheriff Bartlett and deputy John Stratton brought George Krossen in from Ft. Robinson last Sunday evening the supposed murderer of Harrison Williams near that place last Friday night. The prisoner now occupies a cell in the county jail.

We are in receipt of a communication from Hon. W. J. A. Raum which we are unable to publish this week on account of the lack of space but it will be published in detail in the next week's issue. We hope this explanation will be satisfactory to our friend Mr. Raum.

George Krossen the slaver of Harrison Williams near Ft. Robinson on the night of the 1st inst and who is now incarcerated in the county jail was brought before Judge Wilson for a preliminary trial last Monday afternoon. He asked for a continuance of ten days in order to have time to procure counsel and make preparation for his defense. His Honor Judge Wilson granted the favor.
