form administration at Lincoln, but Bryan and free silver is not dead, neither is prosperity here in great quantities.

Hon. John J. Sullivan is elected supreme Judge of the state of Nebraska by from 15,000 to 20,000 majority. The fusion candidates for Regents are elected also, though with a slightly decreased majority.

New York, Maryland, Kentucky, Colorado, and probably Ohio has gone Democratic. South Dakota only elected three reform circuit Judges out of eight to be elected in the state.

It has always been evident to us that if the voters were left alone without resort to coercion and intimidation, they would be found voting right on all public questions that would be for the welfare of the public good.

Ex-state auditor Hipple and the present state auditor Mayhew of south Dakota have been bound over to the circuit court for embezzlements of state funds. Let the good work go on, if men elected to fill important offices in the gift of the people without stealing then they ought to be dealt with accordingly. No matter what party they represent.

Report comes from Daves county that the entire county ticket is elected with the exception of county Superintendent and that office stands in doubt up to last night with three or four precincts to hear from giving the fusion candidate a fighting chance for election yet. Rev. Julian was a very popular candidate, and hence his better chance for election.

Now that the campaign is closed let us get down to business and let the past be the past. It has been our aim during the campaign just closed to refrain from personal flings at any of the candidates running on the opposition ticket. And a paper or a candidate who will engage in such disreputable business ought not to be countenanced in a neighborhood. There is one thing we have this much to say on that point; It has been without doubt one of the cleanest campaigns it ever has been our good fortune to pass through. Which in our opinion speaks volumes for the people of Sioux county. In a general way the candidates on both sides seem to have vied with each other in conducting the canvas on a clean vote hunt. Of course we may be mistaken, in the above statements but believe we are correct in what we say.

All the defeated candidates seem to take defeat like men without making a howl as some defeated candidates would do. The other fellows had they been defeated, would doubtless have taken their medicine the same.

Henry George the laboring man's friend and who was a candidate for mayor of Greater New York City died on the 29th ult. of apoplexy in that city while in active campaign work, having made a speech the night he died and only seven or eight hours before. No doubt but if he had lived to pass through to the end of the campaign he would have been elected the next mayor of New York city. He certainly had Tamany and the Platt machines pretty badly beaten up to the time of his death. Whatever might have been the result as to his election last Tuesday at any rate the laboring people of the United States have lost one of their best friends and will be a long time before another man will be found who can fill his place as well. It is a pity there is not more such men in the world.

Henry George has been called an anarchist and a crazy crank, but the epithets were misapplied, and any body who took the trouble—and was not too partisan—to read his views could not hesitate to say his political views were as sound as the views of the two old parties. He was doubtless honest and sin-

What is Thought of an Editor.

The man who can run a newspaper without being criticised, censured and threatened, has never been found, says the Maysville, (Ky.) Ledger. He is a barren idealist, beautiful to think of but incapable of taking on moral ality and associating with vulgar humanity. It is as impossible for a newspaper man to please every body as it is for every body to please him, and the sooner he makes up his mind to the stubborn fact the better for all concerned. If he works hard for the public good, he receives private sensure; if he compliments merit he is censured by jealous demerits; if he approves morality he is cursed by immorality; if he tries to be fair he is condemned by the unfair; if he makes a mistake few overlook it or apologize for him. No matter how innocent his purpose, how studied his writings, he is picked to pieces, misrepresented, maligned, ridiculed and seldom defended. He works hard for bread and butter while other men wax rich around him. He writes up a yard long marriage article to the quehos taste for nothing, and is threatened with a lical suit or a duel if he mentions a drunken spree of the bride groom six months afterward. Yes it is impossible to please all. As well attempt to chain a cyclone or lasso the lightning.

Ten Follies.

- First—To think the more a man eats the fatter and stronger he becomes.
- Second—To think the more hours children study at school the more they learn.
- Third—To conclude that if exercise is healthful, the more violent or exhausting it is the more good it will do.
- Fourth—To imagine that every hour taken from sleep is an hour gained.
- Fifth—To act on the presumption that the smallest room in the house is large enough to sleep in.
- Sixth—To argue that whatever remedy causes one to feel better at once is good for the system, without regard to interior effects.
- Seventh—To commit an act which is felt in itself to be prejudicial, hoping that some how or other it may be good in your case with impunity.
- Eighth—To advise another to take a remedy which you have tried yourself, or without special inquiry whether all the conditions are alike.
- Ninth—To eat without any appetite, or to continue to eat after it has been satisfied merely to gratify the taste.
- Tenth—To eat a hearty supper for the pleasure experienced during the brief time it is passing down the throat at the expense of a whole night of disturbed sleep or a weary waking in the morning.—North Western Catholic

We are informed that the 1898 almanac of Prof. Irl R. Hicks is now ready and judging from its past history, it will not be many weeks in finding its way into homes and offices all over America. It is much larger and finer than any previous issue. It contains 113 pages, is splendidly printed and illustrated on fine book paper, having the finest portrait ever given of Prof. Hicks. It can no longer be denied that the publications of Prof. Hicks have become a necessity to the family and commercial life of this country. His journal.

"WORD AND WORKS, aside from its storm, weather and astronomical features has taken rank with the best literary, scientific and family magazines of the age. Do not believe hearsay and reports. See the Hicks Almanac and paper for yourself. You will then know why they are so popular. They are educators of the millions and unvalued safeguards to property and human life. How To Find Out

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand twenty-four hours, a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It cures its inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention THE SWAMP ROOT JOURNAL and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietors of this paper guarantee the genuineness of this offer.
