NOTICE TO SETTLERS.
The rules of the local land office have recently been amended so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application.
All parties desiring to make final proof can have their papers made out at THE JOURNAL office, free of charge, and promptly transmitted to the land office so that no time will be lost.

This week O. A. Garton commences to read the JOURNAL.

Always keep in mind that BARTELL can save you money on nearly every thing.

The total vote cast in Sioux county Nov 2nd was 403 a failing off of 52 votes over last year.

If you want a first class cook stove or heater or stove repairs you can find same at BARTELL'S.

Tom Bell, was down from Lusk Monday and stopped over night in town returning home Tuesday.

The JOURNAL will be read at Kirkville, Mo. for the year to come by Chas. Martsteller who is there studying for an
M. D.

W. S. Nicholson, from Snake creek was in town Monday. He was the republican candidate two years ago for County Clerk.

Hooping cough has made its appearance in Harrison within the past two weeks.
Some of the children have been kept out of school on account of it.

down in Warbonnet, and who has been away on the range for the past summer was in Harrison Monday paying his taxes.
He engaged with A. F. Christian to work for the winter out on Rawhide.

Notice—I tan cattle hides and all kind of skins with hair for robes, or without for leather. See sample and prices in J. H. Bartell's store.

H. OLERICH. Glen, Neb.

Dont forget the Kintoscope show next Monday the 15th. It will be worth your while to go and see it.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sutton, Laney's mother was down from Kirtley Monday and Tuesday of this week. She was visiting with Laney and his family and doing some trading.

The Graphophone at Martsteller Bros still continues to draw crowds.
Every body is anxious to be the lucky one who will draw it along about the holi days.

Herman E. Miller and R. C. Tally of Cottontree were before the county commissioners on Saturday last with a petition to change the location of a road in their precinct.

The Empower League society will give a free entertainment at Andrews Hall, Friday evening Nov. 12th. There will be a free will offering box and we would like to have each one give what they feel they can. Geo. WILLIAMS

A. Ekquist will be a reader of the JOURNAL in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Buff Coffee were visitors at the Hub last Saturday.

Just take a look at those children's cheeks at BARTELL'S before you buy.

Jeff. Martsteller is now domiciled in his own mansion recently vacated by Mr.
Wright etc.

The County Commissioners were in session last week it being the regular meeting of the board.

Elder Scammon came in on the west bound train Wednesday; he will remain in Harrison one week.

Mr. J. H. Bartell has moved his family to town, they occupy the rooms in the rear of Gerlach's store.

Mrs. W. H. Bonell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bester is down from the O. W. Ranch in Wyoming visiting with her parents.

Notice—Anybody wishing to buy metal wheels will do well to call up or ad dress Chas. Chiltz Harrison Neb.

The vote of Sioux county was can-vased by County clerk Blewett assisted by Attorney A. T. Clark and Lewis Gerlach Friday evening.

Miss Hartman dropped into our sanctum for a few minutes last Friday. She is the guest of Mrs. Ernest on Running water.

As most of our news letters came on the noon mail Thursday we regret our inability to publish them as the forms were almost made up when they arrived.
Try and send a day earlier next time.

Elder J. A. Scammon representing this presiding Elder District will hold quarterly conference in Harrison Saturday Nov. 13th. He will stay in Harrison for a week attending revival meetings which will be in session all next week.

Commissioners Weber and Young were out to Montrose and Cottontree last Friday viewing roads and bridges.
Out at Montrose they condemned a five hundred dollar bridge it being so rotten that it is dangerous to cross. Notice for dried herring.

The Kinetoscope novelty-show Co. is billed for Harrison Monday evening Nov.
15th. They have Mr. Edison's latest improved moving picture machine which produces life size moving scenes. In addition to a varied program of interest.
The Corbett Courtney contest will be given.
Admission reasonable.

Hon James P. Young candidate for commissioner in this third district and who is one of our present efficient commissioners was defeated by Jackson Mettlan.
Those who are acquainted with him say Mr. Mettlan is a good business man and will doubtless look after the interest of the tax-payers of the county.

Hon Judge G. T. H. Babcock of Leadron was in Harrison on business Tuesday. His honor was a candidate for county Judge of Dawes county this fall, but was defeated by Hon Judge Ricker, his opponent. The Chadron ticket was elected by good majority to stay at home. Oh yes, they got there all right just as the other fellows wanted.

The total vote cast in Sioux county
