A map of the United States.

A wall map issued by the Burlington Route is three feet wide by four long; is printed in seven colors; is mounted on rollers; shows every state, county, important town and railroad in the Union, and forms a very desirable and useful adjunct to any household or business establishment. Purchased in large quantities, the maps cost Burlington Route more than fifteen cents each, but on receipt of that amount in stamps the undersigned will be pleased to send you one. Write immediately, as the supply is limited.

Grant Guthrie will leave for Washington, D. C., about the middle of this month where he goes to visit his parents.

Mr. A. Freddy and family will move into town about the first of March.

—Next Monday will be Valentines day.

—Old papers for sale at this office, 5c per lakers dozen.

—Now is the time to subscribe for the JOURNAL only $1.00 per year.

—Rev. Kendall, was at Crawford Tuesday night, returning home the next morning.

—The SIOUX County JOURNAL and the Chicago Weekly Inter Ocean $1.25 per year just think.

—Anton Moravek and son, Henry went to Chadron on business and are expected to return today.

—A. Stahl, has added his name to the list of JOURNAL readers, and so the good work goes on daily.

—J. H. Cook, of Running Water returned from Sioux City yesterday where he has been on business.

—Thos. Bingay, of this village, and Jack Raffin from Rawhide went to Crawford on business Tuesday evening.

—Dr. Phinney lost another cow Tuesday as a result of the eating of paint which caused the death of the other four head.

—Capt. W. H. Corbin, who lives near the south line of this county, is in town attending to some business matters here.

—Of course we look for six week's more winter, as the "ground-hog" discovered his shadow last Wednesday—which we failed to mention.

—Rev. E. E. Tarbill, of Cheyenne, Wyo., Supt. Methodist missions of that state passed through here on his way home from the east yesterday.

—George Davis living at the head of Indian creek came into town yesterday to do some trading and stayed over night, returning home today.

Notice—I tan cattle hides and all kind of skins with hair for robes, or without or leather. See sample and prices in J. H. Bartell's store.

H. OLBRIGHT, Glen, Neb.

—June Smith is making wax-ends and assisting E. Rohwer in the harness shop this week. June is thinking some of buying the shop, so says dame rumor.

—H. A. Freddy, John H. Bartell, Commissioner Metten and Alex Lowery, have made application, for membership and will be taken into the M. W. W. at their next lodge meeting.

—The meetings which have been in progress for the past five week's, under the direction of the pastor J. L. Kendall were closed Sunday evening. As a result, twenty-nine have been added to the church. All have been wonderfully blessed.

—Hark! Oh yes, now comes o'er the distant prairies, the faint sound of wedding bells, from the direction of Cottonwood. And now for a piece of advice from the JOURNAL scribe, if the boys go to charivari you, be careful that your gun is not loaded. Ask the boys in.

—Among the pleasant callers who dropped in for a moment this week, our friend, J. A. Hanson greeted us as pleasantly as any, by dropping a 50c dollar on our desk to pay for another year's subscription to the JOURNAL, many thanks kind friend, chide again when in town.

—Mrs. Chris Christensen of Andrews, sister of Mrs. E. Rohwer, of this city, went west to Lusk on yesterday's passenger; called by sickness in the family of her brother-in-law Mr. Ward. Mr. Rohwer informed a reporter on this paper that the children of Mr. Ward are quite sick of pneumonia.

—Rev. J. W. Kendall, Brother of our pastor who was expected to preach here last Sabbath morning was called to Crawford Saturday evening. Meeting was called early for Saturday evening and he preached a splendid sermon; after which the Epworth League accompanied him to the train and bade him God speed.

—We noticed a little boy taking his little girl home from church one night this week and when he had reached the vicinity of main street a lot of other little boys who had congregated together on the street began to scream and yell like a lot of wild animals. Shame on you boys! be manly and gentlemanly.

—Word reached Harrison, last week that the Chadron Recorder had its doors closed by the Sheriff of Dawes county but as usual the Recorder comes along just the same and under the same management. We notice, however, that the Recorder, after a severe stroke of McKinley prosperity, comes out flat-footed and more out-spoken for the reform forces than it has done at any time under its present proprietors.

—All interested in the noble work of building a catholic chapel in Harrison will please send their name and the amount they are willing to donate for that purpose either to this office or to Rev. Father Muenich at Crawford, and God willing in a few short months the spire of a Catholic edifice will waft its tower heaven-ward. The widow's mite will be most acceptable.

—It looks somewhat silly to us to see little girls ten or twelve years old being galloped home from Church or League, by boys but little older. Then again, we wonder if the parents of these little boys and girls do actually approve of such conduct. Why think of it, boys and girls just able to talk plain; boys should be wearing knee pants and the girls yet wearing short dresses. Better give more attention to obtaining an education and learn more of the ways of the world. What we say is in a spirit of kindness and hope it will be taken in the same light.

—Special term of court will convene next Tuesday.

—Leon J. S. Tucker, of Glen, will read the JOURNAL in the future.

—Roy Wright and Roy Maisie are now editors of the Press

—Our Uncle Samuel is having a new floor put in the post office building.

—Geo Scott of Ft. Robinson, with this issue will become a reader of the JOURNAL.

—Linn Ellis of Warbonnet was a visitor at the county seat, on last Tuesday.

—Anton Moravek has rented the Lindeman building and will move his family into it soon as his lease expires at the hotel.

—Our local pen-pusher in giving an account of himself during this week, describes local gleanings as very precious articles.

—Sheriff Holly spent Wednesday and Thursday of this week, at Ft. Robinson, in the discharge of his official duties.

—Have you noticed that new lamp at Marsteller Bros., store? Step in there some night when it is burning, and see what a brilliant light it gives.

—We are pleased to be able to announce that the mother of Mrs. J. H. Bartell, who has been quite ill for some time, is now able to be up and around.

—The busiest man in town this week at least one of the busy men in our midst this week and we are glad to notice it too is our friend James Wright. Success to you.

—R. G. Montgomery, the B & M claim agent was in Harrison filing supercedas papers with the clerk of the courts of this county in the case of Tinnia vs B. & M. Railroad.

—We found out what took Jo Varley to Andrews last Sunday. You see he has a girl down there. We promised to give them a quarter of a column write-up, but space forbids this time.

—Among those who were up from Andrews last evening to attend Woodman of the World meeting we noticed Frank Clendfield, Ed Swartz, Chris Christensen, W. H. Davis and Thomas Jones.

—Rev Father Muenich will unite in Marriage Mr. Daniel Jordan and Miss Barbara Wasserburger in the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Montrose Neb. on Monday Febr. 14 at 9:30 a. m.

MARRIED.—At the court-house to-day Mr. Thos. B. Kirby of Chambria, Wyo., and Miss Julian P. Stephens of the same place Judge Wilson officiating. The groom is 29 years old and his bride 19. Chas. Biehle and M. J. Biewett acted as witnesses.

The JOURNAL scribe who happened to be present takes this way to offer congratulation and hope many years of connubial bliss may be their portion through life.

—County treasurer Biehle, who went to Lincoln a couple of weeks ago on official business, and then went on to Peoria Ill., on a visit, returned home Tuesday; he reports a good time while away and, seemingly was glad to get back to the old stamping ground.

—Have you subscribed for the New Time it has become the grandest weapon ever placed in the hands of the people. You should not be without it. We offer a clubing rate of $1.65 for THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL and the New Time, or will forward your subscription of $1.00 for the New Time.

—Have you noticed the happy smile on county Treasurer Biehle's countenance? Well would you know the reason? He told a reporter on this paper (and Charlie never speak's without saying something) that it was all because he is back among the "boys." True, too true friend Biehle, there's no place like home.

—The family of Mr. Francis had a narrow escape from poisoning one evening this week, caused by eating canned oysters at their supper. The entire family were more or less sick from eating of the poisoned shell-fish, and hence Dr. Phinney's assistance was deemed necessary after which they all soon began to improve, and we are pleased to be able to state that all are now out of danger.

—Dr. Phinney had misfortune to loose four head of cattle, two cows and two calves, Tuesday of this week, caused by their eating paint which Dr. usually keeps in a work-shop situated in the rear of his home, the door of the shop being accidentally left open, the cattle went in and helped themselves. Five head partook of the dainty dish, but only four head died as the result of the feast. Dr. Phinney places the loss at $100.

—In a circular letter from Hon. J. V. Wolfe he informs us there are 750,000 acres of school lands for lease in the following named counties:

- Hitchcock, Lincoln, Banner, Box Butte, Grant, Deuel, Kirtle, Logan, Loup, Sioux, Thomas, Keye Paha, Kimball, Perkins, Rock, Scotts Bluff, Sherman, Phelps, Wheeler.

Parties either in Nebraska or in the east desiring to lease any of these school lands in the above counties can get a list of these lands by writing to Hon. J. V. Wolfe, commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings at Lincoln, Neb.
