OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. B. Canon, - - - Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

The JOURNAL stands fairly and squarely on the Chicago platform, but will not hesitate to support and work for the election of candidates for the various offices to be voted for this fall no matter, whether they are Democrats, Populist or free silver Republicans, if endorsed by all the reform parties, conditional, however, that they advocate bi-metallicism the income tax law, opposition to national banks of issue, are opposed to the retirement of the greenbacks and treasury notes, favor government control of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines and the establishment of postal savings banking system, and also are opposed to the issuing of national bonds in time of peace.

Every citizen of the United States should, by word, act or deed help the president, maintain the honor and dignity of our country, should war be declared by congress against Spain for their devilish treachery in blowing up the battleship Maine.

Adolph Luettgen will have charge of the Joliet penitentiary sausage factory, and will henceforth make sausages for the prisoners.

The Maximum Freight Bill of Nebraska which has been before the U. S. supreme court for over two years was declared unconstitutional by that august tribunal last week.

Last week, Mr. Long, Secretary of the navy assisted the Wall Street gamblers to clean up $26,000,000, by giving them a little inside information. The question arises just at this time, how much did Mr. Long make out of the deal.

Congress has shown its patriotism by appropriating $50,000,000, the same to be used at the discretion of the President for the buying of battle ships and carrying on the war with Spain. There was not a dissenting voice when the bill was put on its final passage partisanship was lost sight of, while our country is in danger. When it comes to the final struggle the whole American people will be just as patriotic as was congress on the 8th inst.

The JOURNAL is opposed to making the Trans-Mississippi exposition at Omaha a political sideshow for any particular party organization but if the goldites of the United States have no higher aspirations than to make the exposition nothing but a big campaign bureau, we say then, give all political parties the same opportunity to display their political cunning by reproducing the home-land of their patron saints, whether living or dead. Hence, we say under the circumstances, by all means reproduce the home-land of Hon. William J. Bryan who so gallantly fought the battle of the people in 1896, and is still the most formidable champion of their cause. Of course the Bryan home-land would not be quite as imposing as Mr. McKinley's but it would be more in keeping with the houses lived in by the people, whose cause, he has so faithfully championed. No doubt that enough could be raised by popular subscription to make the project a success, and we hope it will be.

This nation was conquered and taken prisoner in 1873 by Europe, without firing a gun.

The president ought to dispatch a special envoy to Spain with instructions, imploring that government not to declare war against a fourth rate nation like the United States.

Had a battleship of England, France, Russia, Germany, Italy or any other of those foreign nations been blown up in Havana harbor as was the Maine, Havana would have been destroyed ere this.

The administration done every thing possible in its power to make the Spanish government understand that the U. S. government isn't going to fight against the wishes of the money power, also M. A. Hanna and Mr. Bowtell of Maine, who represents them in congress.

Some of our loyal citizens seem to think that if the United States was to undertake to chastise Spain for blowing up the battleship Maine, we would have more than we bargained for. They never stop to think that less than half of the Cubans have been more than a match for them.

Thos. B. Reed, secretary of the navy, Long and Mr. Bowtell of Maine are doing all they can to assist Spain in her Cuban conquest of murder and starvation, and the New York and London bankers to rob this nation. No other man had such patriotism in this nation except Grover Cleveland and ex-secretary of state Olney.

To confirm the truthfulness of what M. A. Hanna says, "their will be no war between the United States and Spain," we quote president McKinley.

"You may rest assured there will not be war with my consent, except for a cause which will satisfy good men here, the nations of Europe and almighty God."

The Republican papers, who are frightened to death over the sure defeat of gold standard party in the next congress and the routing of McKinleyism in 1900, are trying to make the reform forces believe that the 16 to 1 idea is dying out, and that is the only reform issue the democrats favor, which is as false as the blackness of night. As a representative of the democratic party, we point with pride to the Chicago platform of 1896. Up in Sioux county, Neb., nothing has been eliminated from that platform by the democrats.

The following is clipped from the Cincinnati Inquirer, and is taken from a letter written by a survivor of the Maine, and who is a descendant of admiral Bainbridge:

"Dear Tom: what do you think of McKinley now? Evidently our president is a strict constructionist of the scriptural command to turn the other cheek for second smiting. He carries the matter further, for he has already been smote on both cheeks, and now turns the nations cheek.

FOR A THIRD BLOW.

"There are several survivors of the Maine now in Key West, and they say that the ship was certainly blown up by the Spaniards. If we had anything but a figurhead at the head of the Government we should have blown Havana off the edge of the island the day after the explosion. You understand I am not spoiling for a fight, but it is exasperating to think that the infernal Spaniards can murder as many of us as they like and then we do nothing but lay here at Key West and load our guns to prevent them from demolishing the.

REST OF THE SQUADRON.

If the Maine had been an English ship the English would have had surveyors there now trying to find out where Havana used to stand, but we are peaceably inclined nation. Just write to say that you made a fool of yourself by voting for McKinley, at whom the whole world is openly laughing at present."

Young Richardson is a lineal descendant of Admiral Bainbridge, the naval hero of the early days of the republic.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF JOHN H. BROWN, DECEASED.

ORDER FOR HEARING OF FINAL ACCOUNT.

Now on the 8th day of March, 1898, came ANNIE BROWN, the Administratrix of said Estate, and prays for leave to render a final account as such administratrix. It is therefore ordered that the 4th day of April, 1898, at one o'clock p. m., at my office, in Harrison, Nebraska, be fixed as the time and place for examining and allowing such account. And the heirs of said deceased, and all persons interested in said Estate, are required to appear at the time and place so designated and show cause, if such exists, why said account should not be allowed. It is further ordered that the said ANNIE BROWN, Administratrix, give notice to all persons interested in said Estate by causing a copy of this order to be published in THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL, a legal newspaper printed and in general circulation in said county, for four weeks prior to the day set for said hearing.

Dated March 8th, 1898.
A true copy.
ROBERT WILSON, County Judge.
