OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. D. Canos, - - - Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

The JOURNAL stands fairly and squarely on the Chicago platform, but will not hesitate to support and work for the election of candidates for the various offices to be voted for this fall no matter, whether they are Democrats, Populist or free silver Republicans, if endorsed by all the reform parties, conditional, however, that they advocate bi-metallicism the income tax law, opposition to national banks of issue, are opposed to the retirement of the greenbacks and treasury notes, favor government control of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines and the establishment of postal savings banking system, and also are opposed to the issuing of national bonds in time of peace.

The greenbacks answered all purposes during the civil war, why will they not do now?

Of course the National bankers need the government to back them up with another issue of gold-bearing bonds.

The Populist state central committee are called to meet at Omaha June 2nd, 1898 at the Faxon hotel for the purpose of naming the time and place for the holding of the state convention.

Will the U. S. Senate refuse to pass the $500,000,000 bond clause in the war revenue measure? and substitute instead treasury notes and greenbacks? The eyes of the people are watching their acts intently.

Should the United States navy achieve another such a brilliant victory as that at the Philippine islands last Sunday morning within the next two weeks at Porto Rico it will no doubt close the war within thirty days afterwards.

"The Best thing that has happened lately is the enforced resignation of John Sherman. When a man has been in the service of his country for forty-two years and is a multi-millionaire he must have been some kind of a thief."—Rev. Myron Reed of Denver.

Every congressman from Nebraska, who votes for the bond clause in the special war revenue measure, now before that august body for consideration should be spotted and elected to stay at home in the coming fall campaign.

The United States cannot help but whip out the Spanish forces for the reason that our military both land and naval forces are by far the best equipped and braver than the Spanish soldiers and then they are in the right.

According to the metropolitan press the national bankers are opposed to making the $500,000,000 bond issue a popular loan in case the treasurer is authorized by law to issue them maintaining that the national banks are the bone and sinew of the nation. The president seems inclined to yield to their demands if the great dailies can be relied on for the truth.

The newspapers that have always been loyal do not have to flaunt the flag in every column to prove their patriotism. Ex-copperheads and ex-rebels are naturally expected to shout loudest for Old Glory which they fired bullets into or otherwise insulted when the life of the nation was in danger.

Every indication now points to a five hundred million dollar bond issue. When senator Hanna gave the New York bankers the tip two months ago that in all probability there would be a five hundred million dollar U. S. bond issue he knew pretty near what he was talking about.

The above is a good one on Gen. Fitzhugh Lee and all the loyal men of the south, who are just now earnestly engaged in assisting a republican administration to drive the Spanish from the western hemisphere. It will soon be time for the fall campaign and the above will doubtless be a sample of argument produced by those kind of republican papers for purposes.

WAR NEWS.

A PROSPECT OF WAR.

As Indicated by the daily Press.

Last Sunday morning probably one of the greatest naval battles ever fought in the history of the world, took place between Commodore Dwey commanding the U. S. fleet of the Asiatic and the Spanish squadron in the harbor of Manila, Phillipine islands resulting in the complete destruction of the Spanish squadron with slight damage to our fleet. Something like 400 men were killed on the Spanish side no official account of how many were lost to the American forces has not yet been received. Later commodore Dwey and his force are now in full possession of the Phillipine islands which the United States will hold until such time Spain will pay indemnity for the loss of the Maine and other expenses incurred as a result of the Spanish war. Late advices from Madrid is to the effect that Madrid has been placed under martial law. According to late daily papers ex-Capt. General Campo of Cuba and Morret the war minister of Spain had been assassinated last Tuesday and that Sagasta the prime minister had taken refuge at the British Embassy to save his own life. Porto Rico will in all probability fall into our hands soon, as a decisive battle is expected to be fought there between the Spanish fleet and our own inside of a week or ten days.

From our Special Correspondent at Lincoln.

Our last war on its financial side was sustained with greenbacks. The opponents of Lincoln called the greenbacks "rag-babies, Lincoln rags, and bloody banks." Wall street and the whole gang of northern disloyalists never ceased to denounce Lincoln's money. In those days the Republican party was a unit for the greenbacks. The boys in blue defended them. Behold what a change there is now! The republican party has taken up the old disloyal cry and has begun to denounce the money of Lincoln. Secretary Gage has been down to visit the magnates of Wall street and the house of Seligman prominent in the days of '61 is now closeted with the secretary of the treasury, planning to issue bonds. The republican party today under the leadership of Gage, is but a reproduction of the old disloyalist party led by Valandingham. Out of the patriotic impulse of the people who refuse to see women and children starved to death in Cuba, they calculate to coin bonds so that our boys when they return from the trip to give freedom to the oppressed shall find added burdens to bear not only for themselves but for their children and their children's children. Like the old Tory whom Patrick Henry spoke of, who went up and down the line of the American batteries crying, "Beef, beef, I want to pay for my beef," the disloyal financiers of today go along the line, under the lead of Gage and Seligman, crying, "bonds bonds, bonds, we want bonds," and the sycophantic republican press replies, "Yes you shall have bonds $500,000,000 of bonds."

Today the reform forces in congress represent exactly the same principles and are inspired by the same patriotic impulse that the old republican party was when the north demanded the freedom of the negro slaves. Their policies are the same, their schemes of taxation the same, the money they demand is the same.

The bill reported to the house by the Republican members of the ways and means committee has one chief feature the rest of the bill is planned to aid and sustain them in getting that one factor enacted into law and that is to authorize the issue of $500,000,000 of bonds.

The minority report of the reform forces in the same committee asks that the old Lincoln policy may be employed in conducting this war, namely a tax on incomes over $2000 and the coinage of the silver bullion lying idle in the treasury.

The position of the two parties is illustrated by a story contained in a letter of Abraham Lincoln to the Boston committee when he was invited to help them celebrate Jefferson's birthday. In speaking of the two parties at that time he said that it reminded him of a fight he once saw. Both men had heavy overcoats. At the end of the fight each man had somehow fought himself into the other's overcoat. That the republican party of 1860 represented the Jeffersonian democracy, while the pro-slavery democracy of that day had got themselves around to the position formerly occupied by the federalist.

Today again we see the same thing. The Reform forces are now occupying the place and defending the same principles which Abraham Lincoln, Chase, Seward and hosts of others defended in the dark days of '61 while the republican leaders at Washington have adopted the policies and methods of the Valandingham of that day.

Let a cry go up from this land that while our young men go out to free Cuba, we pledge our sacred honor that that upon their return they shall not find themselves or their children bonded for generations to come.
