OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. D. Canon, - - - Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

The JOURNAL stands fairly and squarely on the Chicago platform, but will not hesitate to support and work for the election of candidates for the various offices to be voted for this fall no matter, whether they are Democrats, Populist or free silver Republicans, if endorsed by all the reform parties, conditional, however, that they advocate bi-metallicism the income tax law, opposition to national banks of issue, are opposed to the retirement of the greenbacks and treasury notes, favor government control of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines and the establishment of postal savings banking system, and also are opposed to the issuing of national bonds in time of peace.

And lo, France and England are now looking askance at each other. Poor little France would in such an emergency be swallowed up by one of the mistresses of the seas great guns.

Senator Wolcott who was inclined to oppose the bond clause in the war revenue bill has been prevailed on by the administration to support the bill as it came from the house without eliminating the bond clause.

Russia, France and Germany, whose sole aim during the past few years have been to seize territory from other countries, to which they have no right, at least no legal right but that of usurpers. Their latest one in that line is the coveting of the Philippine islands by German superior but we give his Kiersch fair warning hands off, Uncle Sams brave soldier boys are more than able to cope with the Cuban affair, and if necessary the whole of Europe.

The gentlemen in the U. S. senate, who represent the multi-millionaire of this country and Europe voted to a man against an income tax, which if it could become a law of our land would compel the rich to pay their just share of the running expenses of the country. The same men voted in the same way on all other propositions that were presented which would benefit the wealth producing class of the United States in the future. Little doubt now but that half a billion dollars in bonds will be issued in the interest of the money sharks before this congress adjourns.

In the 1896 presidential campaign, the republicans notified the reform parties that you could not legislate money into a man's pocket but just now that same party are making the effort of their lives in congress to legislate into the pockets of the national banks and bond-holders of this country about $80,000,000. If an income tax should be attempted to be incorporated into law and placed on the statute books of the nation which would force the rich to pay their just share of the running expenses of the nation, then a great bowl goes up and the supreme court comes to the relief of the money sharks and declares such a law to be unconstitutional.

A few partisan politicians such as congressman Grosvenor and Mark Hanna of Ohio are making the statement that this war with Spain was a Republica war. And now, with loud proclaim the republicans papers are shouting that Commodore Dewey is a republica. As to Commodore Dewey, it matters not to the loyal people of the nation what his politics or religion is, it is enough to know that he has done his duty and that right well. About the only thing republica about the war so far is the five hundred million-dollar bond-deal that speaker Reed, Dingley and Grosvenor of the lower house, and Mark Hanna, Mat Quay and a half dozen Hannacrats in the senate assisted by the national banks and multi-millionaires of the country. The republica party are welcome to all the praise in that line.

A joint resolution providing for electing U. S. Senators by popular vote of the people, passed the house on the 11th inst by a vote of 184 to 11.

Englands greatest statesman, Rt. Hon. William E. Gladstone is slowly passing away at Haywarden, his country seat in England. His demise is expected at any moment by the attending physicians.

The war strategy board at Washington, have come to the conclusion that our naval officers in charge of our battleships know more about conducting a naval war-fare than they do. Hence the officers, who are to do the actual fighting have been told to go ahead and use their own judgement in conducting the campaign.

If the reading of the great daily papers of the country are any indication there is more politics and bonds mixed up in the war with Spain than patriotism unless it is among the high privates who will have the fighting to do. Senator Chandler of New Hampshire has observed already that is about the size of the situation.

The JOURNAL believes as much credit and praise should be accorded the brave men who composed the crew and maned the great guns on the U. S. battleships in the great naval engagement against the Spanish in Manila harbor as Commodore Dewey. Great praise and honor is lavished upon Commodore Dewey by all the great metropolitan papers with comparatively little praise for his brave men.

A lengthy editorial appeared in the World-Herald of May 13th, relative to the enlistment as a high private in the Nebraska volunteers of John G. Maher of Chadron who has been official reporter for Judge Westover of this 15th judicial district three or four years. The World-Herald certainly pays a high compliment to Col. Maher for the patriotic spirit he has shown by sacrificing a $3,000 a-year position which shows, he had no selfish motive in view, or he would have sought for something better in the volunteer service, having the pull with the administration that he did.

It is a noticeable fact that sons of congressmen and governors of the different states of the union have and are succeeding in getting most of the choice places in the volunteer army also, at the war and navy departments at Washington. In a time of war with a foreign power like the present one, favoritism and politics should have no part in making up the personal of army officials. There are thousands of men who have enlisted or will enlist to battle for their country in a time of need who are no doubt just as competent in every way as the sons of men who have a pull down at the national capital.

Senator Allison of Iowa, estimates that the war revenue bill as it came from the finance committee in the upper house will produce 51 millions more revenue than the bill which originated in the house. So that with the issuing of 150 million of greenbacks and treasury notes and the coining of the 42 million of silver bullion now in the U. S. treasury, known as signorage or the profit accruing to the government from coining of the silver at the mints over the cost of purchase added, will produce in round numbers the enormous sum of 345 millions annual for carrying on the war against Spain. But of course the senate finance committee eliminated the bond clause, yet it may be re-considered when it comes up in committee of the whole.

The lower house of congress has displayed a great deal of common sense by passing the joint resolution in favor of the election of U. S. senators by direct vote of the people. If they will go a little farther and pass a resolution amending the constitution of the United States so that the president and vice president can be elected by direct vote of the people that part of congress will endeavor itself to the people in a way that will not soon be forgotten.

Will the dignified senate be as swift to listen to the demands of the country on this particular question as the lower house? It is to be hoped it will. Every voter in the United States is a sovereign and ought to have a direct voice in the election of its representatives in congress and then, it would be more democratic to elect by popular vote, besides there would be less chance for such men as Calvin S. Brice and Mark Hanna being able to buy themselves into office. When that time comes, if it ever does brains, honesty and integrity will be more apt to go to congress to represent the interests of our people, than some party boss with no other motive in view but the interests of corporation, trusts and monopolies.

As it had got decidedly unhealthy down at Washington ex-secretary Sherman has concluded to take a trip to Klondyke.

The reform forces should stand together in the congressional campaign. Remember the truism "united we stand divided we fall."

If the greenback and silver dollar is good enough for the poor people of this country, why are they not good enough for the national bankers and bond holders? Can any body answer this question? Why are the people of this country paid for the products of their labor in a depreciated currency.

By the time Spain has got through with the United States, she will wish she never heard of Cuba, or the battleship Maine, which she sunk in Havana harbor. And if there are any other nations who want to take Spain part, let them sail in, Uncle Sam has plenty of Dewey's, Sampson's and Schley's, with land forces to back them up.
