There is a good deal of talk lately about big guns, rapid-firing guns, rifles of various bores, mortars and the like, but few people know much about these war appliances or how much it costs to fire them or the size of the projectiles they throw or the range of the guns.

You may have wondered at the statistics that in India in the year 1875 there were over 19,000 people slain by wild beasts, and that in the year 1876 there were in India over 20,000 people destroyed by wild animals.

A number of newspapers in different parts of the West are noting among the most important of the changes in conditions during the past few weeks the rise in the value of farm lands.

How few men have succeeded largely in a financial sense and yet maintained their simplicity and religious consecration! Not one man in 100.

The best inheritance a young man can have is the feeling that he has to fight his own battle, and that life is a struggle into which he must throw body, mind and soul or be disgracefully worsted.

THIS sermon of Dr. Talmage will have a tendency to take the gloom out of many lives and stir up a spirit of healthful anticipation; text, Job xxxvii., 21, "And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds."

Again, I remark you ought to make the very best of your bereavements. The whole tendency is to brood over these separations, and to give much time to the handling of mementos of the departed, and to make long visitations to the cemetery.

So it ought to be that you could make the best of all bereavements. The fact that you have so many friends in heaven will make your own departure very cheerful.

From my observation, I judge that invalids have a more rapturous view of the next world than well people and will have higher renown in heaven.

Again, you ought to make the best of life's finality. Now, you think I have a very tough subject. You do not see how I am to strike a spark of light out of the flint of the tombstone.

In South Africa there is a great demand for donkeys, as they are good against climate, plague, and flu.

everything doleful. If my subject could close in the upsetting of all such preconceived notions, it would close well. Who can judge best of the features of a man—those who are close by him or those who are far off? "Oh," you say, "those can judge best of the features of a man who are close by him!"

Now, my friends, who shall judge of the features of death—whether they are lovely or whether they are repulsive? You? You are too far off. If I want to get a judgment as to what really the features of death are, I will not ask you.
