NOTICE TO SETTLERS.

The rules of the local land office have recently been amended so that settlers to make final proof shall settle with the publisher before sending in their application. All parties desiring to make final proof can have their papers made out at THE JOURNAL office, free of charge, and promptly transmitted to the land office so that no time will be lost.

$500 for Good Guessing.

The Nebraska Farmer has inaugurated for its subscribers a unique guessing scheme on the possible number of paid admissions to the Trans-Mississippi Exposition now running at Omaha.

$100 will be paid for first nearest guess.

$50 each for next two nearest guesses.

$10 each for next 10 " "

$5 each for next 50 " "

$1 each for next 100 " "

One guess may be made with each yearly subscription paid in advance at regular price one dollar so that every one guessing will get the Nebraska Farmer one year and have a chance besides to get from one dollar to one hundred and there will be 163 persons who will get these cash premiums.

For sample copies, terms to agents and full particulars address Nebraska Farmer Co., 1511 Dodge St., Omaha Neb.

Ye Olden Time Social.

The Epworth League will give an "Olden Time" social in Andrews Hall on Friday evening July 30, to which all are most cordially invited. A bushel of fun is assured. Fines for certain kinds of clothing and jewelry are collected.
A short program will be rendered and ice cream and cake will be served. Do not miss it.

Agent Pontius will take in the Omaha Exposition next week.

A sister of Mrs. Jerry Willis, from Sheridan county, came up on a visit last Monday.

For the past month the weather seems to be uncommonly hot for this time of the year.

Give L. Gerlach of this place the nomination for representative and it will be equivalent to an election.

We hear it rumored that editor Heath of Rushville Standard is a candidate for state senator from this district.

Master George Scott of Chadron, who has been at S. B. Coffee's on a visit with the Master Coffee's for a week returned home yesterday via Harrison.

Sheridan county laying claim to the candidate for state senator from this senatorial district this fall and we understand there are two aspirants for the office.

J. S. Tucker of Glen, graced our streets yesterday. Mr. Tucker is without doubt the oldest living man in Sioux county at this time, as he is rubbing the 80s pretty close.

Mrs. Antrim mother of Z. T. Antrim who has been stopping at Crawford since last May on a visit came up on Monday morning's train and was met here by her son from Bodard.

Miss Alice Slattery who has been out at Spokane, Washington for some time came home on a visit last Monday morning. How long she will stay we were not able to learn.

A notice to the public from the village marshal appears in another column of this issue of the JOURNAL. The public should read it carefully and govern themselves accordingly.

Merchant Bartlett talks that he will likely vacate the Richstein building and move to the opposite side of the street.

He gives as his reason that the rent was about to be raised on him where he is located at present.

W. E. Pontius is expected here today and will take charge of the office in a day or two during the absence of his father who will take in the Trans-Mississippi Exposition before the shipping season on the F. E. & M. V., road commences.

Central City, S. Dak.—Dr. M. D.
Clark: My little girl had catarrh about six years. It made her nose discharge and gave her a bad breath but after taking your catarrh Remedy I am thankful to say she is cured and I will hereafter keep it in the house.

MISS NANNIE LUTY.

Jacob Marking of Montrose, who was up last week with a view of making arrangements for starting a saloon here, came up again yesterday and commenced to circulate a petition which he expects to present to the board of trustees asking for license should he be successful in obtaining a majority of the free holders in the village.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lang of Crawford nephew and niece of W. B. Wright came up last Monday on a few days visit. Mr.
Lang has been engaged in running the Crawford grist mill for the past year having had it leased for that length of time. We understand that he is liable to go to Long pine and take charge of the mill there for a while at least.

The JOURNAL notices with pleasure the excellent write-up and tribute in behalf of Hon. L. Gerlach of our quiet little Village, in last week's Crawford Bulletin, relative to his candidacy for representative. Editor Lindeman has been intimately acquainted with Law for more than a score of years, and a part of that time has been spent with him in this county and hence, knows whereof he speaks. The article referred to in the Bulletin speaks volumes and corroborates fully the statement made in this issue of the JOURNAL, found on editorial page under the caption, "Sioux County's Candidate."

WANTED—Wood on subscription soon as we can get it. Editor.

A large number attended Mass at the court house on last Friday morning.
O. W. Patterson has been appointed village marshal by the board of trustees.

A slight shower of rain fell here last Saturday, enough to lay the dust at least.

Jack Riffin from rawhide Wyoming was in town last Friday and Saturday doing some trading.

Ye editor accompanied his mother as far as Chadron, last Saturday evening, returning Monday noon.

The Ladies aid society met at the home of Mrs. R. M. Wallace and were entertained most charmingly, by her.

Dr. Phinney has recently purchased eight head of cattle and will try his luck again with stock raising. Well here's to success Dr.

Mrs. C. P. Canon, of Alpena S. Dak., who has been the guest of her son Geo.
D. during the past four months returned to her home on last Saturday.

Prof. C. W. Roush of Lusk was down last Saturday attending to his professional duties (occultist) as published in the JOURNAL the past two weeks.

Notice—I tan cattle hides and all kind of skins with hair for robes, or without or leather. See sample and prices in J. H. Bartlett's store.

H. OLBRIGHT, Glen, Neb.

Grandpa Wright informed the journal a day or two ago that he was quite himself again, but Grandma is slowly on the decline which piece of news we were both pleased and pained to hear.

M. J. Carrol Jr. who has been at work on the S. O. ranch near Douglas, Wyo., the past two or three months, returned on last Thursday evening. He will go to work for W. L. Hoyt soon.

The fourth quarterly conference for the Harrison charge of the M. E. church will take place next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Baptismal service will be conducted immediately following by Rev. Scamahorn presiding elder.

Lead S. Dak., Jan 28, 1897.—I have been troubled with catarrh for several years. After using your Catarrh Remedies for a few months the symptoms have entirely disappeared.

ELLA HOUSE.

Has our county superintendent been violating the internal revenue law, by not placing the I. R. stamps on teachers certificates? Or are teachers certificates issued by superintendents of schools subject to the stamp act.

William Petto of Peoria, Ill., who has been stopping at Charley Coffee's for the past three months on account of his health has moved into town and will sojourn for a month or two, after which he will return to his eastern home settle up his affairs and return to Nebraska to make his future home.

It seems singular at this time of the year when work is plenty that strong able bodied men should be tramping through the country and stealing rides on the cars when possible and then hoofing when kicked off the train, and at every house nearly in the towns along their route asking for hand-outs. Such fellows should be given to understand that if they expect to eat they should work for it same as industrious people do.

While in Chadron Saturday and Sunday last we heard it quite freely talked that our only Chas. Coffee living north of Harrison about 15 miles and in this county was at Chadron about a week a ago working some political scheme to if possible to get the Dawes county delegation to the representative democratic convention which, with the Sioux county delegation would give him the nomination as against Cap. Adams of Crawford who we understand is a candidate for legislative honors also.

Attempt to Wreck the Train.

Section foreman Chris Christensen of Andrews was in town Monday evening doing some trading, and while here came in contact with the quill pusher of the JOURNAL and related how narrow an escape that we came being wrecked with a few others while on their way home on the west bound train over the F. E. & M. V., railroad last Monday forenoon. Foreman Christensen started out as usual to work on the section, but before going far he discovered a bolt about ten inches long and near an inch thick which had been sharpened and driven into a tie close by the rail on the outside of the curve, and was so arranged that the head of the bolt would lie on the top of the rail which no doubt have derailed the engine if it had not been removed. Further on up the track he found a tie spike driven into the joint between two rails; thinking there might possibly be more he went on a few hundred yards more and discovered a piece of iron 8 inches long, half inch thick and probably two inches wide laid across the joint of two rails, and as he thinks with evident intention to wreck the train. He can figure out no body in the locality that would be mean enough to do such a dastardly trick.
At any rate the JOURNAL believes any body who is mean enough to undertake to wreck a passenger train even though they failed would not stop short of murder should a favorable opportunity present itself; should the guilty person or persons be apprehended punishment should be meted out to them to the full extent of the law.

New Time: "Let me take those loads from your back!"

THE NEW TIME, 56 Fifth Ave., CHICAGO

Miss Elsie Merriam has been this week out at Ed. Maine's assisting taking in care of Mrs. Maine, who was hurt in a run-a-way a week ago. She reported Mrs. Maine doing nicely last night.

H. G. Newcomb of Crawford, brother-in-law of James Hogle of the same place has been in town for the past two or three days to see what could be done toward either starting a saloon if license could be obtained if not then to start a club-room, but concluded to give up the job and he returned home last evening where he will continue to pursue the even tenor of his ways.

A large congregation were in attendance at mass last Friday at the court house it being Father Muneich's last visit as pastor to this place as he will be removed to some other point near the eastern part of the state Father Muneich is not sure just where his lot will be cast in the future but suffice it to say, he has been a faithful servant to his church and its members and those with a host of other friends in Harrison and in acknowledgment of his services to the Father Muneich removed from their midst but duty in a religious life is paramount to every thing but Christ who gave his life for the children of men.

Mr. F. D. Mooney of Crawford, who was here last Friday for the purpose of sounding the town board regarding the taking out a license and starting a saloon in this place in the near future should everything prove favorable, received the aid and intelligence by wire from his wife at Crawford that his little son 7 years old had drowned in the flume of the city water works but a few moments before sending the telegram, and that he should come home at once. But as the message did not reach him until 30 minutes past 4 o'clock Mr. Mooney concluded it would be useless to try to drive home as he could not gain much time by so doing and waited for the 8 o'clock passenger. Of course moments seemed hours and hours days to him on account of the waiting suspense occasioned by having to wait three or four hours.

Last Thursday afternoon, while assisting her husband in hauling a load of hay north-west of town, Mrs. Ed Maine met with quite a serious, though painful it was not a dangerous accident, caused by the team running away with a load of hay, Mr. and Mrs. Maine being thrown beneath the load as it was overturned. Mr. Maine was in such a position under the hay that her husband experienced no little trouble in digging her out from under the hay. As soon as

With broadheads to the foe.
First the "Reina Christian."
With crimson blood-stained deck.
Sank slowly beneath the troubled wave.
A charred and shattered wreck:
While later on the "Costella." Pierced by a twelve inch shell.
Burned fiercely to the waters edge.
A fiery funeral.

Five times like couriers on the track We passed the Spanish fleet; And then withdrew to rest a while.
And get a bite to eat.
Then with the "Baltimore" on hand, Gave battle once again, Till not a single vessel flew,
The yellow flag of Spain.

At twelve o'clock the flag that flew.
Above the arsenal,
Was lowered from its lofty staff.
Upon the castle wall
While in its place of flag of truce, Full peacefully did away, Proclaiming "Dewey's" victory,
In fair Manila's Bay.

Then shipmates listen to my song.
And join the chorus too;
In praise to Yankee "Dewey," And his sailors tried and true:
Who neath our country's starry flag,
In far isles of the sea, Gain'd Spanish pride and forlorn odds Won famous victory.
