This Week.

The state legislature seems now, to be no nearer electing a U. S. senator to succeed Hon. William V. Allen, than it was two or three weeks ago, or when it balloted the first time.

Capt. Van Eten, an Attorney, who has been disbarred from practicing before two or three of the district court judges in Omaha, has preferred charges against Judge C. R. Scott in the legislature, asking for his impeachment.

The state legislature of Montana, has elected a United States senator to succeed Hon. T. H. Carter, in the person of Hon. Conrad Clark. Mr. Clark is a democrat; he favors free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1; he favors protection to a certain extent and is opposed to expansion beyond the western Hemisphere.

With an anti-trust law on the statute books of the United States, there has never been time in the history of this great Republic when trusts have materialized so rapidly, as in the past year.

The trusts formed during the year 1898, represents the almost incomprehensible sum of $1,200,000,000. What a concentration of wealth? What a reduction of the privileges and advantages of the laborer and the wealth producing class of this great Republic, the "home of the free and the brave." Can any one view these figures with any consideration whatever and then say that within the next decade that the people will not be within the grasp of greedy trusts and monopolies? One has only to read what Governor Pingree has to say in his message to the state legislature of Michigan about trusts, monopolies, combines in roads, department stores & to comprehend what a predicament the people are in to-day and how much worse off they will be in the near future if their lawmakers do not bestir themselves and pass some wholesome laws to restrict the money power from enslaving the laborer and wealth producer.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe.

George W. Waitt of South Gardner.
He says: "I have had the worst cough cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vender. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50-cent bottle and the chills, cold and gripe have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by Dr. J. E. Phinney.

Hisgen Bros, the popular South Side druggists, corner 69-st, and Westworth Av., say: "We sell a great deal of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and find that it gives the most satisfactory results, especially among children for severe colds and croup." For sale by Dr.
J. E. Phinney.

Painful Complexion.

It does not require an expert to detect the sufferer from kidney trouble. The hollow cheeks, the sunken eyes, the dark puffy circles under the eyes, the sallow pale-colored complexion indicates it.
A physician would ask if you had rheumatism a dull pain or ache in the back or over the hips, stomach trouble, desire to urinate often, or a burning or scalding in passing it; if after passing there is an unsatisfied feeling as if it must be at once repeated, or if the urine has a brick dust deposit or strong odor.

When these symptoms are present no time should be lost in removing the cause.

Delay may lead to gravel, catarrh of the bladder, inflammation, causing stoppage and sometimes requiring the drawing of the urine with instruments, or may run into Bright's Disease, the most dangerous stage of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, is a positive remedy for such diseases. Its reputation is world wide and it is so easy to get at any drug store that no one need suffer any length of time for want of it.

However, if you prefer to first test its wonderful merits, mention THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL and write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. for a sample bottle and book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail.

ABOUT TRUSTS

A Part of Governor Pingree's Message Delivered to the Michigan Legislature Just Recently.

A Complete Exposition Of its Business Destroying Methods and Influences.

While the trusts have neither souls nor hearts, they are ruled by men, not angels; men, too, who, in their greed toward the customer, and their heartlessness toward their neighbor, are freed altogether from the personal responsibility, which, in spite of himself, controls and modifies the selfishness of the individual manufacturer and employer.

FEAR OF EMPLOYERS.

No employer who does business in his own name dare stand before the community in which he lives and in which his reputation is a part of his capital for such heartlessness toward labor as the very small man will calmly and even conscientiously exercise toward his dependents when speaking and acting as the representative of a corporation toward which he regards it as his duty to grind the last penny for the benefit of the stockholders.

HIGHER PRICES THE INEVITABLE END.

When the process of concentration has worked itself out to completion, the law which governs both prices and wages will assert itself with irresistible force. The consumer will be charged the highest price that can be squeezed out of him; the laborer will be paid the lowest wages upon which he can keep life in his body to perform his daily task.

This result has not yet been quite accomplished, but it is sure as that night follows day, and as certain as the law of human selfishness.

There is no salvation for the consumer except in free competition; there is no dignity, no manhood for the laborer except in the comparative independence he derives through the free competition of many employers who seek his services.

When there can be but one source from which the consumer can obtain his supplies, but one employer to whom the laborer can offer his services, both consumer and laborer will be slaves.

When each great staple shall have passed into the hands of one corporation or trust, those who have that control will have become masters, not alone of the price to the consumer and the wage to the laborer, but what is more appalling, of the price which they must pay to such individuals as still remain in the country, including, possibly, the farmer.

When a thousand men make $10,000,000, the money is scattered and the wants of a thousand families are to be gratified, and others are making profit in catering to their wants, but when one man accumulates this amount, there is but one family whose wants are to be supplied, but one family to look to for the consumption of the products of labor, and the other 999 become laborers themselves.

Take, for instance, the money accumulated by John D. Rockefeller. If the three hundred millions of profit that has been extorted from the people of this country had been divided among 20,000 men scattered over the United States, the effect would not have been so disastrous. No one of them would have sufficient capital to control the iron mines, and the lake-carrying trade, to crush out and destroy those with small capital invested in mines and boats, and to turn loose thousands of men in search of other employ-ment.

Capital becomes more powerful as it increases in volume, and more dangerous as it becomes more powerful. A man backed by $800,000,000, influenced by ambition, greed or avarice, holds in his hands the fortunes and happiness of tens of thousands of people, and he should not be permitted to increase this wealth and power by continued extortion, if the power of the State can prevent it.

THERE MUST BE REMEDIES FOR THESE EVILS.

There must be remedies. The law was made for the people, not the people for the law. We have done greater things, bolder things, before. Other peoples have accomplished reforms which seemed quite as difficult to the lawyers and the courts.

If technical construction of the Constitution stands in our way the Constitution can be amended; or a more summary method may be adopted by electing and appointing judges who will construe these instruments according to the eternal law of justice and humanity.

REFERS TO THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY & CHICAGO PLATFORM OF '96

One of the great political parties of this country, has already made this latter suggestion in a National Platform, only to have it denounced by the promoters of the people's degradation as anarchy and revolution.

WILL NOT BE RESTRAINED BY FEAR OR INTIMIDATION.

There may be those who will so denounce me for intimating that there is no divinity-hedging about judges which makes them superior to their masters, the sovereign people. I am content to suffer the penalty if I must, but no penalty shall restrain me from raising my voice on all proper occasions, even against courts which foster, what I believe to be a danger to the freedom and welfare of the people.

We Need

Our Money.

Parties who are in arrears on subscription to the JOURNAL for one and two years are requested to settle by January 1st next. It costs us money to run the paper and we feel the price of one years subscription $1.00, is not much to pay for the JOURNAL and it will very materially assist in making the paper better for the next year. We hope to make some improvements in the machinery of the office the coming year and we will need what is due us to do so. We have over $500, on our books and we must have them balanced up by the end of the year. GEO. D. CANON, Editor and Proprietor.

The Legislature.

The session of the legislature will be one of the most exciting held for years. The contest for United States senator will be a warm one. Nationally there is more to interest our citizens than at any time since the great civil war. Every man who thinks for himself and wants his boys and girls to do the same should have such a paper as the Semi-Weekly State Journal in his family. That great-est of great western papers, published at the state capital, is more in touch with the great masses of the people and the questions of the hour than any of its contemporaries. It is the true and able exponent of western thought and enterprise. Its facilities for furnishing legislative news surpasses all other papers. It is located on the ground and no matter what paper you take at other times, during the legislature you should read the Journal. Twice a week, it only costs $1.00. Send $1.00 to the State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., and you will never regret it.
