The republicans in and around Chadron, are having a little war all their own at the expense of Hon. A. G. Fisher, who represents the people of this district down at Lincoln, in the state legislature and all because he dared to exercise the right to vote for whoever, in his own judgement was entitled to his vote. It seems a meeting of the g. o. p. of Chadron was called for the purpose of passing resolutions, to prevent representative Fisher, instructing him to continue to support the B. & M. Rail road's brass-collared man for the U. S. senate, but the Eccles faction, who had the money to bring about the election of Mr. Fisher, marshaled their forces at the g. o. p. meeting and had a set of resolutions passed, exonerating Mr. Fisher for supporting D. E. Thompson, for the U. S. senate, thus, turning down the other fellows. As there is little choice among the candidates we believe Mr. Fisher displayed good sense in voting for who he pleases.

A MANILA LETTER FROM Harry Christensen

Son of One of Sioux County's Honored Citizens—Enlisted in Co. A, 1st Reg. N. D. Volunteer Infantry.

Manila, Philippine Islands, October 30, 1898.

Dear Father and Mother:—

As I am feeling like I would like to hear from the outside world, and as there is no chance for that, I will drop you a few lines. We came to Manila from Cavite, about one month ago. This is quite a city; one part of the city is walled all around with a stone wall. That is old Manila. But we are in Manila, just outside of the wall. Our quarters at present are in some rich Spaniard's house; everything is the finest in the land. In front of the house is a fountain, and the house is built so that there is an open space in the middle and there is another fountain, and the house is all mahogany and fine workmanship. On each wall, hangs a large mirror, each one of which would cost at least $300, in the States, and the doors are sliding doors with glass upper half, and that is all stained and figures of all kinds. And one room is a bath room; everything marble; there are tub baths, shower baths and needle baths. The city is lighted up by electricity, but not very well as some of the lines have gone to wreck since the war broke out. The city water works are constructed to bring the water from the mountains about, five miles out. But the water is bad and needs boiling before it is fit to drink.

The city is very filthy on account of the town being so low that the drainage is very poor; most of the out-skirts of town are swamps.

Here every body lives up stairs, and to get away from the mosquitos, I guess, as there are plenty of them. And they are so large it only takes a dozen or so, to carry a man away. Well, you may guess they are plentiful when the U. S. government furnishes mosquito bar for to keep them away.

And is it hot here? Oh, no! just warm enough that we have to change clothes two or three times a day to have them dry. And we wear white clothes altogether it takes lots of work to keep them clean, but our company has got a native that does all our washing for us.

The prisoners are allowed 30 Mexican cents to live on; their allowance before was 15, so they don't get very fat. In the prison is an old strangling (garroting) machine that looks like it had done quite a little work in its day.

The out post is stationed a short way from Manila north; about 20 men go out there and one of them stands guard one hour and the rest are a reserve. All the men do to keep soldiers from going into the country and keep any mobs

from coming to town. Last night one of the guards got a little excited and done a little shooting at nothing, at least the rest of the guard got out there

there was nothing in sight.

The Americans have moved cannons

outside of town as the insurgents say they are going to take the town, but they may change their mind after they find out we have come here to stay as long as we please.

You asked if I had joined the sharpshooters; don't need any now, but if any trouble comes off that's where I will be, so the Captain told me a day or two ago.

I will close, hoping to hear from you soon.

HARRY CHRISTENSEN,
1st Co. A., 1st Reg. S. Dak. Vol. Inf.

Peace Treaty Ratified.

The Peace Treaty, between the United States and Spain, was successfully ratified Monday Feb. 6th, in the U. S. Senate, at 3 o'clock by a vote of 57 for, and 27 against, or 3 votes more than the necessary two thirds.

Thus a long drawn out debate over one of the most important National questions in the of our Republic for years is ended.

The treaty has been ratified as it should have been which is just and right, and Congress has handled the subject of annexation later on.
