OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. D. Canon, - - - Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

O. H. P. BELMONT OUT FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Sun says: O. H. P. Belmont, who is an avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination for vice president in 1900 on a ticket with William J. Bryan, is back of a movement to organize the Chicago platform Democrats in this city and state.

A meeting was held on Sunday night and a committee appointed to meet on Wednesday and prepare a plan for extending the organization throughout the state, with committees in every county. This committee will meet in the office of the Verdict, a weekly paper owned by Mr. Belmont.

The plan under consideration is to perfect a skeleton organization all over the state and elect a full set of delegates to the next national convention of the party. The delegates elected are to be silver men who believe in the Chicago platform and are to be pledged to vote for Bryan and Belmont if they get into the convention.

The leaders of the movement believe that such a delegation will be seated, as Bryan and his friends will undoubtedly control the convention. Mr. Belmont and his friends who are in charge of the new movement have attempted to break into Tammany hall and take away the Chicago platform men who are still identified with that organization. Overtures were made to John C. S. Sehan to join the movement, but he declined.—Daily Rocky Mountain News.

A popular subscription is now being raised for the purpose of purchasing a palatial residence in the city of Washington, D. C. and on the return of Admiral Dewey from the Philippine Islands, to present it to him, as an emblem of the high regard and esteem in which the American people hold the hero of Manila Bay, little over a year ago, coupled with his naval war record in the Philippine since that time.

Without doubt, there isn't a man who has distinguished himself since Washington's time that the people of these United States think more of, or will laud more highly than Admiral Dewey; but it would be more to the credit of the American people if the home which they will likely appropriate toward buying and presenting to the Admiral as a fitting memento were given to some widowed mother, who has given a son and per chance a husband in honor of their country. Admiral Dewey receives an annual salary of $18,000 besides allowances &c. &c., and at retirement, will receive sufficient even then, to live in affluence the rest of his days. In every community there are poor people, who are deserving subjects of charity, or there are hospitals in the large cities; orphan asylums that the price of the home in all probability, if given them, would relieve a wonderful amount of suffering and make many a heart beat with joy and gladness, as would the heart of the great hero, Admiral Dewey. It is true, the people have a right to give to whom they please and for what purpose they please, but the moral, as well as the spiritual law, in that great day of accounts will hold the individual to a strict account of how they assisted in looking after and caring for the poor. "For, the poor ye have always with you."

General Merriam in command of the U. S. troops in quelling the trouble at Warrenton, Idaho in the Corner de Alene mining district, has ordered the disorganization of all labor Unions in that state. If this does not mean of militarism, then we do not know what does.

It isn't often that we register a kick against a brother editor in the way he conducts and edits his paper, but at this time we are doubly justified in calling Breer Lindeman to account for copying from THE SIOUX COUNTY JOURNAL and accrediting it to the Northwestern Press. The last two issues of the Bulletin have contained short local notices clipped from the JOURNAL, one paragraph from the article "He took His own Life," and a local notice relative to the appointment of neighbor Gerlach as administrator of the estate of the late Herman Goedde. We presume it was purely a mistake, Breer Lindeman?

If the members of legislature from this senatorial and representative district had been as zealous in trying to have passed, while down at Lincoln the past winter a anti-trust law as they were some other bills though of much less importance comparatively speaking, their constituency, certainly would have lauded them to the sky's on their return.

Ex-Governor, Roswell P. Flower of New York, died in Brooklyn last Friday evening. He was a great financier and was one of the master minds which, in the last two years assisted in forming some of the great trusts which are in existence today as a mark of his wonderful business ability.

Denver is making a desperate effort, her Board of Trade, and business men of the city and senator E. O. Wolcott, to secure the next republican national convention. And, why not? Denver is doubtless one of the most picturesque cities in the nation, besides it is one of the largest railroad centers in the United States—barring Chicago, Philadelphia, Milwaukee, Boston and New York City; its Hotel accommodations and advantages are unsurpassed and by the time the great party conventions are convened, the new Auditorium, in Denver will have been completed hence there are no other cities in the Union that will be able to offer the inducement for a national convention that Denver can. By all honorable means the JOURNAL hopes to see the Pioneer city of the plains secure the prize.

Exchange Culls.

In all the realms of sound economics there is not a sensible argument that can be urged against the demonization of silver. With silver at par with gold, as would be the case within five minutes after its reinstatement as legal currency, Rothschild and his agents could not buy our silver at 50 cents and use it in China, Argentina and Russia at $1 to drive down prices of farm products in this country, and consequently our farmer would get more foreign gold for their crops and the people would have a larger supply of circulating silver to stimulate prices and boom business. Present conditions having proved our contention that an increased currency helps prices and stimulates business, where will the single standard people find any ground to stand on? Two facts make a principle and vindicate the wisdom of the Chicago platform.—Democrat and Journal of Agriculture.

The (N. Y.) Advertiser says: Among the important Democrats gains in different states since the conclusion of the hostilities between Spain and the United States, and in addition to the gain of 350,000 votes in New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, there may be mentioned a Democratic gain of nearly 40,000 votes in Colorado, of more than 77,000 votes in Illinois and Indiana, of about 5,000 votes in Michigan and 25,000 in Minnesota, of 20,000 in North Carolina, of about 12,000 in Pennsylvania and of nearly 60,000 votes in Wisconsin. In about fifteen important states of the union, excluding the solid South entirely from the list—that is on the sections upon which the Republican party depends for its votes—the party has lost about 650,000 votes, or more than twice the plurality secured by President McKinley in 1896.

Andrew McGinley, the well known Sioux County stockman whose brands are J-A and M V, spent a few days in town last week. He made this office a pleasant call renewing his subscription for the Grip. Mr. McGinley having sold out his ranch to James Cook last fall is now investigating the various phases of placing his cattle out in small bunches with responsible parties at so much per head per year for caring for them, believing it to be cheaper than operating a ranch. He now has about 375 head.—The Pioneer Grip.

If free discussion by patriotic men is to be henceforth treated as treason, it might be well for the administration to cause the seizure and cremation of all copies of the Declaration of Independence: because so long as that document stands, even though the government should be destroyed, some men will continue to treasonably insist on the right of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."—North-Western Catholic.

James Cook, the big stockman of Sioux County who bought the McGinley ranch, having 1,200 acres under cultivation, has made quite a record in wintering 1,700 head of Nevada cattle with the small loss of fourteen head, nine of which were lost in deborning the bunch last February.—The Pioneer Grip.

What Shall We Do.

A serious and dangerous disease prevails in this country, dangerous because so deceptive. It comes on so slowly yet surely that it is often firmly seated before we are aware of it.

The name of this disease which may be divided into three distinct stages is, first, Kidney trouble, indicated by pain in back, rheumatism, lameness, frequent desire to urinate, often with a burning sensation, the flow of urine being copious or scant with strong odor. If allowed to advance, it reaches the Second stage, or Bladder trouble, with heavy pain in the abdomen low down between the navel and the water passage increasing desire to urinate, with scalding sensation in passing, small quantities being passed with difficulty, sometimes necessary to draw it with instruments. If allowed to advance, it will prove dangerous if neglected.

The Third stage is Bright's Disease. There is comfort in knowing that Dr. Kilmer, the great kidney and bladder specialist, has discovered a Remedy famous for its marvelous cures of the most distressing cases and known as Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

It is sold by all druggists. As a proof of the wonderful virtues of this great discovery, Swamp-Root a sample bottle and book of valuable information will be sent absolutely free by mail on application to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y. When writing kindly mention that you read this liberal offer in the Sioux County JOURNAL.

Whooping Cough.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. Moore, South Burgetstown, Pa. For sale by Dr. J. E. Phinney.

Many old soldiers now feel the effect of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by Dr. J. E. Phinney.

My son was afflicted with rheumatism which contracted his right limb until he was unable to walk. After using one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm he was able to be about again.
