OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. B. Canon, - - - Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

Saturday, June 3rd, a delegation will go down to Lincoln to make a formal protest to his Excellency, Gov. Poynter against the appointment of W. C. Gavin, of Crawford, as chairman of the Broad and Marks commission which has already been made. Without doubt governor Poynter has been imposed upon by some political tricksters, which if the appointment is allowed to stand will lose hundreds of votes to the reform forces in North-west Nebraska. One thing sure Mr. Gavin is not a Democrat in any sense of the term, and so far as we know has never affiliated with them. But, on the other hand the editor of the Journal, does know that Mr. Gavin together with Col. Hayward of Chadron Neb., was admitted into the Peoples Independent party, senatorial convention at Valentine last fall to represent Dawes county and they cast the entire 9 votes, thus proving conclusively that he was not than a Democrat. And about a month or six weeks later was a candidate for representative as a populist in the representative convention of the democratic and Peoples Independent convention held at Crawford and then afterward Mr. Gavin, so we are fully informed said the most vile things about the nominee of that convention, Mr. Gerlach who was an honest consistent Populist. Hence, he has, in reality no right to any consideration from that party or any gentleman, who has standing or influence in that party. In fact, if the commission is issued to Mr. Gavin it will be an imposition on every true reformer in Northwest Nebraska.

John C. Sheehan Fights Crocker.

NEW YORK, May 27.—"In as much as Mr. Crocker is looking for fight, he will have to meet in every assembly district in New York county. I am a Tammany hall organization man. Shall continue to be a Tammany organization man and will make my fight within the organization, for the present at least."—Statement by John C. Sheehan, Crocker's predecessor as leader of Tammany Hall, dictated for the Journal.—DAILY ROCKY MOUNTAIN NEWS.

SILVER THE ISSUE SAYS EX-SENATOR DUBOIS.

BLACK FOOT, Idaho, May 28.—Ex-Senator Dubois chairman of the executive committee of the National Silver Republican party, was interviewed today as to the present attitude of the Silver Republicans. Mr. Dubois said:
"The silver Republicans will meet in national convention at the same time and place as the National Democrats."
"The persistent statement made by the Republican papers that silver is a dead issue is the expression of their wish, but not of a fact. Those who supported Bryan in 1896 will support him again, unless they have some special reason for not doing so. There will not be many who will abandon principles deliberately adopted for personal or special reasons. The Democrats without doubt will declare against the foreign policy of the administration against imperialism. The issues in 1900 will be the same as in 1896, only intensified and more clearly defined, and the candidates for president will be the same. McKinley will be supported by the aggregation of wealth and all that they represent."
"Mr. Bryan will be supported by the reform forces."
"So far as the Silver Republicans are concerned they are interested in the success of the principles which they supported in the Chicago platform and Bryan has not changed, and the Chicago platform will be re-adopted."
"The united Democrats and Silver Republicans will be more completely and harmoniously in 1900 than ever before, and everything points to a victor of the reform forces."
"There is no disintegration of the Silver Republicans except in the visions of those who wish the success of the gold standard trust-controlled imperialistic Republican party."—Daily Rocky Mountain News.

G. A. R. Decoration Day, Memorial Exercises.

Though the day was one of the most windy of the season the turnout at the decoration services, which took place at the M. E. church and was concluded at the cemetery were quite large considering that there was not published in the two papers of the town a programme relative to the exercises, and just how they should be carried out. However, on account of the commander of the local post being sick and away for medical treatment, whose duty it was to look after that part of the decoration services, a detailed programme was omitted. And here it is that we wish to say that E. E. Livermore, who is always at home at the decoration day services, conspicuous in seeing that every part of the services are conducted according to the letter, and hence his absence was noticeable. Thus, everything relative to forming the line of March from the church to the cemetery and the carrying out of the services at the graves of the old soldiers devolved upon Sgt. Franklin Force, which he did nicely and with tact.

Following civic organizations were represented, and marched in the parade to the cemetery: Modern Woodman of America, Woodman of the World, Royal Neighbors of America and the Epworth Juniors, and marched in the parade in the order named; Grand Army of the Republic, Junior, Epworth League, Modern Woodman of America, Woodman of the World, Royal Neighbors of America, then the general public. The services at the cemetery were beautiful and well carried out. Wild and cultivated flowers were taken there by most every body and strewn profusely upon the graves of our country's dead here's, not only the hero's of war but scarcely any other grave was forgotten in the strewing of flowers upon them.

The old Veterans, who were present and participated in the exercises and marched in the procession were:
T. M. Smith, Five Points
W. L. Bahlwin, Bowen,
A. J. Bogart, "
S. R. Story, Antelope,
Stanford Hill, Badare,
James Johnson, Warbonnet,
E. D. Lyons, "
John Plunkett, "
F. Force, Andrews.

Had management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides one pays out 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars, and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by Dr. J. E. Phinney.

THE LAST ROLL CALL.

It is with sadness that we are called to chronicle another death of an old soldier, who has been called by the messenger of death to go up higher and try the realities of another life brighter and more beautiful than the one which has closed here below.

It will be but a few more years at the very most, as Rev. Kendall stated in his sermon over the remains until all them have passed over into the great beyond.

The writer was not acquainted with the deceased, but since our residence in this county have been ultimately acquainted with his son Charles, who is a model young man and of course we believe owes much to his father and mother for the good qualities which he possesses. We also realize it was a hard blow to Charles as well as the rest of the family to have to part with his father. Mrs. Umphenour and the family will have the sympathies of the community and the Journal together with the friends and neighbors takes this way of offering consolation in this their sad hour sorrow and sadness.

The deceased, Francis M. Umphenour enlisted in Company D., 30th Illinois, volunteer Infantry March 8, 1864, and was honorably discharged July 10, 1865. He was born Dec. 15 1844, in Edwards county Ills. living there until 9 years old, then moving to Livingston county until he went to army, after his return to the same county he was married to Miss Margaret Schlosser where he lived for 10 years when they moved to Kansas living there 14 years, then moving to the southern part of Nebraska where he lived most seven years, returning to Kansas for a while and in 1896 moved to Oklahoma and living there until two months ago when they moved to this country.
