OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. D. Canon, Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

Captain Dreyfus the famous prisoner of devils island will after an absence of three years embrace his family on Saturday of this week. His military rank has been restored to him pending his new trial.

Senators Depew of New York and Markus A. Hanna of Ohio declare that trusts reduce the price of manufactured articles to the purchaser, and the same time Mr. Hanna has given the people of the country to understand that the next national republican convention will declare against the trusts. Isn't that consistency?

At last Nebraska is to have an executive mansion. The D. E. Thompson mansion has been purchased at a cost of $20,000 including furniture. Several other offers were being considered but on last Sunday a deal was closed, whereby the mansion above mentioned becomes the property of the state. It is in the immediate vicinity of the state house just across the street.

Congressman, Richard Parks Bland, the great free silver leader and Democrat of the 8th Missouri, died at his home last Thursday morning at Lebanon, Mo., at 4:30 a. m. This closes the career of one of the most prominent political leaders of the Democratic party in his state if not in the nation. The party in general will mourn his untimely taking away. Whatever else may be said relative to Mr. Bland's public and private character, it must be admitted by friend and foe alike that he has always been honest and sincere in his public life. Mr. Bland has served almost 28 years in the lower house of Congress, it is safe to say it will be hard to find another man in the 8th Missouri district that will fill his place in the national house with as much credit to himself and his constituency as has Mr. Bland.

All trust goods are being advanced from 5 to 100 per cent notwithstanding the fact that improved machinery is being used for the manufacturing of their goods and a reduction to a minimum of salesmen in getting their wares and goods onto the market. Following are a few articles we gave which the people are expected to contribute to the pockets of the poor trust millionaires:

Iron pipe more than 100 per cent.	Tin ware and enamel ware	53 per cent.
Brass Goods 60 " "	Chair furniture	30 " "
Rubber over shoes 14 " "	Am. Tin plate	30 " "
Clocks and Watches 60 " "	Brass Pins	24 " "
Pipe 124 " "	Brushes	11 1/2 " "
Ribbons 10 " "

News paper 1/2 to 1 cent per pound
Book paper 5 and 10 cents per pound
Soap--common 25 to 50 cents per Box.

Mr. P. E. Daw, president of the commercial Travelers National League, was before the industrial commission, in Washington D. C., on the 16th inst. and gives the number of salesmen thrown out of work as a result of the formation of trusts. Following are a few of the trust organizations and the number of men thrown out of work for each organization.

The Tobacco Trust discharged salesmen	3,000
" Bicycle	600
" Chair	500
" Rubber	500
" Am. Tin Co.	9 per cent
" Steel rod Co.	3,000

Robbers Crack The Safe.

In Marsteller Bros store Last Friday morning.

THEY SECURE 75 or 80 DOLLARS IN CASH AND $1,300 WORTH OF VALUABLE PAPERS.

About 2 o'clock last Friday morning burglars effected an entrance to the Marsteller Bros. store from the rear, through the window, and blew open their safe, securing about $75 in money and valuable papers estimated at $1,500. They succeeded in getting away without leaving any clue as to their identity, or the direction they took, in their escape from the village.

The burglars were, without doubt professionals at the business from the appearance of the work done on the safe. They first took a wrench, or something of the kind and twisted off the handle or knob thus providing an opening in which they poured into the aperture enough nitro-glycerine or some other powerful explosive to blow open the safe. Probably, the time required in doing the work from the time they entered the building until they left did not exceed half or three quarters of an hour.

The report was heard distinctly by several people living in close proximity to the store. P. B. Bigelow, and wife who live in the rooms back of the "candy snap" heard the report of the explosion quite forcibly and Mr. Bigelow jumped out of bed and went to the window, claims he saw one or two flashes of light through the window in the store. The alarm was finally given, but too late to apprehend the safe crackers, Sheriff Holly early in the morning examined every stranger in the village, but did not find any body but was able to prove their innocence relative to the robbery. The sheriff also went to Lusk and overhauled a stranger who had been in the town only the day before, but found nothing on his person to indicate that the fellow had been implicated in the burglary.

Monday morning a party, who came in from the valley north of town reported having seen, or rather heard of a stranger, acting strangely and from the description given of him tallied exactly with a stranger who had been in Harrison the day previous to the robbery, immediately on hearing this clue, Sheriff Holly and Will Marsteller, went down in search of the stranger and tracked him from Henry Lindeman, place on to Ardmore and Edgemont, S. Dak., but were unable to hear anything further of him, at either of the last named places, and there gave up the chase. The boys do not doubt but the strange character seen in the valley was the safe blow-

That respected authority the commercial Year Book, published by the Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin, contains a list of American trusts and combinations. It is not complete, of course, for no statistician can keep track of all the operations of the trust promoters, but it is accurate as far as it goes.

When the body of the book went to press, in the middle of March, there were 356 of these combinations in existence. Their common stock amounted to $4,247,915,918, their preferred stock to $870,577,290, their bonds to $714,388,661 and their total capitalization to $5,932,882,779.

In the ten weeks between the time when that list was closed and the 27th of May so many new trusts were formed that it was thought advisable to insert a supplemental sheet to accommodate them. There were sixty-three of them making 419 in all. They issued $692,740,000 of common stock, $490,830,000 of preferred stock, and $129,763,000 of bonds. Their total capitalization was $1,793,353,000, which brought the aggregate capitalization of all the trusts in the country on May 27 up to $7,416,233,779. And more of them are hatching every day.

Do you realize what $7,500,000,000 means? It is enough to run the government of the U. S. for fifteen years. The interest on it, at the rate earned by many of the trusts would run the government forever.

It is 100 for every man, woman and child in the country--500 for every family. It is over seven times the bonded debt of the United States, and more than any other national debt in the world.

But this enormous capitalization does not tell the whole story. The Sugar trust pays regularly 12 per cent on its common stock. The last dividend of the Telephone company was 15 per cent. The Standard Oil paid 30 per cent.--New York Journal.

Wyoming Migratory Stock Law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Wyoming:

Sec. 6. The owner, or any live stock, or his agent, which has been assessed for taxation, at any time of the year, shall if he intends to move said live stock from said county, at the date of such assessment, or at any time thereafter, file with the County Clerk of the county in which such live stock has been assessed a notice which shall set forth the name of the owner, the number and kind of the live stock and the brand thereon, together with notice that such owner proposes to move such live stock into some other County of this state, naming such county on or about a day to be therein specified. Which notice shall be, by said County Clerk, recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, which book shall at all times be open to public inspection; and such County Clerk shall forthwith transmit a copy of such notice to the Clerk of the County into which it is proposed to move said live stock.

Sec. 7. The owner of any live stock, or his agent, which shall be moved from the County in which the same was assessed, to another County, shall, immediately after entering the last mentioned county, transmit by mail, to the Clerk of the county he has left, and the Clerk of the County he has entered, a notice which shall specify the name of the owner, the number and class of the live stock in which the same are assessed, and the date when said live stock crossed the County line. And such owner or agent shall give such notice by mail as often as said live stock shall be moved from one County to another, both to the Clerk of the County left, and to the Clerk of the County into which said live stock is taken.

Sec. 8. At the time of the payment of the taxes upon any of the live stock mentioned and referred to in this Act, and any event prior to the 31st day of December in each year, the owner of such live stock or his agent shall make an affidavit which shall specify the name of the owner, the number and class of the live stock and the time said live stock has been held in each County into which it has been taken, which affidavit shall be immediately, by such clerk, recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, and the original thereof shall be forthwith delivered to the Treasurer of the County.

Sec. 9. Immediately after receiving such affidavit, it shall be the duty of the County Treasurer to compute the amount of such taxes so paid, after deducting the taxes due the State, in proportion to the time such live stock has been held in the several Counties specified in said affidavit, and prior to the first Tuesday in each year, he shall make a tabulated statement, showing each such computation and the amount of taxes due to the State and to each County from such live stock, which tabulated statement shall be submitted to the board of County commissioners on the first Tuesday in each year for their approval.

The Opening Day.

The Greater America Exposition at Omaha will be opened with elaborate ceremonies on July 1. Many noted men will be present to participate in the exercises and the city of Omaha will join with the Exposition in a great demonstration.
