M. J. Blewett, returned from Lincoln last Friday where he had been for a week to attend the first meeting of the state board of brand and marks commission of which he is a member. He reports that there will not be another meeting of the board before Dec. 31 1899, as the law gives all parties using brands and marks until time to send in their applications for brands which they have had recorded in their respective counties after which the board will at that time begin to pass on and allow brands to whomsoever they may conclude.

"During the hot weather last summer I had a severe attack of cholera morbus, necessitating my leaving my business," says Mr. C. A. Hare of Hare Bros., Lincoln, Neb. "After taking two or three doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I was completely relieved and in a few hours was able to resume my work in the store. I sincerely recommend it to any one afflicted with bowel or stomach trouble. For sale by Dr. J. E. Phinney.

D. H. Griswold, received a telegram on last Monday morning to the effect that his mother, had just been stricken with paralysis and was in a very precarious condition. The same evening Mr. and Mrs. Griswold left for Avoca, Ia., the home of his mother, where they go to be with and administer to her wants, if Grandma is able to undertake the journey within a month her children expect to bring her back with them where they will consider it a labor of love to attend and wait on her. Mother Griswold spent a few months here last summer and endeared herself to all who met her, hence her many friends will be pained to hear of her affliction. The children are out with Mrs. Maine, who will have charge of them during their parents absence.

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of hotel Dorrance, Providence R. I. He says: For Several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea, the frequent attacks completely prostrating me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly handed me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate. Whenever I felt symptoms of this disease I would fortify myself against the attack with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by Dr. J. E. Phinney.
