OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.

Geo. D. CAUGH, Editor.

Entered at the Harrison post office as second class matter.

There is no doubt whatever but that Hon. W. J. Bryan will receive the nomination for president on the Democratic ticket next year but there is some talk in the papers of late that president McKinley may be dropped out of the race and Hon. Theo. Roosevelt nominated in his stead.

Out of 600 German newspapers in the United States, polled by the Press Bureau of the National Democratic Campaign Committee, with but one exception, they are opposed to president McKinley's conduct of the war in the Philippines and also the republican policy of foreign expansion and Anglo-Saxon alliance.

The nearer the time comes for the national conventions of the two great parties, the more desperate becomes the republican press, and industriously begin their lying method of trying to besmirch and befoul the character of honorable leading men of the democratic party in the nation at also in the various states. And without exception, the administration mud organs have had to swallow a lie in every instance.

Here are two or three of them which we call to mind: The Lincoln State Journal and the New York Herald, fabricated one relative to ex-senator, Allen of this state, entering thousands of acres of land under the national Reservoir act, Senator Allen compelled them to retract:

Senator Prouts sniffing committee authorized by the republican state central committee, sanctioned by the Omaha Bee and the Lincoln State Journal, and legalized by the recent legislature, undertook to show up a shortage in ex-governor Holcomb's house rent expenses, another instance where the lie has been shoved down the throats of the republican leaders and their slanderous mud-machines:

But the most recent fabrication is a statement published by the N. Y. Herald, to the effect that ex-governor Altgeld, had made the statement that free coinage of silver at the legal ratio of 16 to 1, would not be the paramount issue in 1900. But governor Altgeld refused the lie, and thus the Herald has been compelled to retract. Another, by the same metropolitan Daily was, that ex-governor Stone, vice-chairman of the Democratic National Committee, said in a speech before the committee at Chicago July 20th, that he was opposed to any alliance with any other party organizations; but a personal letter to the public denying the published statement, attributed to him, has silenced their mud battery on that score.

Thus, in the absence of truth and actual facts to carry on a campaign the Hanocratic leaders are obliged to resort to their lying, mud slinging machines.

Breeds From The Valley.

It is becoming "second nature" for us to write items, this time for the only surviving paper of Sioux county.

There was a hard rain at Bodarc and vicinity Saturday evening reaching as far north as far north as the old ranch, while at Gilchrist it is still hot and dry.

Mrs. Sarah Jordan, took her daughter Ella to Crawford, last week to see the Doctor. She was better Sunday, but on Monday her mother took her to town to see Dr. Phinney.

C. F. Coffey is in Omaha at this writing with a shipment of fat cattle.

Miss Mabel Tebbet came home with Miss Lizzie Zimmerman on Saturday and visited with her valley friends till Wednesday morning when she returned to town with the U. S. mail.

E. C. Ross moved his mother the first of the week to Crawford, and Ed. and his family expect to start Monday for a point five hundred miles north of here, where they will have charge of a ranch.

August Baumgard traded a horse, saddle and his hat, to Pete Tommas last Friday for like possessions, and Pete went north in search of work.

Joe McCann made a trip to Sheep creek last week and found his cattle doing well.

We went to pick currants last week and returned with three young hawks about two thirds grown. As we had not raised many young chicks we thought we would raise the hawks for pets, but they did not enjoy the change of pasture so all died.
