—Chas. Hanson, who just recently purchased a house of Grant Guthrie, which the latter had moved in from his claim, and placed on a lot on the east side, is now busily engaged having the same fitted up and gotten ready for occupancy. Messrs. Maine and Patterson are doing the work.

—Hon. W. J. A. Raun of Cottonwood wood, came in from the valley last night where he has been doing a little campaign work; he reports everything o. k. for the fusion ticket. He says some of the g. o. p. candidates are trying to defame the reputation of the fusion candidates, which will react upon the defamer to their sorrow.

—Sioux county voters are again urged to heed not the untruthful rumors which are being circulated by the political enemy, in regard to fusion candidates Brand the bearers, as blackmailers and would be libelers, and remember our fusion nominees are above reproach, they are all well known and worthy of your hearty support, do not slight any, the fact of their being on the ticket is sufficient cause to entitle them to your vote republicans are ever ready to support their candidates, no matter who they are let us do likewise, for remember, "in union there is strength". Again we warn you.

Mrs. Henry Lindeman, came up from Crawford, yesterday for a short stay at the home of her daughter Mrs. Blewett.

—M. J. Blewett had his herd from Running water driven in yesterday, and will have them at home.

—Governor Poynter, will speak at Harrison on Nov. 2nd at 2:30, in the afternoon come one; come all, and hear him.

—We have just a few words to say in behalf of our county nominees, and while we feel that our candidates are all men who are above reproach yet a word to the wise is not lost. Judge Wilson has been tried and found equal to all emergencies and he is a man well qualified for the judgeship. Vote for Judge Wilson, by all means. And as to John Serres, all know where to find John, what his principles are, and that he is a man more than deserving of your support vote for John Serres for Treasurer, by all means.

Thomas Holly is one of our old timers and a man who has not an enemy he is most deserving of your support every voter should consider a vote for Holly is one wordly betowed.

In a word the whole ticket is made up of men whose record is without blemish, and we feel that our candidates are more than entitled to our hearty support.

—We understand some of our republican brethren are using the lame argument in regard to Hon. W. J. A. Raun, viz that he is an old soldier, and is now drawing a pension which is enough for him. Well, let us together investigate matters, what does Mr. Raun draw a pension for? The answer comes most forcibly and clear; which is the loftiest and most noble cause, the defense of our COUNTRY and FLAG, he gave his health, and his life if necessary, for both; and now that his life has been spared and his health broken, will begrudging republicans and office-seekers envy him his well earned pension? Let us reverse matters a little, would those parties who are foremost in circulating such slander against an old battle scarred hero, should an occasion present itself, by way of sudden uprising of Red skins, or even Whites would those parties we repeat, fly to the aid of our country and flag, or would they not tie them away to more congenial surroundings? We leave this question for them to answer. Mr. Raun, will be elected by the largest majority on the ticket we predict, and he is most deserving of the honor and confidence of all; besides he is both competent and qualified.

—Mr. and Mrs. Grant Guthrie, went to Omaha, on last Saturday evening on business and pleasure combined.

—Henry Blewett, left for the University at Lincoln, on last Sunday where he expects to enter the law department.

—Look here, if you are building call on E. Rohwer, he keeps all kinds of material, such as lumber, shingles, windows Doors &c, &c.

—Mrs. Thornton, and Co. Superintendent, Elsie Merriam are associated together in the book agency business. When in need of any kind of a book give them a call, they will do the right thing by their customers.

—If the people of this county prefer that Nebraska should have the honor of furnishing the president of the United States for the next four years after March 4, 1901, every voter in Sioux county should support the fusion ticket, also the congressional fusion ticket, and thereby sustain Hon. W. J. Bryan in his courageous fight to carry the state for home rule honest government and in the interest of the people. We earnestly hope every fusion voter in our county will go to the polls on election day and do his duty.

—My Democratic prayer will ever be that God above will give to those Boers the power to show the world that the principles of free government are not to be trodden under foot."—A paragraph from the speech of Gov. Thomas.

The publication of the letter of Mr. Bryan's by Morton, will not change one single vote, in our opinion. The office which Mr. Bryan was desirous of obtaining was nothing but a clerical position simply secretary of the Board of Transportation and Mr. Bryan stated that as he was just beginning in business, then at Lincoln, it was the money, not honor that attracted him, and would assist in tiding him over until he could get his business on a paying basis.
