F. AVERY, Agt.

Jerry Will, moved his family into the sherrill house just back of the court house on last Monday.

People living in the country adjacent to Harrison can get fresh meat at W. R. Smith's.

Our artist, Mr. Harmon, seems to be doing a land office business these days.

Burt Earnest and Jerry Will, have rented Laney Sutton's place out on the Ridge.

Mr. Claus Christensen, of Montrose, was in town a day or two the first of the week.

Write Hayden Bros., Omaha Wholesale Supply House for prices and samples.

M. J. Blewett, made a business trip to Crawford on last Friday evening, and returned Monday noon.

Dr. Merideth of Crawford was called to our town Monday, in consultation with Dr. Phinney in a case of confinement.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of this place on last Monday night, April 23rd, a son, all parties concerned are getting along o. k.

Roy Maize is looking after the section this week, while W. B. Wright is having his Wind mill put in working trim Mr. Hester is putting it up.

Molman and Harmon, the photographers are still taking pictures at the old Ranch Supply House in Harrison.

Mrs. L. C. Wright, gave still birth, to an infant on last Monday, about noon. Dr. Phinney, of this place and Dr. Merideth, of Crawford were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ostrander, of Ardmore, were in town last Saturday on business. They expect to leave in about two weeks for North Dakota, to be gone about two or three months.

Rev. Kendall and family came up from Marsland, on last Saturday, to spend a few days among our people. The Rev. gentleman informed us that he has decided to join the Oregon conference, and expects to leave for his new field about the first of June.

Commencing some time Monday night it began raining and continued to rain until noon Tuesday. It was not a hard down-pour, but a nice steady rain. Since Sunday evening, probably an inch and a half of water has fallen. Plenty of early food is now assured.

Go over to Gerlach's to sharpen your knife and whittle. Law has arranged, for the benefit of his customers, a box on the end of a bench containing nice whittling sticks and fastened on the corner of the store, in a convenient place a whetstone which fills a long felt want. Gerlach has an eye for business.

Sheriff and Mrs. Holly, returned from their trip to Omaha Monday where they went to consult a specialist, relative to his physical health. But the doctor did not give him any, very great encouragement, telling him that the high altitude and climate of western Nebraska was the proper place for people afflicted with the malady which he has suffered with for the past two years.

We understand that our article relative to the postoffice matter in our last issue has caused quite a stir in the south end of town. We wish to say for the special benefit of one or two parties who have tried to convince everybody that there was no foundation to the matter that we gave facts, and we did get our necessary where but in our own office statement to the contrary. Furthermore we have the facts from one of their prominent party men.

W. R. Smith has his new building finished and has a full stock of fresh and salt meats on hand.

The Phone Journal, and St. Louis Republic, $1.00 per year. Try it.

Mrs. C. L. Wright, today, is very much improved, so Roy informed us this morning, which we are glad to announce.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, left for Sturgis, S. Dak this week to make it their home, as Jesse has an appointment there in the depot.

Hones Will, left for Dickinson, N. Dak., on last Thursday evening, where he has secured employment with his brother Charles.

Egbert Rohwer, has carpenter Backlette out of his country residence building a veranda on three sides of his house and making other necessary improvements.

Chas. Coffee, came up from Chadron Tuesday and went out to his valley ranch, remaining over night and returned to town yesterday, and took the train for Chadron.

Diamonds and pearls will be played by the Clover Leaf Club, at Andrews Hall, May 9th. It is a drama full of life and interest. Admission 10 cents. Everyone must be sure and come.

Rev. C. L. Smith returned from Nashville Friday, where he went for a bunch of horses which he had wintered there. He did not bring the horses this time, but will go for them sometime in June.

Bub Wright is still nursing a very lame limb, caused by his having been kicked by a cow some time ago. No it was not Mrs. O'Leary's cow. It was Mr. Avery's cow; and she did not kick the lamp over either, she just kicked Bub.

Rev. L. Kloucek arrived on last Tuesday, morning to take Father Kronpa's place. Seven weeks ago the Reverend gentleman arrived in Omaha from Austria. He is a linguist and it will not take very long before he is able to speak English. May his stay among us be happy.

Chadron News.

Law Gerlach, has disposed of his stock ranch, on Little Menace canyon, and at this writing Law is without a country residence. But he is engaged on a business that seems to be better adapted to his taste, and may be just as profitable according to the amount of capital invested.

The north-western railroad trains are too slow for C. F. Coffee. On last Tuesday while at Crawford, Charley got left by the west bound train, but nothing daunted by the occurrence, he secured a livery rig and overhauled the train a few miles out of Crawford. Now Charley thinks he should have relate on his face.

We had the pleasure of inspecting a map of Palestine, Monday morning, said to have been drawn by Miss Maud Bertall. To say it was a very creditable piece of drawing, is putting it mildly. It would be excellent work for a school girl of more mature years. Good for Maud she has talent.

Last Thursday, John Marteller, and W. C. O'Connor, living south-west of town four miles closed a deal whereby the former becomes the owner of Mr. O'Connor's 320 acre ranch, the consideration, we learn was $1,000. Mr. O'Connor will remain on the place until September, he has not decided yet where he will locate.

Last Tuesday, Attorney J. E. Porter came up from Crawford, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Fred Macomber and Vas Jackson, of Glen, for destroying the headgate of an irrigating ditch near Glen, which is a criminal case so there is liable to be a criminal case on the docket for the next term of district court.

As the political fight hinges the coming year between the north and the south end of town I wish to state to the public that I keep store in the center of the town and have no fight with any body. Nor do I want a postoffice or any other common old thing, but I do want everybody no matter what their politics are to come to my store for cheaper goods that you ever bought before and don't you forget it.

That Throbbing Headache. Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New life pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by J. E. Phinney Drug-gist.

Highest prices paid for hides at EGGERT ROHWER'S.

Rev. Kendall, spoke to a crowded house on last Sabbath evening.

Do not send to Crawford for your fresh meat, I can supply your wants at Harrison. W. R. Smith.

There will be a dance at Harrison May 15th. Good music will be furnished. Come and have a good time. Committee.

WANTED—A good girl to do general house work on My Hat creek ranch this summer. Wages $20.00 per month to a good girl. Address C. F. Coffee, Chadron, Neb.

M. A. Hanson, who lives near Five Points, on East Beary creek, has three dams on that creek within a distance of ten or fifteen rods of each other, and all constructed by several beavers living in the creek on his place. Mike says, should anybody be in need of dam builders they should make application to him for a couple of beavers who are experts at the business.

J. E. Porter and editor Ketchum, of the Crawford Tribune, were in our midst last Tuesday, for the purpose we understand of starting a republican paper, and as we stated last week, in the interest of A. G. Fisher, the hero of camp Thomas, for representative of this district, and the several candidates for the post office in this town, in case of president McKinley's reelection.

One of Mr. and Mrs. Newlin's children met with a most painful as well as a quite serious accident, Mr. Newlin informed us that in some unknown way even to the child herself while playing just outside the window of their house she thrust the hand through it above the wrist causing a very bad gash lying over the bone. Her parents hastened at once with their little girl to Harrison where Dr. Phinney found it necessary to take two stitches in the wrist, and soon as the child could stand the trip they returned to their home the little one was quite comfortable.

George C. Besser, I. M. Iverson, and Jacoby, who arrived here a week ago from Oshkosh, Ia. on a tour of inspection of the country, with a view of locating should the country prove satisfactory to them, left for their Iowa home last night the former, Mr. Besser, closed the deal for Merchant Gerlach's stock ranch five miles north of town. The latter gentleman filed on a line quarter of land west of town three or four miles adjoining Tom Iverson's claim. Mr. Besser, will return to Sioux County in August or September, to look after and fix up his ranch which is one of the best in the county, considering the size of it. Mr. Jacoby will return within thirty or sixty days to become a permanent resident. Mr. Iverson, of course will no doubt, come real often to see his son and other acquaintances which he has in Sioux County.

From Boggie Land. Jake Forster, the boggie coon hunter, will move his cattle to long branch, the first of May.

We are very glad to hear that John Burrows has decided to remain among us and make the valley his future home.

John Mack is putting in a large crop this spring. John is a good farmer and gets a crop when others get nothing.

The dance given at Mr. DeBock's on last Tuesday night was a grand success. All present report a big time.

County surveyor Ruffing, went over to Wyoming this week on business.

Last week Mike Brown and Will Sizer had the good fortune to find a den of gray wolves, containing twelve whelps. Of course they put the pups to sleep at once, and killed the two old ones next morning.

Mrs. Banna, met with a serious loss last week in as much as she lost her favorite cow.

Sny Mr. Zerkel, we killed a jack rabbit last week, that weighed 15 lbs, dressed now is that for a Sioux County jack.

Mrs. Gilbert is in the poultry business she has already 75 little chicks and looks for a great many others in a few days.

The Boggie man wishes the JOURNAL or any other party who may hear of a charming young widow desiring to wed, to kindly refer her to him, and oblige.

MARRIED.
 TATMAN-SWIM.
 At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Swim, occurred on Sunday afternoon, March 18, the marriage of their daughter, Eva, to Wm. Tatman Rev. Ross of the M. E. Church officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, no guests being present. Eva has disapproved the proverbial saying of her sex, that no woman can keep a secret, as the approaching nuptials were unknown until the event had taken place. Eva is one of Prescott's choicest young ladies and having grown up in this place she will be truly missed, as her qualities of true worth and womanliness have endeared her to many in Prescott. Mr. Tatman is an estimable young man and every way worthy of the companion he has chosen. The best wishes of their many friends will accompany them to their new home near Carl, where Mr. Tatman will engage in farming.

Will is a son of Mr. Tatman, of Kirtley Wyo., he left here about four months ago presumably to spend the winter in Iowa.

Over In Wyoming.
 J. D. Williams is building himself a residence on his claim just west of Hamilton. Being a skilled carpenter and plasterer, he is quite an acquisition to the settlement and has been employed ever since he arrived here.

E. B. Haxell will build himself a good house during the summer.

Special grapevines from Charles Andrews, is that he is herding sheep on the Platt river.

O. E. Jenning, is going to build a good house on his claim so we hear.

Pay Whipple was laid up a few days last week on account of LaGrippe.

Len Christian has bought a fine guitar and we can soon expect to hear sweet strains of music issuing from the upstairs of the Christian mansion, or else in the office of their barn.

Little Jessie Nevlin met with a painful, and what might have been a serious accident, on last Sunday afternoon in some manner she stuck her hand through a window light and cut her arm and wrist receiving a cut about two inches long and deep to the bone; the artery tendons and joints were plainly visible. Her parents started immediately with her to town, where Dr. Phinney dressed the wound, taking two stitches to close the wound. They stayed at the Harrison House over night and on Monday went out home. Jessie stood the ordeal bravely and is getting along all right.

The following teachers have been elected to teach in No. 7. Miss Noble of University place will teach the West School and Mrs. Hunt of Edna, Ia., will teach the East School. Now if the patrons will keep hands and tongues off and stand by the teachers and not censure them in the presence of the pupils but uphold them in all they do we will have good schools, as both teachers are strangers but come highly recommended.

Say mister Po-co-lo-co that frog story is too much. We lived in Sioux county several years and never saw enough water to float a log thin much less enough to swim a frog that weighed 12.0 pounds. Say, wasn't the frog in your throat. If ever we meet near a soda fountain, we will ask you, in the vernacular of Dawson city, "Wash your neck which literally means, have a drink."

Breezes from the Valley.
 The old saying, "Rain on Easter Sunday Rain for seven Sundays" will be watched with interest this year.
 The Rain on Sunday was so gentle the ground is sure soaked now. Too wet to plow Tuesday, but the farmers seem to feel quite encouraged.
 Mr. C. F. Coffee came up from Chadron Tuesday and came down to his ranch with the mail carrier.
 Miss Maggie Hunter closed her term of school at Mrs. Jordan's last Friday.
 Miss Lillie Zimmerman taught school on last Saturday for Mr. Pounds, while he indulged in the luxury of a toothache. Too bad when boys try to be useful to be told "a poor excuse is better than none."
 Rev. Rice will preach next Sunday morning following Sunday School. All are cordially invited. Also services in the evening.
 The rain again last Sunday night prevented the Easter service from being held, so if the weather is favorable they will be given next Saturday evening. All are cordially invited. Come every body and encourage the young people to try again.
 Sorry to learn of the accident that befell little Jessie Nevlin of Pleasant Ridge this week. Window glass, cuts pretty deep sometimes. GLO.
