Bryan and Towne.

At their national convention, at Sioux Falls, S. Dak., last week Hon. William Jennings Bryan of Lincoln, and Charles A. Towne, of Duluth, Minn., were unanimously nominated by the Populists for president and vice president respectively. The PRESS-JOURNAL sincerely hopes the Kansas city convention will do likewise and nominate the above ticket by acclamation. It is our candid opinion, it is a ticket that will sweep the country from the Pacific to the Atlantic and from the gulf of Mexico to the British possessions.

Sulzer Is Correct.

Congressman Sulzer of New York, takes issue with the statement made by Webster Davis to a New York audience on the 7th day of May, to the effect that President McKinley is a patriot and a grand American, and is opposed to the robbery and murder by Great Britain in South Africa.

Standing in his place on the floor of the house, Mr. Sulzer raised his voice in protest, and issued a challenge. Said he, alluding to the statement of Mr. Davis "I challenge that statement. The administration is not a patriotic one, and is doing all that it can to suppress the honest expression of opinion in this representative body regarding the war in South Africa."

"It is doing all it can against the South African republic. It is doing all it can in favor of Great Britain."

"This morning, when the speaker would not permit the consideration of the resolution I offered, what a spectacle he presented! I feel sorry for him."

"No doubt he was simply obeying his orders from the White House or from Mark Hanna, but it is a spectacle that should make every friend of representative government blush with shame."—Thrice-A-Week-World.

Report of Sioux County Teacher's Association.

The Sioux County Teacher's Association came together for their third meeting at the Bodard church, Saturday May 12th, 1900. As but few teachers were present, only an afternoon session was held. After the opening address by Mr. J. B. Burke, County Superintendent of schools, papers were read by Mrs. Rice of Carey, Mr. Lindeman and Miss Marley of Harrison, followed by discussion of the subjects presented. Mrs. Knott, presen- tation subject. The value of a knowledge of current events, which was discussed by several. The business hour then followed. At the last meeting the officers were instructed to prepare a set of by-laws to be presented for the approval of the Association at this meeting accordingly Mr. Pond, the vice president, presented a set of by-laws. It was voted to consider section after section after considerable discussion, the rejection of some sections and the amendment of others, they adopted the following form:

For the purpose of encouraging co-operative principles in the educational work of this county, inspiring higher ideas and aims on the part of the teacher, securing the aid of all school patrons and school officers in the work and thereby insuring an enthusiastic and progressive spirit on the part of the pupil and teacher, this Association organized and the following by-laws adopted:

1. That this Association be known as a co-operative Educational Association of Sioux Co., Neb.
2. That all persons residing or teaching in the county, shall be considered eligible to membership in the association.
3. That all persons wishing to join the Association may do so by giving their name to the secretary.
4. That each member of the Association shall constitute a committee of one to get others to join the Association.
5. That all monies of the Association shall be expended by order of the executive committee.
6. That the officers of the Association shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.
7. That all officers shall be elected by acclamation for a period of one year.
8. That the President, vice-President and secretary shall constitute an Executive Committee.
9. That it shall be the duty of the president to preside at all meetings of the Association.
10. That it shall be the duty of the vice-president to act in the president's place during his or her absence.
11. That it shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the minutes of each meeting, and report the same and to enroll all persons whose names are handed in for membership.
12. That the time, place and number of meetings each year shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members of the Association.

Officers were then elected as follows: J. B. Burke, president, Mr. William Smoke vice-president, Mr. W. H. Davis Secy and Treas.

Moved that the place of the next meeting be Harrison and the time and number of meetings be left to the Executive committee.

Vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Pond for his earnest effort in preparing for this meeting. Emma L. Rice, Secretary pro tem.
