crosses over into the "promised land."
-Some of our business men are continuously crying out against several of should patronize home industry.

Over in Wyoming.

As the PRESS-JOURNAL, failed to reach Kirtley P. O. on last Saturday's mail yo scribe is at sea in regard to the neighboring news and may send in something that has already appeared in its columns Who is to blame in the matter we don't know but it often happens that the Journal does not show up at this end until the Tuesday following its issue.
While helping grand cattle at Charlie Thomas's on Wednesday of last week John Lehr had the misfortune, in throwing a cow, to have her fall on his leg breaking the fibula, tearing loose the tendon of the heel, or Achilles and dislo-cating the bones of the ankle. He was taken to Harrison where Dr. Phinney reduced the fracture and bandaged the ankle. It will be some time before we will be able to get around as it is far worse than a square break of both bones.
The cow truck him with such force as to knock her hip down.
Andrew Christian who was confined to the house several days last week with lumbago and rheumatism, is now able to be out again.
Farmers are about through seeding, and this week will about finish clod hopping on the ridge for this spring. The wheat is all up and growing finely, while grass never was finer at this time of the year.
Miss Edna Noble, who is teaching the West school will go to University Place Neb., about the first of next month to attend the graduating exercises. We understand she will graduate then and receive diploma. She will come back in time to open her school again on June 11.

A CHANGE.

During the past week, H. S. Clarke, and F. W. Clarke, (father and son) bankers, of Creston, Ia., have been negotiating with Mr. D. H. Griswold, for his and Mr. B. E. Brewster's interest in the commercial bank, and Monday, the deal was consummated, and Messrs Clarke, are now owners of the above named gentlemen's interests, Mr. Griswold retiring.
The bank, under the new management, will be conducted along its usual, and successful business lines with C. F. Coffee, as president, and the following named gentlemen will constitute a board of directors:
Andrew McGinley, H. S. Clarke, C. F.
Coffee, C. C. Jameson, F. W. Clarke, F. W. Clarke, cashier, W. H. Davis, assistant cashier.

We welcome Mr. Clarke, among us.
He seems to be a thorough and practical business man and will be a valuable acquisition to our town. Mr. Clarke has purchased the residence property of Mr.
Griswold and we presume in a few weeks his wife will arrive from their former Iowa home to make this their permanent abode.

D. E. and his estimable wife, who have been residents of the town during fifteen years, will probably remove to some other part of the country, soon as D. H., determines where he will locate.
Their many friends and neighbors in Harrison and the county will very much regret to see them leave. One thing is certain, our regretted loss will be some other community's valuable gain.

A Fiendish Crime.

A. L. Staudenmaier Riddled With Bullets When Found.
On last Friday morning, just at what hour may never be known, A. L. Staudenmaier, who resided near Andrews, about ten miles east of Harrison, was looking after his cattle, when a cowardly fiend, shot him from behind, and not satisfied with killing him, the assassin shot the lifeless corpse, and as if to defy law laid a bullet in the hand of his victim.
The body was discovered about two o'- clock in the afternoon, of the same day, and after the coroner's jury had rendered their verdict the body was removed to the late home of Mr. Staudenmaier. The funeral was held at Crawford on Sunday, afternoon. The deceased leaves a widow and three little infant children to mourn his untimely end. They will have the sympathy, of the entire community in their dire affliction. Mr.
Staudenmaier was an old and respected citizen of our county and one who was known as a hard working, honest, and respectable citizen. The JOURNAL hopes that no stone will be left unturned in order to bring the murderer to justice.

Following is the verdict of the coroner's jury after examination of the body and deliberate consideration.

Breezes From the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wohlhieter have gone to housekeeping in the former residence of C. E. Hollingsworth on Hat Creek.
Miss Blanche Coffee went to Chadron Wednesday to attend the commencement at the academy. Her brother John T. graduates from the commercial dept.
A little girl arrived at the home of Superintendent Burke last week, also one at the home of George Hill.
M. C. Pounds who has been teaching in the valley for the past nine months closed a successful term, last Saturday in the Southworth district with a picnic which all seemed to enjoy. We learned he left Wednesday for Wyoming.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parsons came to the valley last Saturday to visit old neighbors and relatives. We had a good old fashioned visit with them Saturday night & heartily wish they came oftener.
Milton Hollingsworth of Los Angeles, Cal., who has been spending some time with his son Clarence, at Burns Colo-who has been very sick, but is now better, arrived in Harrison, Thursday, and came to the valley with F. W. Knott Saturday. Grandpa has come to spend another summer with his son Ed, on Indian creek. Rob. Woody who left here five years ago also returned and will make his home with his brother-in-law, J. E. Hollingsworth. Ed. came after them and took them to his home Sunday.
We were very much surprised and sorry to see so few teachers were interested in the Teachers Association at Bodaro. Prof. Lindeman's Miss Marley and Mrs. Rice's papers ought to have been listened to by a crowded house, for they were very good productions indeed.
