HARRISON PRESS-JOURNAL.

ESTABLISHED 1888.

Official Paper of Sioux County.
Geo. D. Canon, - Editor.

ENTERED AT THE HARRISON POST OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

With the bubonic plague in San Francisco, the black vomit in Rio Janeiro, Tarriff in Puerto Rico, the Neely scandal in Cuba, contract labor in Hawaii, bribery and corruption in the Philippines, ship loads of Japanese coolies on their way, trusts, monopolies, a multitude of strikes and other evils too numerous to mention, the people of the United States stand in great need of a change of doctors.

The Queen of England, who went to Ireland and kissed the blarney stone for the purpose of securing another ocean of Irish blood to cement her tottering throne, had her Platonic affection rudely wiped from the afore-said stone by Lord Salisbury.

Reward in Staudenmaier Case.

Special Dispatch to the World-Herald. Lincoln, Neb., May 26.—The statutory reward of $300 has been offered for the arrest of the murderer of Alais D. Staudenmaier. The murder was committed in Sioux county, and the reward is offered by the sheriff of that county.

Richard Croker the New York Tammany chief declares without hesitation that Hon. W. J. Bryan will surely be elected this time and says that Mr. Bryan is correct in maintaining for the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 which is in the interest of the producers, besides he says Bryan will sweep Ohio in the bargain.

Birds of feather will flock together. Clara Deaver flocks with Edward Rosewater in Omaha and Wharton Baker flocks with McKinley at Washington. This is exactly right. Brothers engaged in the same cause should love each other.

The public robbing and stealing of everything in sight by the McKinley appointees in Cuba, during the past year, was to be expected, and certainly will be an object lesson to the people of Cuba what "benevolent assimilation" means.

There isn't a single plank in the Sioux Falls, Populist platform that every genuine democrat in the country cannot subscribe to, more than that, there is no reason why the Democratic National convention, which will meet at Kansas City, July 4th should not nominate the same ticket placed in nomination at Sioux Falls May 12.

Hon. W. J. Bryan, the champion of human rights, and the Declaration of Independence, has not yielded one single iota of his principles, which he advocated in the campaign of 1896, and is sound on every other political issue to be considered by the people in this fall's campaign, is more popular to-day in the hearts of the masses of the people than any other living man of the nation.

The British forces in South Africa have entered the Transvaal territory and it now seems as if it would be but a short time until the two republics of South Africa will be extinguished from the map and England, in our opinion, is not more to blame for it than the administration at Washington. But then, our nation is engaged in the same business in the Philippines. See?

Senator Foraker, of Ohio, has been selected by the leaders of the republican party to make the nominating speech of president McKinley at the Philadelphia convention, for his second term. This is significant to the trusts and combines. Senator Foraker, like our Thurston, is special attorney for the standard Oil and Tobacco Trusts. They each, draw two salaries.

Memorial Services.

The Memorial services at the M. E. church Sunday were well attended, yet there was room for more and we regret not a few of our home citizens were conspicuous for their absence at the services. Like the glorious 4th of July, memorial, and decoration day, above all others should be religiously and patriotically observed. It will be but a few short years at most until the last one of the old soldiers will have passed to the great beyond. Nothing is too good, in the way of honor and reverence for them in their declining years. They gave their services and many of them, their lives, that every human being in the U. S. might be free and independent and that this, the greatest republic on earth today might be preserved intact. Rev. Smith, who delivered the sermon done himself, and the occasion credit. The church was nicely decorated, and the day was a beautiful one for the occasion. But four old veterans were present at the services, viz: E. Force, W. L. Balda, W. H. Lyons, and A. J. Bognart.

Decoration Day.

A very lengthy procession accompanied our G. A. R. veterans, in their memorial day procession to assist in decorating the graves of our beloved heroes, who are now title holders of a portion of God's acre. In our estimation this is a most beautiful tribute, not only to our beloved dead, who have answered the last reveille, and are now enjoying their unbroken slumber in the quiet city of the dead, but also to those of their number, who yet remain among us, as they must feel, that by our attitude toward them on this day, in particular, how much we venerate them, who have given us our flag, washed in the blood of our choicest sons, to wave over the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Congressman Hale, successor to the late Mr. Dingley of Maine, declares, there is a scheme on foot to annex the island of Cuba. That gentleman need not worry for if a few more carpet bag officials are sent down there by president McKinley, there will be nothing left to annex. Under the president's plan of assimilation, it is much more effective than annexation.

The republican party leaders, in congress are now impugning the Democratic party not to use the Cuban postal scandal against the party in the fall campaign.

Two platforms on which will you stand?

- Republican platform.
- "We endorse imperialism.
- We rejoice—in the trusts.
- We glory—in Haanatism.
- We are proud—of McKinley's record as a flopper.
- We heartily support—a banking currency.
- We entrust—the country to boss rule.
- We commend—militarism.
- Democratic platform.
- We repudiate—imperialism.
- We mourn—the substitution of boss rule for popular government.
- We decry—the control of our money system by the banks.
- We are ashamed—of the war in the Philippines.
- We condemn imperialism.
- We denounce—Hannatism.
- We disavow—militarism.
- On which do you prefer to stand?

As Tammany's Chief View's Situation.

In an interview with W. T. Stead, in London May 26th, relative to Hon. W. J. Bryan, and his chances for election to the presidency this fall, Richard Croker, the New York Tammany chief, who has been in England for the past six months, said to Mr. Stead:

"I am for W. J. Bryan with my whole heart. He is far and away the ablest man that we have in American politics today. He is a wonderful man. There is no man to compare with him anywhere or to put alongside of him. He is a fine character, a man of high principle and of tremendous energy. Mark my words, when W. J. Bryan is elected he will work eighteen hours a day in order to carry out in spirit and in letter every plank in the Democratic platform. He will be able to serve the people, and he will be a governing president, not a mere figure, whose movements are governed by wire pullers. He is a man of conviction. I tell you there is no man I have known in my time for whom I have a greater regard and esteem than for W. J. Bryan. Do you know him?"

"W. J. Bryan is right," said Mr. Croker, "in taking his stand upon silver. I have never been a silver man, and I never can see why its opponents make so much fuss about it. Many of the ablest men in the country are on his side, and I never can quite make out what it is that his critics blame him about. Is it the exact ratio that is in dispute, or do they object to silver altogether as a medium of metallic currency; in other words, is it 16 to 1 that they kick at, or is it silver at any ratio? Anyhow, Mr. Bryan is right in sticking to his guns. My party interests, so far as New York city is concerned, would counsel me to advise that he should weaken on the silver plank, but I would not say a word to induce him to do it. It would, indeed, be fatal for him to do it. Mr. Bryan's strength of character commands the belief of the people in his honesty and sincerity. If he were to weaken on silver he might gain some votes from the bulls of Wall street, but he would lose far more in sacrificing the interests of the struggling farmers, who are ground down between combinations of railways and trusts; hence he stands where he did on the silver question, and he does right. In the next election other questions will of necessity be more to the front. There is the question of trusts and there is the question of imperialism. It is upon these that the election will mainly be fought and won."—Daily Denver News.

Over in Wyoming.

Fred Smith, of Manville, has moved his family into John Suttons house, and is now a resident of Pleasant Ridge. Chris Christian, is putting down a well about ten miles south of the V. T. ranch and will move his cattle there as soon as arrangements can be made to do so. Hill Shatto is drilling the well for him. John Sutton had to pull his pump again last week.

Andrew Christian, will market about 300 bushels of wheat in Harrison, the last of this week.

Charles Christian is expected home from University Place on next Saturday. Dora will probably stay for commencement exercises and will not be home until a week later.

E. Foote and J. H. Newlin will fence the West school house some time during the week.

Miss Edna Noble started for University Place, Neb., on last Saturday evening train. She expects to return about the 10th of next month.

A few days ago as Delbert Rice was going home from the post office in company with Hollis Hamlin he undertook to show the speed of his horse or his ability as an equestrian while passing through town. But lo! A staid old cow stayed in the road and the horse not turning out in time, there was a head and collision. The horse stopped but the rider went on, and struck mother earth so hard as to render him insensible for a time. He was carried to the residence of Hile Church and his father was sent for, who took him home. No bones were broken but Delbert learned a lesson to ponder over while his bruises are healing nicely. Nothing lighter than a locomotive must try to butt a cow off the track.

Z. G. Duell, branded his cattle the first of the week.

Father and Mother Church visited over night with their daughter, Mrs. H. Duell on last Saturday night.

On last Monday morning the little folks were up early to see the eclipse. The sun rose clear and very bright. Smoked glass had been prepared all were on the alert. At 6 o'clock the eclipse began, but it was almost a total failure instead of a total eclipse; not more than half of the sun being covered at any time. The next time the almanac advertises a total eclipse it had better produce it.

Last Tuesday the 29th was the tenth anniversary of our married life. Nary a bit weddin' did we have, not a tin whistlin' showed up.
