ENTERED AT THE HARRISON POST OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

Republican newspapers that used to call him Hon. Webster Davis, are now referring to him as Web Davis, since he has gone cross in the administration.

The Monroe doctrine, as originally declared, and as since interpreted by succeeding Democratic presidents is a permanent part of the foreign policy of the United States, and must at all times be vigorously maintained.

The delegates to the National convention at Kansas City, from New York, are instructed to support Hon. W. J. Bryan for president and to vote as a unit on all questions which may come before that august body. In all probability, there will not be a dissenting vote against the nomination of Mr. Bryan in the Kansas City Convention. What a change in four years.

The new trusts incorporated under the laws of New Jersey during the past year, will pay into the state treasury a corporation tax, amounting to $650,000.

Fifteen new trusts were organized and incorporated under the laws of New Jersey during the past year, an aggregated capital of $500,000,000. The republican party have been in power four years and have done nothing to prevent monopoly. Too late for them now.

For the benefit of some single gold standard advocates, we wish to remind them their choice at the polls next November will lie between McKinley with whom they agree only on one question, and Bryan, with whom they disagree on a single question. The choice will lie between a man of platitudes and a man who says what he means and means what he says, between a man whose ear is "tuned to catch the slightest pulsation of a pocketbook" and a man who "listens to the heartbeat of humanity" between a man of whose policies none but the trusts can be certain and a man whose principles the world understands.

Those who choose McKinley cannot separate the man from his cant.

Those who choose Bryan cannot separate the man from his candor.

Those who choose McKinley cannot hope that he will abandon the policies thought out for him by others.

Those who choose Bryan need not expect him to abandon the principles he has 'bought out for himself.

It will be McKinley and an empire; or it will be Bryan and a republic.

If an empire resting upon gold is preferred to a republic resting upon gold and silver, then let us begin the erection of the imperial temple—the temple that shall testify to the correctness of European prophecy that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall perish from the earth.

We often hear individual republicans express sympathy for the Boer, but we have yet to note that any republican state convention has adopted a platform plank recognizing the right of our sister republic in South Africa, to enjoy that liberty which we claim for ourselves in this republic. As a sample of the strength of republican sympathy for the Boers we quote the following press-report of the proceedings of the Illinois republican state convention, held just recently:

After the platform had been read, Miles Keboe, of Chicago, presented an amendment expressing sympathy for the South African republic. It was lost in a storm of hisses. Our republican friends dare not publicly sympathize with the Dutch republic, because such an expression of sympathy would slap McKinley in the face.

Payta, in Peru, is the driest spot on the face of the earth; The interval between two showers of rain is seven

The Democracy of New York, in their state convention placed president McKinley in a compromising position before the voters of this nation, and vindicates quite a number of republican congressmen, who openly opposed the Porto Rican tariff bill passed by the 56th session, by quoting a paragraph of the president's, on that part of his message relative to tariffs, here it is:

"Our plain duty is to abolish all customs tariffs between the United States and Porto Rico and give her products free access to our markets"—William McKinley.

Without doubt the next great war to take place will be in China. And it begins to look as if our Uncle Samuel was about to become embroiled together with other nations in that war.

The New York Journal makes these timely suggestions:

Here are a few of the things that voters will do well to make an especial study of between now and election day: The Alger embalmed beef scandal.

The financial collision between John D. Rockefeller and Secretary Gage.

The tariff oppression of the Porto Ricans.

The United States army outrages on the Couer d'Alene miners authorized by William McKinley.

Thefts, murder and mismanagements in the Philippines.

Postoffice peculation and embezzlement in Cuba.

The Hay-Pauncefote treaty, by which we are to build an isthmian canal while England commands it.

The brave Burgers of the Tansvaal republic, seem not to be whipped, by any means. For on the 7th inst the Boer forces surprised, killed, & wounded over 500 of the Derbyshire fusiliers, besides cutting Lord Roberts communications and otherwise crippling the British forces seriously. Hence, as the old proverb goes, "The battle is not to the strong," always, nor the race to the fleet." God grant that they may yet be victorious, if, however, they have right on their side.

The Mother of Inhumanity.

In his recent speech delivered before the anti-imperialist league of New York, Bishop Spaulding, of Peoria, Ill., denounced our war of conquest, as crime of imperialism; lust of blood and gold hear what he says:

And now the American soldier, who should never shoulder a gun except in a righteous cause, is sent 10,000 miles across the ocean to shoot men whose real crime is that they wish to be free, wish to govern themselves.

They say that they are unfit for freedom is to put forth the plea of the tyrant in all ages and everywhere. The enemies of liberty have never lacked for pretexts to justify their wrongs; but, in truth, at the root of all wars of conquest there lies lust for blood or for gold.

The Arena for April, 1900, published a remarkable article by Mr. H. D. Money of Washington, D. C., in which the writer proves irrefutably the fallacy of the claims of the advocates of the colonial system. Mr. Money devoted a generous part of his article to a comparison between the export trade of England, with her 11,000,000 square miles of colonies and dependencies, and that of the United States, with no colonies, much to the advantage of the United States. In the same article Mr. Money exposes the truth about the colonies of France and Germany and gives additional proof that American commerce does not depend on the acquisition of territory in remote regions of the earth.

THE PIONEER-PHARMACY.

Drugs, Drugists Sundries, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Books and STATIONARY. J. E. PHINNEY, Proprietor.

Senator William V. Allen, declares, that the political situation is indeed bright for the fusionists this fall, and says its latest champions and not the least, are the Boer envoys touring throughout the country, their speeches are arousing liberty loving souls everywhere.

Over in Wyoming.

F. B. Hamlin finished his contract with the school district last week, by painting and fencing the new school house.

J. H. Newlin made two book cases for the district last week, and placed one in each of the school houses.

Mr. Tatman is working for a Mr. Magoon, in the valley this week.

Miss Elsie Tatum was selling Japanese oil and some other medicines last week. She met with good success as we hear.

Mr. Robinson, census enumerator, for this district, called on us the first of the week.

We understand that Fred Smith has taken a home stand on the south side of the settlement and will make this his home for a while at least.

We saw a boy on his way to Kirtly, a few days ago, who seemed to have a broken arm at least he carried it a sling. We missed a good item by not making inquiries of him concerning his ailment.

A Mr. Kallav, of Marsland was selling dry goods and trinkets to the residents of the Ridge the last of last week.

Francis Deuel made a pleasure trip to Lusk on last Thursday. No wonder he looks so WISE.

gay master editor. We had quite a zephyr up our way on last Friday. Is it time for the candidate to begin to blow.

We are glad to hear, that our old time friend and neighbor, C. B. Hollingsworth is on the road back to Sioux county. They all seem to be glad to get back again. No doubt we will see Mr. Knott, and family trekking back to the land of the Sioux in a few years. How is it sister Gino?

Father Deuel was calling on the Ridge last Thursday. He stayed overnight with his son Harry.

The entertainment, given by the Kendall Hixson company, in the East school house, on Tuesday night of last week, was quite exhilarating. In fact it was a success clear through. All did first rate, and every one that attended thought that they had value received. I'd tellaman that Mr. Hixson was as good an endman as ever we saw in a minstrel troupe while Olney Kendall was had to bat as a middle man. But say, the funniest thing of all was to see Mr. Kendall our former minister trying to beat music out of a couple of cow's ribs. We could have loaned him a good pair of ebones and showed him how it was done by that simple twist of the wrist.

The proceeds for the evening was $9.50, which by the voice of the people was all donated to the company.

The continued dry weather will shorten the crops some we fear, besides there will be a shortage in the hay crop.

The Ash gray blister beetle has made its appearance in countless numbers and is taking the potato vines as fast as they appear above ground. Paris green is the best remedy but a few boys with whips of pine boughs is the quickest and easiest way to get rid of them "See year book 1898." They are a good thing in some respects as in the larve stage they destroy a great many grasshopper eggs as that is their chief sustenance during that Stage.

Quarterly meeting was held at the West school house on last Sunday; but not being there we couldn't report it.

It is rumored that L. O. Hull will sell his newspaper and go into the M. E. ministry. What on earth would a Methodist preacher do with Hull's politics?—Callous (Iowa) county Republican.

Perhaps if he sells his paper he will throw in his politics. What's the use of spoiling a good detective, trying to make a methodist of him. Since coming to Callous county Grinney's political and financial record has been brilliant in the extreme. We don't know what Rockwell city will do when he is gone.—Lohrville Enterprise.

Miss Elna Noble arrived here from Lincoln on last Sunday and resumed her school again on Monday. She received her diploma and is now a fledged Wyoming teacher.

How Priddy was Puzzled.

"Got any boys?" Homer Priddy said To the lady from over the Rhine; And the lady shook her flaxen head, And civilly answered, "Nein."

"Got any girls?" Homer Priddy said To the lady from over the Rhine; And again the lady shook her head, And civilly answered, "Nein."

"But some are dead?" Homer Priddy said To the lady from over the Rhine; And again the lady shook her head, And civilly answered, "Nein."

"Husband, of course?" Homer Priddy said To the lady from over the Rhine. And again she shook her flaxen head And only answered him, "Nein."

"The d—l you have?" Homer Priddy said To the lady from over the Rhine; And again she shook her flaxen head, And civilly answering him, "Nein."

Now what do you mean by shaking [your head, And always answering "Nein?"

Ich kann nicht English!" civilly said [the lady from over the Rhine ZEKIEL.
