Grant Guthrie, was appointed Treasurer by the school board to fill the unexpected term of Lewis Gerlach. A very good selection.

Work has commenced on the new school room and will be pushed rapidly so as to have it ready in time for school to commence the first of September.

County clerk Baum and John E. Marsteller left for Crawford, last night in order to attend their representative conventions which will convene in that city today.

"Bill" Rickard, brother-in-law of George Grimm, and an old resident of Sioux county, returned from Virginia, Monday. We learn he has come back to stay. Mr. Rickard will be remembered by many of his old friends who will be pleased to hear of his return.

Prof. Roush, of Manville, was in Harrison, a day last week on professional business.

Today the Democrats and Populists held their representative convention at Crawford. The delegates to the Democratic convention are M. J. Gayhart, Neil Jordan and John Marsteller, and those to the populist convention are W.
J. A. Raum, C. Christensen, J. Nolan.

William Miller has heard from the 2nd Assistant Post-Master General at Washington, D. C., ordering him to commence carrying the mail from Harrison on to Bodie—both ways—until the route is reorganized; Mr. Miller's order took effect last Saturday, the 21st inst.
We trust that in the future the Press-Journal will reach its readers on time as of yore.

Parties owning the following horses can learn of their whereabouts by calling

EDITOR.

Andrew McGinley gave a grand dance out at his new barn on last Tuesday evening all the young people went out and to say they had a good time is to use very mild language. Mr. McGinley never does anything by halves and the dance was no exception to his rule.

On last Wednesday morning, Mr. F.
W. Knott and his estimable wife and family were in our midst for the last time, as they were on their way to their new home at central city, Neb.

The family spent several hours in town, among their numerous friends before bidding them adieu. Mr. Knott's family is one of Sioux County's oldest residents, are among our most highly respected citizens and all regret to see them leave, yet they feel that the education of their children necessitates their move on their part. Mrs. Knott, has been one of our best writers during our time here, hence we shall doubly miss her. The Press-Journal recommends Mr. Knott, and his family to the kindness and cordiality of the people of Central city, whom we doubt not, will be quick to acknowledge the valuable acquisition to their number.

The quill pen has the promise of Mrs. Knott, to write to us for publication during her trip across the country so look for it as we will vouch for it being interesting.

the village of Harrison, Sioux County, Nebraska, at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said order of sale in the sum of $1000 with interest, costs, and accruing costs.

THOMAS HULLY,
Sheriff of said county.

Mr. McGinley, moved his family out to their new home yesterday.

Miss Louise Lindeman after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Blawett, returned to her home in Crawford, last Monday.

room of the court house (up stairs).

M. Smith of Five Points, accompanied by his wife and children arrived in Harrison, yesterday noon, and were driven out to his father's ranch in the afternoon where they will be guests for a short time.

Miss Fannie Vanbuskirk of Gordon, who has been visiting at Douglas Wyo., came in from the west Tuesday evening and is visiting at the mansion of John and Will Davis, west of town. She will leave for home Monday evening. Miss Vanbuskirk has a host of friends in Harrison and vicinity.

Dentistry without pain. Marsh and Reynolds will be here August 1 --2.

Dont fail to see them.

Wonder if Deidrich opened his "barrel" when he was here the other day?

Mrs. F. W. Clarke, is entertaining her sister of Chicago. The young lady expects to make an extended visit.

The county fathers are again in our midst looking after the interest of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt, of Red Lodge, Mont, brother of Jeff Hewitt, of this place who have been here during the past week with his brother and his famday evening.

The ladies Aid society will meet Wed. afternoon Aug 1st with Mrs Smith to sew carpet rags.

Henry Pickabrook of Montrose, was at the county seat on business one day this week.

During the past several days the temperature has been quite cool owing to the fact of our having had several rains.
Mr. D. H. Griswold and family left for Ainsworth, last Monday evening where we understand they are to reside permanently. We regret to see any of our fellow citizens leave our little town, but we presume each individual knows best where they wish to reside.

Miss Mary Norisch who has been up at Douglas, for some time came down for a short visit with her parents on last Friday evening.

What might have terminated most disastrously had not timely aid arrived, was occasioned by some live coals in ashes which were emptied from the Corbin home on last Saturday morning. As it was about half mile to prairie fire was started when ten of our young stalwart fellows, went to the rescue of their neighbors, and did everything in their power to overcome the progress of the flames and after desperate work success crowned their labor. However it gave the immediate family a scare.

Miss Noble, teacher in the west school will close her term on the 30th of next month. She expects to start for her home in University Place, the next day.

us to handle their entire Banking business.

We are prepared to take care of our trade at all times.

An interesting and most interesting lecture was delivered at the M. E. church last evening by Mrs. L. E. Bailey, of States Island, N. Y. Her subject was prohibition of the liquor traffic and what the dire results of the saloon has been to the people of the nation. Mrs. Bailey did not place all of the blame upon the saloon-keeper, but placed the blame on the men and women who will drink and others, also the laity of the church in the same class with the saloon-keeper, where they will either vote for whiskey taps or for men in office who will grant license legalizing the saloon business. Mrs. Bailey is a talented lady and probably the most renowned speaker a Harrison audience ever had the pleasure of listening to.

Miss Amy Christian is enjoying a three weeks visit at home during her vacation.

Ye Scire has offered two schools in the Sioux county and his better half has been offered her old school on White River where she taught five terms in succession during our residence there.

Of course it is possible that we will become a resident of your county in the near future.

Yes, we notice some fields of grain that was sown in May are just coming up since the rain of last week. Better late than never perhaps, but no doubt it will take an over coat to keep it from getting frost bitten.

J. J. Zumbrunn is building an addition to his house.

We visited Miss Nobis's school a few days ago and find her doing good work.
She has a model school and her methods are up to date. If the patrons would visit the schools often and see the work being done by our teachers there would be more harmony in the schools and a better feeling in the district.

We noticed that F. B. Daniels new house looks up grandly. But will soon have a good home where few years ago the Indian and Buffalo had their homes.

Wonder what the matter with Eph.
Boyle's leg? We see him going around with a hilt in his gait.

ZUMBRUNN.

Breeches by the way.

We notice recently, Tuesday evening at the end of Harrison Avenue, so as to write a few lines for the last issue of Sioux county.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wolster will move next week into F. W. Knott's residence and take charge of the same.

Mr. Rice filled his appointment Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Rice who conducted a Women's missionary meeting at Matt Hall's Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Dant visited at Father Zimmerman's Sunday, as did also Z.
E. Antink.

Miss Miller and daughters Mrs. Rose and Miss Nannie assisted Mrs. Knott last Friday.

Miss Jessie Knott has been caring for an afflicted singer ever since their return from their trip to the hills.

Wm. Miller has to go to Harrison three times a week after the Badger mail.

F. W. Knott found he was loaded too heavy so disposed of the larger part of his load at the depot in Harrison.

It is with many regrets that we leave what has been our home for the past thirteen years and go among strangers to form new associates and friends. With our stay here we have found many true and dear friends which pains us greatly to part from, but such is life. It is meeting and parting. There is nothing on earth that will stay, even roses must die with the year, so with this issue of our items we bid friends and Sioux county Goodbye.

CHAS.

Over In Wyoming.

A brother and nephew of Mr. Church with their families, arrived here from Richardson County Neb., on last Friday.

Also a brother of Mrs. Church accompanied them from Gering. Mr. Church's brother has been an invalid for several years and is almost helpless. They are traveling for his health and expect to make an extended visit.

J. E. Hollingsworth and family, accompanied by his father, visited at Andrew Christian's on last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Hunt, teacher in the east school engaged Florence Christian to finish her school and has gone to join her husband who is working on an ranch near Lusk.
She is a good teacher and has given entire satisfaction. We all know that Florence will finish the term which closes the 27th, to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Miss Noble, teacher in the west school
month. She expects to start for her home in University Place, the next day.

Mr. and Mrs. Knott, and family visited Christian and Newlands, a few days before they started for Hot Spring, S. D.

Deserters and Recruits.

HENRY ABRAHAM S. UAWIT, Senator Lindsay of Kentucky, ex-Governor Walker of Connecticut, ex-comptroller Edwards and other prominent and life long democrats and Democrats, are unable to support Mr.
Bryan for the president on the platform he has constructed for himself. But against the loss of these gold diggers there is the set off of Mr. Webster Davis. Mr.
Davis has but one vice, but he can roar.
Philadelphia Record.

Only one, but he is a lion. How much does Bryan lose by means of Hawley, Walter and Eckford? They all voted against him four years ago. Webster Davis will do more good than ten thousand such men. But Webster Davis is not alone.
Ex-enormous donation of Indiana has just announced himself for Bryan, and so has Senator Talbot of Nebraska. The anti-imperial-
