Mr. Bryan has already been nominated by the populists, the democrats, the free silver republicans, the single taxers and the anti imperialists. Mr. McKinley has been nominated by part of the republicans by a majority of the Englishmen, and is looking for an endorsement from Russia. Bryan will carry America and McKinley will get a big majority in Europe.—The Nonconformist.

A number of New York Irishmen, who were formerly Republicans—notably Patrick Egan, once minister to Chili; Patrick Ford, of the Irish World, and Dennis A. Spellissy, a lawyer, have formed in the interest of Mr. Bryan. They seek to make converts to his cause among men of their descent.

Their statement of principles is a declaration that the policy of McKinley in the Philippines is an attack on human liberty in every country in the world and an indirect menace to the hopes of every loyal Irishman.

Is There A Money Question.

The North-western Catholic never took a deep interest in the so-called money question. To its untutored mind money is simply the yard-stick of exchange; and it has always believed and continues to believe that any metal intrinsically valuable would serve the world as money. It never could appreciate the significance of "sound money" as distinguished from "rotten money," nor why a white metal that served mankind for 3,000 years as a medium of exchange should become "rotten suddenly; or why the discrediting of that white metal should become necessary to the safety of business. It is unable to discern the existence of a money question at this time before the American people. The single gold standard is now the law of the land; and all admit that the repeal of this law would be impossible for at least six years; because during that period a "sound money" majority will rule the United States senate. But, if again, for sake of the argument we confess that mankind was financially blind and wanting in the sense of smell for three thousand years in failing to discover the rottenness of silver, and if we confess in general terms that bimetalism is an evil, still would it be difficult to discover any great cause for alarm over a question which is unalterably settled for at least six years. Better to settle once and for all time whether the mission of this nation is the protective of life liberty and property within its own boundaries, or the destruction of life liberty and property in the distant islands of the Pacific Ocean.—North Western (Sioux city) Catholic.

Roosvelts Insult To Labor.

Theodore Roosevelt now pleads for the vote of laboring men. It will be instructive to read an article published in the Review of Reviews for September, 1896 and written by Theodore Roosevelt. In that article—page 295 Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The men who object to what they style government by injunction, are, as regards the essential principles of government in hearty sympathy with their remote skin-clad ancestors who lived in caves, fought one another with stone-headed axes, and ate the Mammoth and woolly Rhinoceros.

"They are interesting as representing a geological survival but they are dangerous whenever there is the least chance of their making the principles of this age-buried past living factors in our present life.

"They are not in sympathy with men of good minds and sound civic morality.

"It is not a nice thing to wish to pay ones debts in coins worth 50 cents on the dollar, but it is a much less nice thing to wish to plunge one's country into anarchy by providing that the law shall only protect the lawless and Frown scornfully on the law-abiding.

"There is a great deal of mushy sentiment in the world, and there are always a certain number of people whose minds are weak and whose emotion are strong and who effervescence with sympathy toward any man who does wrong, and with indignation toward any man who chastises the criminal for having done wrong. These emotionalists, moreover, are always reinforced by that large body of men who themselves wish to do wrong, and who are not sentimental at all, but, on the contrary, very practical. It is rarely that these two classes control a great political party, but at Chicago this became an accomplished fact.

"Savages do not like an independent and upright judiciary. They want the judge to decide their way, and if he does not they want to behead him. The populists experience much the same emotions when they realize that the judiciary stands between them and plunder."—Daily World Herald.

To make the meaning of imperialism plain by illustration, it may be said that the American colonies fought the revolutionary war because of England's imperialism. The best exposition of imperialism extant is to be found in William Jennings Bryans notification speech at Indianapolis. "Republics cannot have subjects," he says. To tax without allowing representation, to govern without the consent of the governed—that is imperialism. American imperialism is to plant our flag in an alien land without the constitution. We have done this, through the present Republican administration, in the Philippine islands.

Hon. W. F. Hayward, Fusion candidate for the upper house of the state legislature from this 14th senatorial district, declares if elected, will do all in his power to amend the statutes so that no matter whether a person is guilty of stealing a $5. calf or a critter worth more the criminal will be punishable by being sent to state prison, as the law now stands, one who is inclined to steal must steal enough in value to make $50. worth in order to be a felonious criminal. We believe it would be a good thing to have the statute referred to amended.

According to the doctrine represented by president McKinley, "who will pull down the flag" in China? After it has once been raised there. Well there will be no trouble about that; imperial John Hay can get it pulled down in the same way he did in Alaska, when he turned over 2,000 square miles of territory to England three weeks ago.

Roosevelt On Populists.

Middle-of-the-road populists who are being used to further the chances of McKinley and Roosevelt will be interested in an article written by Theodore Roosevelt and printed in the Review of Reviews for September, 1896. On page 294 of that publication appears the following:

"Thrifty, industry and business energy are qualities which are quite incompatible with true populist feeling. PAYMENT OF DEBTS, LIKE THE SUPPRESSION OF RIOTS, IS ABHORRENT TO THE POPULISTIC MIND. Such conduct strikes the populist as immoral.

"As the campaign progresses from day to day, Mr. Bryan's chances for election to the highest office in the gift of a free people is improving with satisfaction to the reform Democracy of the country. Mr. McKinley's foreign colonial policy and war of conquest for the past year and a half has lost him his chance for re-election. European imperialism and militarism went work in this nation.

Corrupt ring of tyrants.

There is no Republican party in the sense of that party's origin in existence and such leaders as Fremont, Lincoln and Blaine. The party is now the shadow of a name, while a vast combination of trust and monopoly has taken its place and masquerades in the garments of the mighty leaders of the past. It is difficult to believe that real republicans who attended the birth of the party, can indorse the usurpation of its name, and history by a corrupt, and corrupting ring of financial and industrial tyrants.—New York News.

Senator W. V. Allen,

AND

Hon. W. H. Thompson.

Will be in Harrison,

SATURDAY, SEPT. 1st,

AT 2 O'CLOCK P. M.

BRYAN and STEVENSON.

They will speak on the political issues that confront the American people today, as a result of the mal-administration of the party in power.

GEO. D. CANON, Cahm. Com.

J. E. MARSTELLER, Sec. Con.

Sluggo, Fitzsimmons, knocked out Tom Sharkey Saturday in two rounds, and he has again challenged champion Jefferies to fight for the world's belt again.

Our would be governor of the great common wealth of Nebraska, Mr. Detric, the republican nominee, while in Omaha a few days ago declared that "any voter who did not vote for President McKinley's re-election was wholly devoid of brains." That is about the size of republican argument this year. Clearly demonstrating, the party are out of arguments based upon facts.

The man who was seemingly so earnest in booming Bryan in 1906 cannot hope to vote a Republican ticket and escape suspicion of being tampered with.

Gov. Pingree, of Michigan, speaking of president McKinley and Senator Hanna and their foreign policy says: "I believe it is the duty of republicans and all others to permit the Democratic party to win and save the Republic."

Hon. Adm. E. Stevenson, the democratic vice presidential candidate has been nominated by the Populist national committee which met in Chicago, the 29th inst to substitute a candidate in place of Hon. Chas. A. Towne, who withdrew from the ticket three weeks ago.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams of Manchester, Mich., says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. It is a Godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Cure guaranteed. Only 50c. Sold by Dr. J. E. PHINNEY druggist.

It remains to be seen, whether or not the allied Powers will proceed to partition the chinese Empire, we believe, if Russia, England, Germany, France and Japan conclude to do so, that the United States will be forced to enter the international combine, then look out for a general mix-up.

If the special dispatches to the metropolitan papers can be relied upon, the British war in South Africa against liberty and Independence has not succeeded in subjugating the Boers yet, and like Uncle Sam in the Philippines, are not likely to for some time to come if it ever does. May God grant she never does.

George S. Boutwell.

(Ex-Senator, Ex-secretary of the Treasurer, and Ex-Governor of Massachusetts).

In my age I leave the Republican party now that it has surrendered itself to despotic and tyrannical motives. I helped create the Republican party, a party at that time of justice and principle and honesty. I now believe it is a party of injustice and despotism and I will help to destroy it. And how? There is but one available means and you know what that is. I am for Bryan. I am for Bryan in spite of what he may believe concerning the currency or finances of the country. This is a question of life or death to the republic. In such a crisis shall we stop to consider whether silver should be worth more or less than it is? If a mistake is made in the next administration, should Bryan be elected, the people can remedy it in four or eight years. The country would not be destroyed. If the currency is impaired we can redeem it. It was impaired during the civil war and we redeemed it afterwards.—Speech at Indianapolis, August 16th, 1900.
