IN PENNSYLVANIA--WILL THE COAL TRUST WIN?

The Coal Trust and the Salamander

(HEARST'S CHICAGO AMERICAN.)

Seven hundred thousand human beings, workers in coal mines, are on strike because the "owners" of the mines will not let them earn enough to live on.

the days when nature was storing up the coal for the uncreated race

The carboniferous era-during which the coal beds were formednoted some six millions of years. During these long, thousands of centuries, the pollen dropped gently from the vast forests of fern trees, softly piling layer upon layer of the future coal beds. Hideous monsters swam in the water or flew through the air. The interesting fivetoed salamander-to whom Darwin attributes the fact that we have five fingers-plowed his way through the soft vegetation, a hideous creature seeking his hideous prey.

The six million years of the coal forming age went by, and other millions of years followed. By and by man came on the scene. He screeched and fought and murdered and stole, gradually working his way up toward real civilization, always thinking—as he foolishly thinks now-that civilization was with him.

When certain insects get ready to lay their eggs, they capture some weaker creature, kill it or stun it with poison and lay it away with the eggs, that the young may find food at hand when they come to life. Nature, planning to put us here, stored away the coal for us, like a prudent insect mother. Now we have got far enough along in our onward march to use coal, and we are using it.

What a fine sight the using presents to men and angels and future

Thousands of years ago the coal was stored up by a far-seeing Prov-

Today half a dozen human beings whose ancestors were fishes when the coal was made, proudly say "That coal is mine"-and they torture their tellows in the exploitation of the coal which was made for all human kind to use, and not for the selfish purposes of a few.

Suppose the five-toed salamander, with his wart-covered face, had claimed the falling layers of fern pollen as his property. He might have said for himself, at least: "I am here watching the coal forming process, and I have rights."

Yet all nature would have laughed at his foolish claim.

No one laughs at the claim of a coal "owning" monkey of this age who mays that the coal which was stored away millions of years before he came on earth is his.

The coal was stored up for mankind by just and provident Nature. said be distributed with justice and providence, among all the se who own the coal in reality are the inhabitants of this on tire nation. The men who dig it out, the railroad men who have it to market are interested part owners of it. The digging and hauling hould be well paid for. The brainwork of engineer, mine discoverer uld be paid for most liberally. After such just payments, the coal should be distributed among human beings for whose be orented, at rates as low as possible. But today the coal fields coal miners, the coal haulers, the engineers, and the consumers are med out for the exploitation of a blood-sucking trust.

What are you, Mr. Individual Reader, going to do to interfere with this state of affairs? Are you going at least to cast a vote against M, or are you going to supp along as dull-minded as your esteemed anosytor, the five-tool enlamander?

BISHOP TURNER SPEAKS TO HIS PEOPLE.

Denounces Republican Party as a Wolf Parading Around in Sheeps Clothing.

Chicago, Ill.-(Special.)-Bishop Tur- his so ner, head of the African Methodist Episcopal church, has declared his unalterable opposition to the re-election William McKinley to the presidency of the United States, and announces his unswerving support of William J. Bryan for that position. He has given out an address to the Afro-American voters of the country and furnished copies to the democratic national committee for distribution. His address, in which he shows the fallacy of the statement that the republican party is the friend of the negro, follows:

"I am declaring my preference William Jennings Bryan for president because he represents the same broad principles that Abraham Lincoln esof Lincoln and the republican party of Lincoln and the republican party of Hanna are distinctly things apart. Lincoln is dead, but his principles of personal liberty still live, and verily the mantle of Elijah never fitted the shoulders of Elisha as perfectly as Lincoln's mantle fits the broad shoulders of Bryan.

coin's mantie his the broad shoot Bryan.

WAS FRIEND OF PEOPLE.

"Lincoin never harbored a trust. He never believed in governing without the consent of the governed. He never believed in grinding down the rights and privileges of the common people. He never failed to accord honor where honor was due. Now how can any one reconcile the party principles of Lincoin with the party principles of Hanma and Roosevelt?

coin with the party principles of Hanna and Roosevelt?

"In its treatment of the colored man the republican party has always manqueraded as a wolf in sheep's clothing. Since the time that party claims to have freed the slaves its managaves have constantly lied to the colored man. When Lincoin died, republican honesty to the colored race was interved with his bones, and an era of republican moral degeneracy began. We are told that we were emancipated for humanity's asks. Yes, and I believe Cuba. Porto Rico and the Philippine inlands were freed from the mme incentive. Ob, humanity, what crimes are committed in thy fame!

"The republicane have lied to us about our freedom and our citisenship. Our freedom was a war necessity, and was dearly begint with colored arms 200,000 strong, and our citisenship is a replica of seridom.

"After the war the republicans, seeking to retain themselves in power, insystem in the south, which is not only a biot upon our national escutcheon, but the secret of all the American colored man's social troubles today. They thrust the unsuspecting negro's hands into the fire to snatch out their chestnuts.

NO MORTGAGE ON VOTE. Contrary to the emotional idea that the republican party has an unlimited mortgage on the suffrages of the colored man. I say that the organization should be everlastingly grateful to the colored man. The republican party is the child of that race. Through Lin coln's honest championship of the enslaved people that party was born.
Through the colored man's gratitude it was bred. The black man behind the gun turned the tide of the rebellion thus insuring the power of the party The black man was used as a political tool in the south during the 'carpetbag' regime and temporarily sacrificed his social safety. For thirty-three years he has delivered his vote to the republican party like a poor man given his pound of flesh to the shylock. "Now we have the spectacle of a tin soldier, a flashlight hero, whose pen is mightler than his sword, who ceived' the idea of a rough rider regi-ment because he had seen Buffalo Bill's Wild West circus. He is saved from death in Cuba by the colored soldiers who rush to the rescue of his 'threewho rush to the rescue of his 'three-sheet' troopers. He returns to the states and poses for emoluments and the camera and writes for the magazines of how he forced the black soldiers to keep to the front at the piont of his pistol.

POOSEVELT'S INSULTS.

"Black men on the battlefield have always been brave. In every war our nation has waged the colored man has shed his blood willingly.
"In the war of the revolution Crimes."

principles that Abraham Lincoln espoused and I believe it will be for the benefit of my people to vote for him. As Abraham Lincoln was a friend to the colored race, so is William Jennings Bryan.

"All of this silly sentiment of adhering to the republican party because of Lincoln's proclamation of emancipation is misapplied. The republican party of Lincoln and the republican party of Hanna are distinctly things apart. Lincoln is dead, but his principles of fought and died in Cuba, and nursed war of the revolution Crispus Attucks, a colored man, was the first to die on Boston common. During the war of 1812 General Andrew Jackson praised the valor of the men of color at the battle of New Orleans. Fifty thousand colored men made way for liberty and died in the civil war. The gallant Ninth cavalry rode 100 miles through the blinding snow, Christmas events from an Indian massacre. They seventh from an Indian massacre. They fought and died in Cuba, and nursed the fever-stricken soldiers at the risk of their lives. And they are now forced to fight their own colored people in the Philippines. All this they have done for their country's sake, and it is left for this vitascope character, this modern Don Quixote, Roosevelt, to accuse my people of being cowards.

CANNOT FORCE THEIR VOTES.

"If Governor Roosevelt 'forced' the colored soldier at the point of his pistol to save his life at San Juan hill, he cannot force the colored voter to save his political life on election day. The colored man will then have a chance to may, "Vengeance is mine; I will repay."

Columbus, Ind .- (Special.)-The repubican politicians were given a surpr last night by the announcement that James Godfrey, one of the richest far-mers in Bartholomew county, and a life-long local republican leader, would support Bryan in the coming campaign.
Mr. Godfrey says that as a farmer he finds it impossible to indore the McKinley administration. The trusts have raised the prices of all the supplies which the farmer must purchase, and Mr. Godfrey believes that the American citizen will look in vain to the republican party for relief from the
