Poisonous landshells resembling mushrooms have caused frequent deaths this year. Be sure to use only the genuine. Observe the same care when you ask for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. There are poisonous counterfeits. DeWitt's is the only original Witch Hazel Salve. It is a safe and certain cure for piles and all skin diseases.—J. E. THURNEY.

This republican party leaders are asking, "who will pull down the flag." That's easy, when old England wants another piece of the United States territory. Billious McKinley will pull the flag down—if he is re-elected this fall.

John Brennan, editor of the North Western Catholic, Sioux City, Ia. is dead; we among the first words we noticed on taking up a copy of that esteemed paper this week, a brilliant mind, a noble and generous heart and a most fervent christian as well as a most loyal American citizen has been called from our ranks, and has hearkened to the voice which bade him "come up higher" how consoling to him, must have been these words of the master "well done, thou good and faithful servant, because thou hast been faithful over a few things I will now place thee over many" enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

The republican papers tell about J. Stinker Morton, of this state one of the staunch advocates of trusts and the gold standard and Dr. George L. Miller, who like Mr. Morton, and the leaders of the republican party are opposed to the constitution of the United States following the flag, are against Bryan, but we can carry Nebraska just the same this year as we did in '96. That is not all but Democracy will sweep the country Nov. 6th next. Even Ohio, the home of president McKinley, will give Mr. Bryan 20,000 plurality. Watch our prediction and see if we ain't a good prophet.

Our political enemies, are dreadfully worried because the PRESS JOURNAL continues to warn the faithful to be on their guard against the wiles of those who like Hanna and Deitch funds with which to treat them. Boys take their treats, if you feel so disposed, and then give them the cold shoulder. Vote your honest sentiments, against imperialism and for a republic.

The latest trial of "Aunt Hanna" is left Ohio, cast its electoral vote for the people's champion. There are a large number of old veterans in Ohio, and they remember McKinley's rebuke to their committee in regard to Evans the present pension commissioner. The old soldiers are deserving of all honor and any affront offered should and will be resented by thousands of loyal American citizens, who love and venerate the armless coat sleeve or the crutches which lend support to the body deprived of a limb, as neither Hanna nor Mc. ever can. Yes just wait a few weeks, and McKinley will be given a stinging rebuke, by the old soldiers at the polls.

DEITRICH VS. POYNTER.

Deitch at Superior said:
"Our flag now floats over the slave pens and harem of the Sultan of the Sulus. Shall we haul it down? No!"
Poyster at Hebron said:
"In the discussion of our treaty with the Sulus, I cannot condemn our policy more strongly than by quoting the words of Lincoln when he said: When a man governs himself, that is self-government; but when he governs another against his will, that is despotism."
During a speech at 20th and Lake streets, Omaha, Deitrich said: "There is no question about prosperity being in the land. Even here in South Omaha beef is worth 15 cents per pound." A laboring man in the audience arose and said: "Yes Mr. Deitrich, that is so and my wages have not been raised for four years and the result is I cannot buy any beef for myself or family."

Gov. Poynter & Hon. W. D. Oldham, Will address the voters of Sioux county, at the Court House in Harrison, on Friday, Oct. 26, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Come one. Come all. Come and listen to that which is of importance to everyone.

Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man.
