Village Blacksmith saved his little son's life. Mr. H. H. Black, the well known village black smith at Grahamville, Sullivan Co. N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old has always been subject to croup and so had the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreadful croup is cured before it gets settled. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Dr. J. E. PHINNEY.
