DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve will quicken the worst burns and scalds and not leave a scar. It can be applied to cuts and raw surfaces with prompt and soothing effect. Use it for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. For Sale at J. E. PHINNEY'S.

To us, it begins to look as if the republican party of Nebraska had captured the entire state ticket as well as the eight presidential electors. They done an elegant job of knocking the permutations off the tree with their long pole.

A father may turn his back on his child, brothers and sisters may become inveterate enemies, husbands may desert their wives, wives their husbands. But a mother's love endures through all in good repute, in bad repute, in the face of the world's condemnation, a mother still loves on, and still hopes that her child may turn from his evil ways and repent; still she remembers the infant smiles that once filled her bosom with rapture the merry laugh, the joyful shout of his childhood, the opening promise of his youth; and she can never be brought to think him all unworthy.—Washington Irving.

Shall we have Bryan elected? No, a thousand times no! I'd rather go to sea with a coat of stone, with sails of lead, with oars of iron, with the rath of God as a gale and hell as a port.—Bishop Fowler.

Bryan is not elected, Bishop, but you have your other alternatives. You will have the rath of God as a gale and hell as a port.—Nonconformist.

Enough is Enough.

We have cursed the Chinese "Boxer" Till the air is fairly blue; And we've howled our execrations At the thieving Spanish crew. But our weak vocabulary For a moment can't begin To do justice to the fellows Who delight to rub it in.

We are told the English language Half a million words contains, But in the whole dictionary Not a single word remains To do justice to the fellows Who come around us with a grin And with Spanish exultation Ope their yaps and rub it in.

It is tough upon a loser When he loses all in sight, And sees his hope knocked away Into blackest gloom of night, But it is a drearier sight to see When amidst obnoxious din He is forced to meet the fellows Who delight to rub it in.

Well we have been eating crow ever since election night, and still chewing away. It has been our misfortune to eat more crow this time than we have ever been obliged to before. Oh well some one has to take the unavowry dish why not us.

The American Girl.

How strange that in her mastery of nearly every art and science, self-assertive, independent as she is, the American Girl has never realized that as a citizen she has no place whatever in the world, which with such ostentation, lays so many honors at her feet.

In Nebraska a girl may, if she will, write L. L. D. after her name. In the courts of law she may plead for justice, equality the righting of grievous wrongs but she cannot put a cross upon the ballot and vote to change a law which she knows to be tyrannical and unjust. She may study as she will, recognize the value of pure food laws, for instance, from the physician's standpoint, but she is powerless to cast one vote for the legislator who would establish and secure these laws. She may master Greek and Sanscrit, Latin German, French, but with the eloquence of five or six languages at her command she cannot exert the influence the most illiterate Indian or negro wield when he holds in his hands that bit of official paper. As an instructor of your little ones she cannot consciously impart the principles of true Republican government, "of the people, by the people, for the people" unless she specify that "women" are not people.

Our business is not to build quickly, but to build upon a right foundation and in a right spirit. Life is more than a mere competition as between man and man; it is not who can do first, but who can work best; it is not who can rise highest in the shortest time, but who is working most patiently and lovingly in accordance with the designs of God.

The greatest canal in the world is the Suez, opened on November 16, 1869. Its length is ninety-five miles, its depth is twenty-six feet, its annual revenue is $15,000,000 its cost was $100,000,000. Its stock is five times its par value, and the average time taken to pass through it, is twenty hours, less eight minutes. The depth of the canal is being increased at a cost of $40,000,000. The world's longest canal is the Imperial Canal of China, with a length of 1,000 miles.

The sun seems to shine just the same now the re-election of president McKinley, to another term of four years in the White House, as it did before. Every body is doing business at the same old place. We have just about concluded that, no matter who is elected president, people will do business just the same.

The American people by their suffering sustained and endorsed president McKinley in his war of conquest in the Orient and an immense standing army at home.

Perform a good deed, speak a kind word, bestow a pleasant smile, and you will receive the same in return. The happiness you bestow upon others, is reflected back to your own bosom.

There are many kinds of boys and girls in the world, but there are three of which we especially mention here. They are the "Wills," the "Wont's" and the "Can't's." The "Wills" accomplish everything; the "Wont's" oppose everything and the "Can't's" fail in everything.

Three Armies

Every great war leaves three armies: 1st. An army of invalids. 2nd. An army of mourners. 3rd. An army of tramps and idlers ready to commit any crime.

We see a good deal said in our newspapers just now about the New York "Hall of fame."

The largest city in the world is London lying in four counties and having a population of 4,250,000, equalling the combined populations of Paris, Berlin, Saint Petersburg and Rome. To walk through all the streets, avenues, lanes and alleys of the city, never traversing the same one twice, would require a ten-mile walk every day for nine years. The streets, placed in a row, would reach around the world, and leave a remnant that would stretch from London to San Francisco.

Every half-hour the bells of Westminster abbey chime a rolain, and the burden of their song is that if we wish to lead a holy life we must be as careful in our daily life as when in the sanctuary. Spurgeon.
