The Blessing of Music.

Someone has said that music "washes away from the soul the dust of every day life."

Nothing so quickly arouses the powers of emotion, imagination and enthusiasm as music.

Some of the best thoughts of the world have come to men and women while under the inspiration of music.

Perhaps nowhere is the influence of music so strongly felt as in the home, and that home is the happiest whose walls echo and re-echo most often to melody.

Children love music and their tendencies to wrong doing and their evil passions are often better controlled by a little music than in any other way.

The weary father leaves all his care behind him as his voice blends in the family song in the quiet rest of the evening.

Such songs have power to quiet the restless pulse of care.

Happy the mother who has cultivated the love of music in the home and in the hearts of her children—its blessed influence and association will never be lost or forgotten.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS is the one important magazine in the world giving in its pictures, its text, its contributed articles, editorials and departments, a comprehensive, timely record of the world's current history.

There are many readers in your locality who have yet to learn of its usefulness. We wish to establish active agents in every city and township in the country.
