SYNOPSIS

Deb-! Jergenson was the only daughboy with and married an idier. Stees tirry iver father had other hope her and to his anger he disowned her then erry is writed her and ran away to De Of the union however, a child was en and Rachel called him Jason. Stebusin Orry was neare from in the Isle of so, where he was again married and broken nearted woman, but told Jason of s father - acts. Juson swore to kill him and if not him, then his son. In the -antime Orry had deserted his ship and the governor of the sheare ed by Sand, Asiam Fairbrother. Orry went se, and their hild, called Michael Sunbeks, war born. The woman died and brasher, who adopted him, and he benow the playmate of the governor's only caughter, Gosson. Time passed and the assertion and his wife became estranged, hear ave sons staying with their mother to account of their jentousy of Suniocks, his hid become a favorite with the governor. Finally Stephen Orry confesses his misdeeds to Suniocks, who promised to zo to feeland to find Rachel if possible and care for her, and if she was said to find her son and treat him as a brother. He had good-bye to his sweetheast, Greens and started on his journey. Strantine Juston had started on his journey, strantine Juston had started on his journey, of vengennee and his ship was a serviced on the lake of Man. He saved the life of his father unknowingly. Orry blief, and on his death bed was recognized by Jason.

"For shame," she cried, "for small choose for herself," skame! Oh, you mean, pitiful men, to buit and budger him like this."

Jacob threw up his head and laugher you're waxing apace with your bis ansn't icurned to muck a byre yet."

a man who is stunned by a heavy blow. will be inoked to in the few days the "Not for my-self," he mumbled, "to remain to me, and come what may, the not for myself, though they all thin- sorry race of my footsh life will soon and, "You think I came to beg for beat takes that merit my misfortunes. So and board for myself, but you are thouse, my child, choose, it is poverty wrong I came to demand it for the with me or plenty with your mother at I may have no claim on you. Choose, my child, choose; and let it b but she hast for she is one with you an quickly, fet it be quickly, for my or and can ask for her own. She has 1. heart is bureling." Acone with her father now, for it seen that he has none for himself; but he proudly up, her buildight eyes aftern home is here, and here I mean to lea-

"Not so fast, sir," said John. a.e has nothing but what she works but the skies above us."

"Works for, you wagtait?" cried A., A Womanor !

bearing or man, where's the diffe. the herer" gaid Gentleman John, atsurpord Lis fingers.

"ancre's the difference, you jackan es? Lo you ask me where s the d. ence nere? Here? In grace. charity, in unselfianness, in faith in t... in figerity to the true, in films tion

You are too old to quarrel with, sir, Benk apare you," said Gentleman John Me me, yes whipper anapper! Yes cet If I have cursed the day I first one my wife, let me also curse the when she first bore me children and my heart was glad. Asher, you my firstborn, and heaven knowat you were to me. You will not stand by and maten to this. She is your Asker twisted about, where he say as the window nook, pretending to doze. and, "The girl is nothing to me. he is nothing to any of us. She has with you all the days of her life at such as you made her to spend h strangers. She is no sister of

Then Adam turned to Ross "And do m my the same?" he asked

What can she do here?" said Ross thing. This is no place for your ladies. We work here, every man man of us, from daylight to dark Salds and dairy. Best send her to her fine friends in London.

g." said Jacob, glancing up with a emile into Greeba's face, "or Ber straight off-that is t way. I heard a little bird tell some who might have her. Don't wou know who it is. He is away of her face changed. Only she ley." at the back of her father's and clung to it. And Adam. s hard to master the emotion his whole body to sway and in his cent, said slowly, "If she rother, who still stood apart th, the child is your daughby that deed you speak of she d to her share of all that is her, and that she shall give up all hought of you,"

"That you shall never again expect ommerce of any kind with her." "But why? Why?"

"Because I may have certain plans for her future welfare that you might try to spoil."

"Do they concern Michael Sunlocks?" "No, indeed," said Mrs. Fairbrother with a tors of the head.

"Then they concern young aJeon, the Icelander," said Adam.

"If so, it is my concernment," said Mrs. Fairbrother.

"And that is your condition? "Yes."

"And you ask me to part from her forever? Think of it, she is my only daughter. She has been the light of my yes. You have never loved her as have loved her. You know it is the truth. And you ask me to see her no more, and never more to hear from her Now, God punish you for this, you cold-hearted woman?

"Take care, sir, Fewer words, o mayhap I will recall my offer. If you are wise you will be calm for the gl. l'e sake."

"You are right," he said, with, hi hend down. "It is not for me to take Then Greeka's eyes flashed with an- the bread out of my calld's mouth. She

Then he twisted about to where Gree ba stood in silence behind his chair, "Greeha," he said, with a world or and Mrs. Fairbrother said, "Chut, girl, longing in his eyes, "my daring, you me how it is. I am old and very poor words, considering you're a chit that and heaven pity my blind felly, I have les wasted her days in Landon and no home to offer you, for I have none to shelter my own head. Don't fear to Afain Gil not hear her. He sat like me, for I have no fear for myself. Then he turned to his sons and be over. But you have made no mis-

Then the brave girl drew hered and her whole figure erect and quive.

"Choose?" she cried, in a plercing the tru ever calm is what may one day voice; "there is no choice. I will a be bers when we ourselves come tull with my father, and follow him over toytong. Acantime, like her brothers, the world, though we have no covering

And then Adam leapt from his chall to his feet, and the infirmity of hiand "she is a woman! Do you hear? - years somed gone in an instant, and his wet face shone with the radiance of charity, and unselfishness, and love left | would bring them together. That put in the world still. Thank heaven, I is he would, no farther could be ge brought forth children. Come, Greeba, must go alone. we will go our ways, and God's protec-"I have been se and duty! There's the difference young and now am old, yet have I mat his poor bewildered brain went about its | It will be shown by the new United seen the righteaus forsaken, nor his seed begging bread."

He strode across to the door, ther stopped and looked back to where his sons stood together with the looks of whitned dogs.

"And you, you unnatural sons, erfed. "I cast you out of my mind. give you up to your laziness and you drunkenners and vain pleasures. I am going to one who is not firsh of my desh, and yet he is my son indeed.

claser, my son. Think of it-your only Amin he made for the door on stopped on the threshold and faces about towards his wife. "As for you woman, your time will come. Remem ber that! Remember that!"

> Greeba laid one hand seftly on hi shoulder and said, "Come, father come," but again he looked back at h. sons and said, "Farewell, all of you. Parewell! You will see me no more May a day like this that has come I your father never, never come to you.

And then all his brave bearing, his grand strength broke down in a mo ment, and as the girl laid hold of hi arm, lest be should reel and fall, b stumbled out at the threshold, sobbins beneath his breath, "Sunlocks, my boy Sunlocks, I am coming to you-I an the coming to you"

Chalse A'Killey followed them out muttering in an under-breath some deep onfshed, Miss, for I make no imprecations that no one heeded. "Strange," said he, "the near I was to crucifying the Lord afresh and swear ing a mortal swear, only I remembere my catechism and the good John Wes

Jason, who was coming down from Harrule with birds at his belt. With bewildered looks Jason stood and look ed at them as they came up, a sorr; spectacle, in the brightness of the midday sun. Old Adam himself stred ans." Then turning to heavily along, with his face turned down and his white hair falling over his cheeks. By his side Greeba walker with her head thrown back and her wet > eyes trying to smile. A pace or two behind came Chalse with his pony and cart grunting hoursely in his husky throat. Not a word of greeting Jid they give to Jason, and he asked for no had heard of all that had passed there spianation, for he saw it all after a and then turned himself about to go "Must she go back to Lague? In there their way.

They took the road to Pamsey, and out the long two miles of the journey, may not be choosers." save only by Chalse, who never ceased At that word Jason was unable to to mutter dark sayings to himself, support any longer the mid laboring of whereof the chief were praises to God his heart. ter delivering them without loss of life ilons, for, thanks be to the Lord! He rich enough though to is poor himself. had drawn their teeth.

on a good man in the hour of his trou- he has seen all and stood aside and bie, there are ever more tender hearts been ellent, because afraid to speak, to compassionate his distresses than but he must speak new, or never. o see her or hear from her, or hold bitter ones to triumph over his adversity, and when Adam Fairoreither bled, and he answered: come to Ramsey many a dior was thrown open to him by such as well question whom you mean." mindful of his former state and found. And Jason's tongue being loosed at their resentment. No hospitality would a food. ne accept, however, but tick up his "I have been an tille fellow, air, I abode with Greebs in a little lodging in know that; good for nothing in the the market place, with its face to the world, any more than the beauts of the cross and its back toward the sea. And field, and maybe it's because I've had being safely housed there, he thanked nobody but myself to work for; but Jason at the door for the help of his live me the right to stand beside her strong arm, and bade him come again and you shall ree what I can do, for no at 10 o'clock that night, if so be that brother shall return her cold looks for he was in the way of doing a last her sweetness, and never again thall pervice for a poor soul who might never again have it in his power to repay, spiece." "I'll come back at ten," raid Jason amply, and so he left them for the Adam, as best he could for the tears present.

nd that, and as simple as a child, b a or to the woman other. But you'll nevr do it, girl? Ex? Never? Never?" "Why, fother, what can you mean? Are we not going away together?" safd irecba. "True, chi'd, true," said Adam; and ion, twice repeated, he passed with her and old Chales fore me about in i to the house. But Adam had his meaning as well a is reason for Liding it. Turough the was before him, but on what plea made by he approached the bedside, and there before her, the world might yet he ... ber foot, and life, so sweet and so so and yet so good a thing withal, w. ndy and waiting for her.

Once he thought of Michael Bunlooks and that the arms that would be one; to bimself in that distant hand would In great Ly. "Do you hear that, you thought of Jason and that to leave her like text morning Jason took her back people?" he orisi. "There's grace, and behind was to help the schemes that a Lague have not yet to curse the day her body then this, that she must stay, and he

Yet, knowing the strength of her surpose, he concealed his intention, and sperative colonies. work of preparation very artfully. It women are employed in factories. was Friday, and still not far past noon. Such a scarcity of sailers exists on the the cross. After a hasty meal be set port. Vessels four deep are fled-up to out into the town, leaving Greeba to est, for she had walked far since early morning. At the quuy he inquired the date of a vessel that called here on its passage from Ireland to Iceland, and to his surprise he found that she was even then in the harbor and would go out with the first tide of the next day, which would flow at i o'clock in the morning.

Thereupon he engaged his berth, and paid for his passage. It cost dx pounds besides a dally charge of four shillings for rations. The trip was calculated to last one month with fair wind and weather, such as then promised. Adam ounted the cost, and saw that with all present debts discharged and future ones considered, he might have something between six and seven pounds in his pocket when he set foot in Reykinvik. Being satisfied with this pros pect, he went to the High Bailiff for his icense to leave the island.

Greeba had heard nothing of this. and as seen as night fell in she went up to bed at her father's entreaty. Her oom was at the back of the house and ooked out over the sea, and there she caw the moon rise over the waters as the undressed and laid down to sleep. Prompt to his hour Jason came, and hen Adam told him all.

way, indeed into your own country. 1 go tonight, though my daughter, who is asleep, knows nothing of my intenion. Will you do me a service? "Try me," said Jason.

And then Adam asked him to stay in tamsey over night, that he might be there when Greebs came down in the morning, to break the news to her that her father had gone, and to take her back with him to Lague. "They will not say no to her, seeing her father is not with her; and the time is coming when she will hold her right to a share of all they have, and pone of them dare withhold it."

Jason, who had been up to Lague, and played his own part, too, though he said nothing of that. He was now visibly agitated. His calm strength had no help for it?

"None," mid Adam; "for she is penlittle was said by any of them through- niless. God forgive me, and beggar

"Yes, yes, but there is a way," he or limb or hand or even out of a dan of cried. "for there is "ne to whom she is for he would give his life's' blood if so Now though the world is hard enough be that he could buy her. Many a day I earing this, Ad m's f colo lej tru

"I will not misdount you, my lad, or nothing in his present fall to me it that, the hot words came from him like she go back where she will only be de-"You are a brave lad Joson," and that choked him: "and though I have And when he was gone Adam sa'd to long had other thoughts concerning has Greeba as he turned indoors, "A fine | yet could I trust her to your leve and scepting and go my ways with age to the man who deceives him. Ay, tent. But no, no, my lad, it is not for me to choose for her; and neither is for her to choose now."

Panified by that approxy Jason go ils promite freely, fall afully to an whole Adam had asked of him: And the nocht alog now nell warn towned a midnight a without further answer to her que: | with the first hell of the vasual room nee be with her." Adam mureous a

So Adam Pairbrother went bie we nt he closed to Greeka. And ence he cay my Greeks behind him and corry

> (To be continued LABOR AND INDUSTRY.

The United States has sixt

the docks awaiting men. Common laborers in Spain get from 25 to 40 cents per day in the larger turns out glass marbles has just been hats are made with wide brims, bound built at Steubenville. O. and the proluction will be 150,600 per day. Milwaukee's great crane, operated by sectricity, cost $40,000, and can lift 360 tons. It has a sixty-foot span and will be operated on a track fifty-eix feet from the floor. At Newport News, during the time onstituting a working day, 15,578 tons of coal were dumped from the Chera peake & Ohio coal piers into the ves sels waiting to receive it. Perry made the first steel pens at Sirmingham in 1824, selling them at 90 cents apiece. The weekly output of that city just now is 20,090,000, and some are sold for 5 cents a gross. One of the Chicago building contractors engaged in the fight against or ganized labor in that city has los twelve jobs in St. Louis, the men refusing to work on the buildings so long as he is in any way connected with

Two hundred unions connected with the New York Workingmen's Educational and Home association have decided to erect a labor temple. The sun of $14,500 has been collected to pay for the ground, which will cost $30,000. The new temple will have a roof garden, a symnasium and club rooms.

Typographical union No. 6 of New York was asked by Comptroller Coler recently to submit to him an estimate of the cost of a municipal printing plant. The union announced that the plant would cost $205,000, and the building for the plant about $250,000, or $500,600 for building and plant together The estimated steel rall equipment for 1900 is 2,100,000 tons, and the orders for this quantity, it is believed, will be placed shortly after the election. The allroads have more orders for steel bridges now than ever before, and there ere prospects that orders will crowd

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.

WHEN PA TAKES CARE OF ME.

When on takes care of me, It seems that everything Comes on me was a ve got the most

.t... so you becan a fass one but apput Lim; I'u take energe or aim wake

About at he's to do; guess she's allaid

When pa takes care of me. When pa takes care of me, Le puts me on a rus.

To let try his way

a watcoming me, the day

then brings in every purew he can find, and post them in front, at sides, be-"so that you can't hur: yourself," he sa, s.

Them cown beside me, and my blocks and toys,

You want to: I don't care." And I sit there and stare. when pa takes care of me.

When pa takes care of me, No cook or toy or game seems, somehow, just the same; And by and by I'm through with every you pluy?

ataris some song About "By, B.br. By!" And I be fit and cry, When pa tales care of me.

When pa takes care of me, I've grains me up at last And starts to walk real fast, as if he liked it; but he sixhs, And sighs, and heeps a-lookin at the the grain me quick and says, "It's a And no looks mad, and-I-when he takes care of me -Buffillo Empress. PASSIONS.

One of the most styllah gloves for rear with light groves is old-fusitioned factive waters. middle, and of soft this kid, with he Arab laces are very popular, untehing on the back and only one rest bulton. outs draperies, on hate of veryet, panne. Stration of green in the color has also continue in waited favor. Court mid- he only to bring in a bit more of the intex are urplier black chiffen, creps on the "half mourning" garments and hendware they have prepared for this velvet. ment Important elientels.

ished with three gradusted circular shoulder pieces and droop b

Delicate organdles that are crushed but not selled may be freshened by rum arabic has been dissolved and iron- waists are similarly. ing carefully. They will look as well as new if properly done. Everywhere the binding of black velwas and from 20 to 20 cents in the vet at the edge of the brim appears apon the pretficat hats for early auturn. Even the newest French sailer

> A revival of the old-time postifion back is predicted, with vest fronts of every description. There will be triple waistcoat effects, triple jackets, long stole ends, and many other fanciful deas for those who wish to adopt them. Laces are going to be used on everything this fall, from chiffon to fur. Just now many bargains are to be found, as the merchants are clearing out stock. and the designs and quality are fully equal to those that will be shown later at double the price.

> Many of the newest hats, though they tre still worn low over the forehead ire turned up sharply at the back, with a big bow of black velvet, smartly tied serving as a cache peigne, and recall nz almost exactly the modes of some hree or four years ago.

> Brocaded silks are less in demand than buyers anticipated, probably be cause we have not accepted the Direc oire and Louis XVI fashions as readil as Paris has. Striped effects are the most popular things among the new ilks, and a phosphorized silk which has in odd quicksliver effect bids fair to se much used for waists.

> A pretty gown for morning wear of voile, the color being a pale shade of green. The skirt is arranged with three leep flounces, each bordered with a nar row band of Cluny lace insertion, whill the bodice consists of a nest little coa of Cluny lace, fined with pale grees ilk and opening in front to show finely pleated vest of white silk mustir rossed and recrossed by Cluny Incinsertions, threaded through with nar ow black velvet ribben.

Fome of the new cloth and light woo ostumes for early autumn wear wil made with a princesse skirt, with will just most the girdletike ourve of FASHION'S MIRROR.

A lovely gown recently seen is of soft green crepe, with ve. tical tucks at sixinch intervals in the skirt, which is edged with deep vandykes of cream lace whose points turn upward to nicet But I suppose I've got to get it through each tuck. The bodice is slightly bloomed all around, with the vandyked lace applied yokewire, and has a loose But ma makes aim repeat all she has front inserted of white creps, with yellow roses and green leav a painted upon it. This is creased by gold braid interlaced and fastened by uny emerald butons. The belt is of gold galon with a gold and emerald clasp.

Grecian satin, a new wool material for evening wraps and tea gowns, has a tiny diagonal stripe on the surface. Panne velvet sported with gold is very attractive.

Egyptian designs are to be seen more and then he gets my picture books and and more in belt buckles, jewelry, and for many purposes. They are Chopatra deads, Egyptian symbols, and the asp And says, "Now go ahead; make all the is frequently to be seen. A handsome purse has for its silver trimming this sep, part of the body outlining the edge with the head and coll in one corner.

Some of the new stocks are softened with a little line of white tulle around the neck.

Clever young women are utilizing pretty black late "straps" by outlin-And when I cry pa says, "Have you ing the designs with gold thield and begun Aircray? What's the matter, anyway? sewing gold spangles in the center of There's everything you own! Why don't but the howers. If edge lace, it is useful for bows and ends, when wired with Stop erving now! You won't? Well, the finest wire. If piece lace, it is just What is wrong? Some, now, Fit stars." And then he the thing for crowns of hats of theater boundts.

Many pretty hats have the under side of their rims faced with fur. In a pretty hat of this kind the fur is chincilla. and the hat itself layers of gray felt. It is trimmed with pink rotes. Another back, and Fieldy hat of PALLION shape is faced with mink. One of the new rose hats is formed not of masses of roses, but of large recals of velvet. The hat has the window, up and down the a broad brim and a low, tound grown made of the pink petals, and the sole For sig 1 of man; and when she does trimming is a low, spreading bow of black velvet in the front.

French knots are as commonly used. for dress decoration as they were last spring.

Red vetest applique designs embroidered with a ld are the decoration or the bolero of a white taffera silk walst. Hands of live tomertion alternated with suched hands of gray silk form ef-

There are at least applories for pockers for the women this fall. A bright of iffer clieux loops and red ablit maist with the gold cost commues, but it would not seem so, for less and group line de sol descration another was t him but two little breast postern one on each side, of black eason for a very large postion of their New jet trimmings, of very delicate and beautiful design, show effectively Natty French jackets of covert clath on accordion plated evening and the are made with loose fronts, without after waists of black or white cliffon, dart seams, double breasted, and fin- Bands of the jet start from elaborate houlder capes, the roll of the lining bust in loops that swing from glittering showing like a cilk or ratio piping at jet pendants. The sleeves are smartly inished with matching let pieces below the elbow, and loops and appliques of when they reached their lodging by Pacific coast that vessels cannot leave aprinkling with water in which a little lieft. Pink and tes rose yellow chiffon

COOKING RECIPES.

Spiced Pears-Seven pounds parea fruit, three pounds sugar, one pint vinegar, one tenspoonful whole cloves, one easpoonful whole alimpice, one or two blades mace; tie all these spices in a cimmed sound the crown with a bind or little bag and drop in syrup. Put in lack veryet drawn through a long size | treserving kettle and cook slowly unsuckle, bent to follow the line of the till done. Seckel pears put up this way are excellent.

Corn Cake-Mix one cupful flour, onehalf cupful yellow, granulated cornmeal, one-half teaspoonful of suit, two rounded tablespoonfuls sugar and three level teaspoonfuls baking powder; add one cupful of milk, one well-beaten egg, wo tablespoonfuls melted butter and beat vigorously. Bake in a cake pan about twenty minutes.

Scalloped Tomatoes-Butter an earth m baking dish, and put in it a layer of canned tomatoes; sprinkle with salt and pepper and cover with cracker crumbs; upon these place dabs of butter, pepper and salt; continue until the tish is full. Cover the top layer of tomatoes with bread crumbs and bake intil brown.

Pempers with Rice and Tomato-Pre sire peppers as for stuffing with rice, but before filling them with this, pour ver it a cupful of good tomate sauce; tir this with the rice until they are well blended, fill the peppers with the nixture, put them in a vegetable dish ind let them stand, covered, in the oven until they are hot through.

Frezen Almond Custard-A half pound of blanched atmonds, to which it tablespoonfuls of sugar have been idded, mixed with a custard made of the yolks of four eyes and a pint of (weetened milk, will make a delicious lish. When the whole is cold, pound it o a paste, adding a quart of cream. After straining this, put it into a freezer until it is ready to serve.

Bean Salad String the beans and cut them in halves lengthwise; boll in saleed water until tender, or they may be ooked in butter, German style; if the atter method is used, let them stand until cold, then ringe off the butter with plenty of boiling water; drain theyughly, marinate with a French Gre ing, and let them stand for an la fore serving. Garnish thopped pareicy.