Official Paper of Sioux County.

GEO. D. CANON, - EDITOR.

ENTERED AT THE HARRISON POST OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

A republican congress is to be commended just at the present time, in the way it has dealt a severe, black eye to the Hay-Pauneforte coal treaty and to Great Britain. It is likely that the scheme of the British Lord and his accomplice in possession McKinley's cabinet, John Hay, will come to naught, and both gentlemen have been put to shame in the eyes of their respective governments.

In an interview to the public press, Hon. W. J. Bryan, informs the people of the nation that he will or about the first of next month, commence the publication of a weekly newspaper at Lincoln and that the paper is to be called the Commoner. A very appropriate name in our opinion. However the newspaper business is like every other avocation in life "there is no room at the bottom of the ladder" higher up the rounds there is room enough for all. With loud hosannas will Mr. Bryan be welcomed to the ranks of the knights of the quill but he will be expected to improve on what is already in the field. The Commoner will undoubtedly have a wide range of readers, consequently, will have to be seared by the unrelenting fire of criticism.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and lagrippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitfield & Co., 240 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for lagrippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of lagrippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by J. E. PHINNEY.

The case of Jessie Morrison who has been on trial for the past two weeks, for the murder of Mrs. G. Olin Castle, at Eldorado, Kans., couple of months ago, was practically disposed of the 14th inst by a disagreement of the jury, nine being for acquittal and three for manslaughter. The judge released the prisoner on bail.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stratford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good.—J. E. PHINNEY.

There seems to be a great deal of speculation by the republican papers of the state about the election of the two U. S. senators to be elected this winter. There is considerable opposition to the candidacy of Editor Rosewater, who has done more than any other man in the party toward the election of a republican legislature. We opine that Mr. Rosewater will have to be reckoned with in the senatorial struggle that is to take place at Lincoln, soon after the law makers convene.

The best Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound to the affected parts is superior to any plaster. When troubled with lame back or pains in the side or chest, give it a trial and you are certain to be more than pleased with the prompt relief which it affords. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. One application gives relief. For sale by J. E. PHINNEY.

ANY LADY can get a valuable reward for finding a reliable cure for her ailments. Write to Mrs. V. H. APP. CO., 100 N. 10th St., St. Paul, Minn.

What are Laws for.

It is very evident that most laws are not made to be obeyed unless convenient, for the reason that while they may appear on first reading to be plain, a further reading, or another law on the same subject, will introduce technical points to hinder its operation. If it is more convenient to obey the plain letter of the law than to contest the matter in court, it will be obeyed, but if obedience will inconvenience a person more than a lawsuit then the law is disobeyed with impunity and the technical provisions are relied on to avoid punishment. This is the exact situation with regard to our "corrupt practices" act. It clearly forbids certain things and the honest man obeys the law. The dishonest man looks farther and finds a lot of technical provisions of procedure behind which he can hide his guilty head (if he has money) and he disregards the law and expects to go scot free.—The Nonconformist.

"Little Bat" Shot at Crawford.

Crawford, Neb., Dec. 15, 1900.—Batiste Garnier, known as "Little Bat" was shot about 5 o'clock this evening at G. H. Dietrich's saloon by James Hague-wood, manager of the establishment, during a dispute over a bar bill. It was thought that the wound would prove fatal, the bullet having entered the body near the jugular vein, but one hour after the shooting he appeared to be improving. Mr. Garnier is well known all over the western portion of Nebraska, being employed as government scout at Ft. Robinson. Haguewood is under arrest.—Daily World-Herald.

Just Saved His Life.

It was a thrilling escape that Charles Davis of Bowerston, O., lately had from a frightful death. For two years a severe lung trouble constantly grew worse until it seemed he must die of Consumption. Then he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery and lately wrote: "It gave instant relief and effected a permanent cure." Such wonderful cures have for 25 years, proven it's power to cure all Throat, Chest and Lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at J. E. PHINNEY'S drug store.

Over in Wyoming.

Miss Mabel Fluckey, spent Saturday and Sunday with her friend Mrs. Newlin, she had a severe attack of sore throat, but under the treatment of Dr. Z. she was able for school work on Monday.

With sorrow we learn the demise of the Omaha weekly Bee. It has been a weekly visitor in our home for fifteen years. When it came to us on last Thursday, changed in form, name and style, it was too much. The Bee has merged into the Twentieth Century Farmer, a 24 page paper; magazine form. Of course, it is an improvement, but to the old subscribers they miss the open countenance of the old title page.

There will be a Christmas tree, at the east school house on Christmas night. A good programme is being arranged; quite a sum has been subscribed; and it is expected that everybody will be there with their wives and cousins.

There is to be a regular old fashioned "taffy pull" at the east school house, on Saturday night Dec. 29, under the auspices of Miss Mabel Fluckey. Every body is invited to come and bring the little ones.

There was no services on the Ridge last Sunday, on account of the sickness of our pastor, Rev. Warren. There is to be preaching at the school house on Friday night the 29th, also on
