Official Paper of Sioux County.

GEO. D. CANON, - EDITOR.

ENTERED AT THE HARRISON POST OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.

Former President Benjamin Harrison has attacked the McKinley administration for taking the position that the Constitution applies to the United States exclusive of Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands. He declared that the constitution extended to them in spite of any treaties or Congressional legislation. To deny taxes in other parts of the United States, according to the former President, is to deny that Porto Rico is a part of the United States. He said that while some persons declare that the sound of Dewey's guns in Manila Bay heralded a new mission for this country, to him it seemed better to let it herald the same old mission sounded by the guns of Washington.—National Watchman.

If the State Journal, is any authority (a republican paper too), Editor Rosewater of the Omaha Bee, in the legislative contests in Douglas county is being shown up in his true light. It is such men as Rosewater, Deitrich and our own Capt. A. G. Fisher, the camp Thomas hero, who are responsible for the landslide in Nebraska, that was no doubt brought about by fraud and intimidation we predict the public will recognize the fact in less than two years.

Among the tens of thousands who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for colds and lagrippe during the past few years, to our knowledge, not a single case has resulted in pneumonia. Thos. Whitlins & Co., 219 Wabash avenue, Chicago, one of the most prominent retail druggists in that city, in speaking of this, says: "We recommend Chamberlain's Cough remedy for lagrippe in many cases, as it not only gives prompt and complete recovery, but also counteracts any tendency of lagrippe to result in pneumonia." For sale by J. E. PHINNEY.

The army canteen will be maintained by the government no matter whether the Methodist church approves of it or not. As long as president McKinley, (good old fashioned Methodist) is satisfied, it will without doubt receive the approbation of prohibition, church-going class. When such men as Bishop Fowler and Hartzell prefer to go to sea, with boats of stone; with sails of lead and oars of iron, with a gale from hell as a wind to propel their craft, rather than elect a clean pure man like Mr. Bryan for president of these United States, the army canteen is of very little importance whatever.

Many persons have had the experience of Mr. Peter Sherman, of North Stamford, N. H., who says, "For years I suffered torture from chronic indigestion, but Kodol Dyspepsia cure made a well man of me." It digests what you eat and is a certain cure for dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble. It gives relief at once even in the worst cases, and can't help but do you good.—J. E. PHINNEY.

State treasurer Meserve, during his last term of office, which will expire about the 9th of January, paid a surety company $1,500 dollars for guaranteeing his honesty and integrity, to the people of Nebraska that he would perform the duties of state treasury without loss to them. It is now stated by republican papers that the surety companies have raised on the surety bond to $2,500, and the new state treasurer, elect declares he will give a personal bond instead. The surety companies have not forgotten the record of the last republican state officials, when they had stolen everything in sight, tearing their finger nails off getting the last penny from the vault in the different state departments. That may give us something to harber.

The New Century

'Ere another issue of this sheet is given to our readers, life and death will have met; and offered greetings each of its kind, the one will be the faint groans of the dying nineteenth century, and the other the bright halo and rosy hue of the dawning twentieth. The glad new year will usher the one into the remotest oblivion, and the other he will crown with the laurels of conqueror, hero and king. The dying year and century alike, warns all of two facts, viz: That all that is of time passeth, and that the new year and century are given for a special purpose. Many of us will live to see the commencement of the century; none of us will see its completion; how many will see the end of the year? What next? The following verses may not be out of place on the occasion.

"Ode to the Twentieth Century" by Our M. Quad.

In the splendor of the morning, 'ere the stars have vanished quite, When the earth awaits her bride in her robes of spotless white, And the millions watch impatient behold with rapturous joy and glee; The dawning of the New Year, and the Twentieth century.

Hail its bright auspicious dawning! let all strife and evil cease, May every sword be buried 'neath the blended bloom of peace, May every son of freedom stand erect to-day and see, With lifted soul, the chimes that ring the dawning of the Twentieth century.

Columbia greets the new century with a welcome fair to see, And brighter grow the stars that gem the banner of the free; In the flushes of its dawning we can see a grander fame Than that whose halo glows to-day our country's deathless name; From east to west, from north to south through-out Columbia free, Let the proudest and the humblest greet the virgin century.

Judge Bond, of Boston, who has sat on the bench over forty years has during the past week, openly proclaimed to the world, that in certain cases, Mercy is ahead of justice, and he demonstrated the fact in the case of Miss Rogan who desperates because of her ruin, which a Dr. Taylor accomplished, threw Vitrol in his face and destroyed his sight, and otherwise disfigured his face. This venerable judge in discharging the unfortunate girl said, of her victim Dr.-Taylor "he is so vile I have no pity".

Bound Over Without Ball.

The preliminary hearing of James D. Hagewood, for the killing of Baptist Garner, was held in Chadron yesterday before Justice Babcock. County Attorney Fanning appeared for the state, and Allen G. Fisher for the defense. After the testimony was taken Mr. Fisher made application for the release of his client on bond. The petition was denied, and the court, after considering the evidence bound the defendant over to the district court without bail. Sheriff Dargan was in town Wednesday, serving subpoenas on many of our citizens to appear as witnesses at the preliminary hearing of James D. Hagewood held in Chadron yesterday. The following were summoned by the state: Dr. Meredith, Charles Glaze, Page T. Francis, George Uhl, Frank Jarvis, Wm. Ogg, John McCarty, Charles Klump, Mason, H. G. Newcomb, Wm. Miss Vena Will's Receives her Pension.

It pays to be persistent in whatever one undertakes in life, specially when you have right and justice on your side. Thus Mrs. Vena Will, who commenced where her deceased husband left off, and has done all she possibly could, in order to come into possessions of that which justly belonged to her and her little ones. We are truly glad for Mrs. Will, as she is now enabled to get herself a home in her declining years, and we know of no one who has worked harder nor suffered greater privations, to attain it. True Mrs. Will has at times felt somewhat discouraged and almost tempted to give up the struggle for her pension, as one by one grew tired of writing seemingly useless letters to the pension department for her, but the old proverb which says "all things cometh to him who waits" seems to be verified in her case. We rejoice with Mrs. Will, in her good luck.
