We learn in a round about way that attorney A. G. Fisher, of Chadron, has commenced an action at law in county Court, against H. H. Russell of Andrews, for attorney fees as counsel for the defence in the case of State of Nebraska vs. Charles Russell, for murder.

A special meeting of the town board was called last Saturday morning for the purpose of appointing a board of health, whose duty it shall be to look after all cases of contagious diseases that may find its way within the corporate limits of the village, in the future, which we believe to be a wise and sensible move just at this time, as there are at present a number of small pox cases within the borders of our county, hence, the necessity of a board of health to combat against the disease gaining a foothold in our town, and vicinity. The following gentlemen were appointed to compose the board of health in the future: Dr. J. E. Phinney, Grant Guthrie and J. E. Marsteller.

Dr. Phinney, went down to the valley Sunday to ascertain if Ed. Rose and his family were really down with the smallpox, as had been reported in town the day before by parties from the valley. He reported Mr. Rose, his wife and little child were all three afflicted with the disease, although they were not bedfast. He learned that quite a number had been exposed, yet no one else had come down with the disease, Mr. Rose and his family are at present stopping with his father-in-law, William Miller, who had, soon as he learned the nature of the disease, taken all the precautions possible to prevent the spread of the disease. Thus, we believe that the dreaded disease will be confined to its present locality. So far there has not been a single case of smallpox in Harrison and we believe there will not be.

A Timely Warning. The following letter will explain itself. Crawford Neb: March 11th 1901. Dr. Phinney, Harrison Neb.

Dear Sir: The smallpox is pretty bad and it seems to me that Sioux county should take some steps to quarantine and stay its progress. A man by the name of storm died there this morning from the disease and if some means is not adopted it is likely to spread and other deaths occur.

Being well acquainted with you I thought best to write to you the situation and you can present it to the authorities. Kindly, O. A. HARRISON, M. D.

OBITUARY. DIED—At the home of its parents, the eight-month-old babe of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hall, in Bodarc precinct, Friday night Feb. 8, 1901, of inflammation of the brain. The remains of the little one was laid away in the Bodarc cemetery on Sunday.

OBITUARY. DIED—At the family residence, about 8 miles north-west of Harrison, on Thursday, March 7th, 1901, of tuberculosis of the lungs, Fred J. Witt, aged 47 years. The funeral services were conducted for the immediate family at the late home of the deceased, at 10 o'clock, Saturday morning, after which the sad cortege wended its way towards the M. E. Church, in Harrison, where the funeral sermon was preached to a crowded church the beautiful and soul inspiring hymns "Rock of ages cleft for me" "Nearer my God to thee" and "We shall rest at ease" were sung. The sermon over, all present nearly all of whom had known the deceased in life and held him in the highest esteem, wished to take a last look at the loved features, after which the sad procession took up its mournful route, this time towards the silent city of the dead, where the remains of the beloved husband and father were laid to rest beside those of the loved wife and mother, who had preceded him only by one short year. Mr. Witt was a member of the Lutheran faith, and a man who was respected by all who knew him, as well as a true christian, who bore with fortitude and patience the cross which the "Master" had placed upon him, first in the loss of his wife and later in his own great suffering. He leaves 8 children to the special providence of "Him who has promised to be a father to the fatherless, and we earnestly pray that the same one who tempers the wind to the shorn lamb may be equally tender in dealing with these double orphans. Mr. Witt, was conscious that death was near and seemingly was ready. May the little ones who are left alone, be guided by the unseen spirit of their parents in the way of virtue, which will lead them towards their true home where they will find father and mother awaiting them on the shores of a blessed eternity.

Card Of Thanks. To the many friends neighbors, who so kindly assisted us during the sickness, death and burial of our beloved father, we wish to return our sincere thanks. FRED WITT AND THE OTHER CHILDREN.

A Mr. Milburn from Lusk was on the Ridge looking for straw or hay, the first of the week. It seems that feed is a scarce article now.

And so it is grandpa and grandma Wohlhuter. Yes Gens, we'll take a cigar.

To sister Clio and M. A. C., we accept with thanks their pity for our run down condition and hope that when they next see our picture we will look as robust as Mr. McGinley.

Ed. Hollingsworth called at the residence of ye scribe, the first of last week. On last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Christian, received a large floral cross dedicated to their dear daughter Dora. It was sent by the Theophanian society at University place Nebraska, and showed the true love and high esteem in which she was held by them, it was the last sad gift of a fraternal society to one of its loved members.

We understand that James Rice has purchased a saw mill and will move into the canyon soon. ZEKIEL.

Prof. Ivison, of Lonsconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says: "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat.—J. E. PHINNEY.

Bleatings From Sheep Creek.

T. B. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Bert, Nicholls and Will Hovey were Torrington visitors on the 5th.

Henry Rose and Family are nearly over the smallpox and as no one else have the disease it is hoped that it will not spread any further.

Dick Hovey is now able to be around a little the he is still very weak. A young snow storm visited us 4th & 5th.

Will Hovey made a trip to Rawhide on the 3rd returning the fourth.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Khanast of Rawhide is very sick. Dr. Sawyer of Torrington was called on the 4th her three daughters of Ft. Laramie were summoned to her bedside and are glad to see her somewhat better.

We learn indirectly that the daughters of Mr. Brundige did not go to Marsland as was stated last week.

Charlie Smith says whoever writes the items from Sheep Creek "know to much."

Charlie Newman, is U. S. Mail carrier during Mr. Rose's illness.

We must have undoubtedly made a mistake in regard to "Mr. Grewell and the coyotes" it should have been slaying "coyotes" instead of staying with them we beg his pardon.

Mrs. Hovey has been troubled with the toothache for some time past.

As we are so near the Wyoming line we may possibly get a few "Wye" items mixed up in these but sheep creek is in both states so it is all the same.

We are glad that the ground hogs stay will only be eleven days more then we hope he will come out to stay for good.

Will Hovey will work for the 10 bar again this summer.

We also understand that Dave Rose and Jim Sherman will be a 10 bar rancher the coming summer.
