Did you wear the green on last Sunday? If not why not?

Village election, will occur one week from next Tuesday or April 2nd. Its Calf, Cough, and Cough, everywhere, you go, lately on the street, or indoor.

That was quite a wind storm Sunday night, it blew the smoke stack off the PRESS-JOURNAL office.

Be sure you read Ed. Mason's stock brand, which will appear for the first time in this issue of the JOURNAL.

The county commissioners have been in our midst this week, attending to county business. Also the county assessors.

A deal was consummated, on last Thursday, whereby F. B. Langworthy, has become the owner of a valuable piece of land near Andrews.

William Harvey has been awarded the contract for building the bridge across Munroe Creek, by the Board of County Commissioners.

We most respectfully ask our readers to notice Mrs. Gilberts, dressmaking card which will appear for the first time in this issue of the PRESS-JOURNAL.

St. Patrick's day Sunday in Harrison, did not show a very great display of green shamrock. The Irish must be thinning out, or they have forgotten their patron saint.

We are reliably informed that H. B. Earnest has purchased the residence just recently erected by his brother-in-law Jerry Will. The latter expects to go south to find a new location.

M. J. Carroll, of the valley, who just recently returned from Broken Bow Neb., where he has been employed for some time, left last week for Morecroft, Wyo., where he expects to be employed during the season.

A Kansas weekly paper states among its local items: "Mrs. Jones called this morning and laid a dozen eggs on our table." There is no telling what a Kansas woman wouldn't do when she is in the right humor.

R. B. Lucas, of Douglas, Wyo., foreman for John Williams sheep outfit came down on the Saturday evening train and remained over until Monday noon, and while here he purchased the big black team of A. McGinley, also Eggert Rohwer's big grays and a saddle horse of H. B. Earnest.

Last Sunday's World-Herald contained a birds-eye view of Hon. Charley Coffey's Sioux County cattle ranch on Hat Creek 12 miles north of Harrison. We have lived in this county four years and that is the first opportunity we have had to see the great stockmans ranch which is the finest stock farm we have ever seen on paper.

John Hickey, accompanied by three of his children, went to his former home near Gretna, Sarpy county, Neb., recently where he held a sale of his surplus effects, and leaving his children to attend school, he assisted his brother-in-law Geo. Jones, and family to emigrate to this country to assist him with his ranch work.—Crawford Bulletin.

The first piece of interesting news that engaged our attention for publication this week, was the juvenile surprise party on Mr. and Mrs. A. McGinley, on Saturday evening. It was reported a good time and lots of candy was had, and that Mack was the biggest boy in the crowd.

Following are the names of those who attended the surprise entertainment and took part in the exercises which had been previously arranged for the occasion and which were concluded at 9 o'clock:

- Frank Phinney had sister Pearl, Wanda and Beulah Marsteller, Pauline and Marjorie Valden, Fred and Marion Glavin, Geo. Hanson, J. Henry Hollingsworth, Edward Williams, Gus Sutton, Edward Hump, Anne Gustaf. The following named gentlemen have been drawn to serve as jurors, at the spring term of District court which will convene here on the 29th of April, 1901.

Mass will be celebrated at the court house in Harrison, on April 11th at 10:30.—Lewis Gerlach, and Frank Nutto, were at Chadron a couple of days this week, as witnesses in the John Tidd case.—On last Saturday Michael Bruck, disposed of his Sioux county claim to Robert Keel of Warbonnet.—Mrs. Bert Earnest, of Harrison, Neb., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Earnest in the city during her husband's absence east.—Chadron Journal.

When you are bilious, use those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers to cleanse the liver and bowels.—They never gripe.—J. E. PHINNEY.

Among those who have added their names to our list of subscribers since our last issue, the following appear, Mrs. Gilbert, Mr. Mader, Mr. Callers, and James Nelson.

F. B. Langworthy, closed a deal with H. B. Lorrimer, for his home place one of the most valuable pieces of land on White river, whereby Mr. L. becomes its owner, the consideration being $1,000.

M. C. Doane, of Burns, Col. writes to renew his allegiance, to the PRESS-JOURNAL: Mr. Doane was formerly a citizen of our county, and the father of Mrs. Clarence Hollingsworth of this place.

Low Gerlach, who has been at Chadron couple of days this week attending court informed us that judge J. J. Harrington would be the presiding judge for the April term of court for Sioux county this spring.

We learn through Nels. Rosenburg, while here from Adelia, Tuesday, that M. D. Jordan of that place was summoned to appear in court at Chadron, Monday of this week, as a witness in the case of state of Nebraska vs. J. W. Tidd.

The lingering cough following grippe calls for One Minute Cough Cure. For all throat and lung troubles this is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Prevents consumption.—J. E. PHINNEY.

The many friends of Robert Harrison of Adelia, will be pleased to hear of his improvement in health, we are informed that he is in a fair way to ultimate recovery. Mr. Harrison, numbers his friends by legion, and they will be glad to hear this news.

Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by J. E. PHINNEY.

We learned that there was somewhat of a determination on the part of some of the assessors at the assessors meeting to lower the valuation on land James Nelson of Sugar Leaf precinct working hard for the reduction, also for making the valuation on fences on government land at $20 per mile, which was finally agreed to, the same becoming a part of the minutes.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles.—J. E. PHINNEY.

James Nelson, Nels Rosenburg, and Albert Lindberg were over from Adelia Tuesday, the former assessor for Sugar Leaf precinct was attending the assessors meeting which convened at the court house Tuesday afternoon, the two latter gentlemen were looking after some private business affairs, while here they made a pleasant call at our office. Mr. Nelson leaving a cart wheel on our desk for the PRESS-JOURNAL to be sent to his address one year.

Mrs. C. E. VanDeusen, of Kilbourn, Wis., was afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation for a long time. She says, "I have tried many preparations but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have. For sale at PHINNEY'S drug store. Price, 25 cents. Samples free.

We understand that Lee Dickinson, who lives in the south end of the county has disposed of his ranch and stock and expects to leave for Cass City Mich., about the first of next month. We are sorry to see Lee go, but we must also acknowledge the fact that Sioux county's loss, will be Cass City's gain, as Lee is a highly respected citizen of our county.

Harry E. Brown, of little Cottonwood, was in town this week and informed us that he expected to leave this part of the country next week. He expects to locate at Exeter, this state, while we regret exceedingly, to see so many of our good citizens leave our community, yet, if they are going to better themselves we wish them a hearty God speed, and recommend them to the kindness and hospitality of their new neighbors.

The following named gentlemen have been drawn to serve as jurors, at the spring term of District court which will convene here on the 29th of April, 1901. J. J. Henry, L. L. Wilson, Tom Dredge, P. Bierack, Wm. Martin, Wm. Bretty, J. F. Bourret, John Maycock, John Anderson, E. Sowers, P. E. Engelow, Ida. Blatterly, J. B. Johnson, Geo. Cant, A. Nicholson, J. B. Parker, Sam Swinbank, J. Duckmann, John Lacy, C. Grove, Henry Covey, Dave Bartlett, D. Hoan, Aug. L. Hagg.

For lack of space we are obliged to lay over our Wyoming news items.—The Ladies Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Marsteller, to sew for Mrs. Langworthy. Wed. afternoon March 27th.

OBITUARY.

DIED—March 5th, 1901, Dora, eldest child of Andrew and Catherine A. Christian. A very appropriate funeral sermon was preached by Rev. W. R. Warren from 17th psalm 13th verse.

The deceased was born in Madison county, Iowa, Dec. 29th, 1878. In the fall of 1889, she, with the rest of the family moved to Converse county, Wyo., where she grew to womanhood.

While here she united with the Methodist Episcopal church, the teachings from which she never erred, but cherished them high above the most glittering gems of earthly gain. High ambition, and a strong desire for an education, led her to the Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Here she attended two years and two months, and would have graduated in a short time had not death's silent messenger called her to eternal rest. Dora was not only a beloved sister, but acted the part of an all-wise mother over five younger children after their mother's death which occurred Dec. 18th, 1893.

The sweet disposition, and lovely character of Dora, won the admiration of all who knew her. She was the ideal of her pupils. Among them she moved with untold affection, to teach the lesson of love and friendship.

Her death is mourned not only by the heart stricken family, but by her many friends.

A large procession followed her to the grave to pay their last respects on this side of the great river which separates us from eternity.

She's gone, her spirit has flown, To yonder heights above; And left behind to us on earth, The words of faith and love.

May we in her footsteps walk, The road which she hath trod; Which leads to that celestial hope, Where we can meet our God. "J. H. N."

Night was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long, writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption and had that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." Its absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at J. E. PHINNEY'S drug store.
