We learn indirectly, that a May party and dance will be given at the Jordan home; as the house parties given by this estimable family have been second to none, we predict a most pleasant evening for all.

Attorney Guthrie, has his pasture, all fenced and we presume in a few days have his cow there, and from now on will enjoy the luxury of his own cow's milk.

Statistics of the number of divorces in the United States, and all other countries, show that this land of christian civilization leads all others; the difference being, United States 23,473, all other countries combined 20,111, thus it will be seen that the people of this great nation of ours prize the institution of marriage, which is the great foundation stone of society less and less as the years roll by.

NOTICE. Parties having mares to breed would do well to see my horse, and some of my other breeding elsewhere. E. L. KENT.

Go to Phinney's for wall paper. Mr. Palmer, Gurnsey's, popular young merchant, was a guest of Miss Claudia Hester, over the sabbath. W. R. Smith, who sustained somewhat painful injuries last week, by falling in the house, is able to be up and out though still somewhat lame. Oscar Ward, has obtained a position in the coal shed at Lusk, and left for his new field of labor the first of this week. For the present at least his family will remain here.

The green, grass all over the hills and valleys is beginning to show up nicely and we opine that in ten days or two weeks, cattle and horses will be able to get a pretty good bite of grass. The public sale, which Dan Slattery held at his place on last Thursday, was well attended and everything brought good prices, and altogether Mr. Slattery feels well satisfied with the results. Owing to a necessary change Mass will be celebrated at the Court House, in Harrison, on Tuesday, April 30th 1901, at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. Father McNamara Pastor. A full attendance is desired.

You cannot enjoy perfect health, rosy cheeks and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the whole system. They never gripe. J. E. PHINNEY. We have before us a copy of our former home paper. The Alpena Journal, under its new management. While we are not personally acquainted with its editor, Mr. Dye, yet in perusing the pages of the Journal we find the brainy young quill pusher, to be an up to date all-round writer and we predict for the Journal under him success. Shake it.

Mr. John Beiser, and family arrived from Odobolt, Ia., on last Friday and are now comfortably domiciled in their own cow home, formerly owned by Mr. H. Warneka. Mr. Beiser expects to take up some line of business here. We extend to the gentleman and his family the right hand of fellowship, as we have plenty of room for good citizens, in fact we need them.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism. QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

All who use Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism are delighted with the quick relief from pain which it affords. When speaking of this Mr. D. N. Sinks, of Troy, Ohio, says: "Some time ago I had a severe attack of rheumatism in my arm and shoulder, I tried numerous remedies but got no relief until I was recommended by Messrs. Geo. F. Parsons & Co., druggists of this place, to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. They recommended it so highly that I bought a bottle. I was soon relieved of all pain. I have since recommended this liniment to many of my friends, who agree with me that it is the best remedy for muscular rheumatism in the market." For sale by J. E. PHINNEY.

Keep the Mother young and Happy.

"This charming power to throw away for the moment the conditions which keep us from fun ought not to belong exclusively to babies," writes Helen C. Candeo, in May Ladies Home Journal. "We took outrageous liberties with mothers sweet face when we lay cooling in her arms, she was the happiest of women in consequence. Is it not a pity that through our years of training we should forget the trick of playing with her by the time we are grown? No girl I am sure could misinterpret me into meaning that we are to turn sober considerations into foolish ridicule. What I really mean is that many matters would be improved if a sense of humor shed its light upon them and this can best be accomplished by girls."

ANY LADY can get a valuable receipt and see my horse, and a number of other things. Mrs. V. M. APP, CO., 102 FIFTH STREET, ST. LOUIS, MO.

These famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular.—J. E. PHINNEY.

Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy.—Mr. T. K. Houseman, Mantawney, Pa.—J. E. PHINNEY.

We can still give the PRESS-JOURNAL and the Commoner for $1.75. The Commoner and the PRESS-JOURNAL stand for the peoples interests and the readers in Sioux County cannot afford to be without these two champions of the people's rights. The PRESS-JOURNAL alone is worth the price asked for both. Every body in Sioux county should read BOTH papers.

Caught a Dreadful Cold. Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1638 Milwaukee Avenue Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather, I took a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by J. E. PHINNEY.
