G. A. R. Memorial Services.

At the regular meeting of the G. A. R. post on last Monday, it was decided to hold memorial services on Sunday, May 26th at the church, but on decoration day Thursday, May 30th, we will march in a body from the church, at 10 o'clock in the morning, to the cemetery where we will decorate the graves of our own beloved comrades first; and after that we will stroll with flowers, the graves of the unknown dead, and now we respectfully call the attention of all our people, old and young alike, who have received the priceless gift of liberty, at the sacrifice of the lives of so many of our old veterans and at the expense of the health of them all, to arouse themselves and hearken to the cordial invitation of the old veterans. We most earnestly invite the ladies to take upon themselves the decoration of the church and make it a tower of beauty, and love, which will tend to gladden the hearts of our few unfallen heroes. Who can tell whether or not we too may not, ere another decoration day, have gone to join the truly Grand Army beyond. Again the post, invites the little ones to gather flowers, wherewith to decorate our beloved soldier's graves, and the children we feel will take a pride in strewing with their little hands the well earned resting places of those dear ones, who died, that others might live and enjoy liberty and freedom. To our teachers, in the Sabbath school and day schools, we feel that we have a special privilege with them, hence we ask them in all sincerity to enlist their services for decoration day in the glorious cause of the old soldiers, with patriotism and love for the fallen and the brave. Will you not with your pupils march with us to the silent city where lies our fallen heroes, and bring flowers wherewith to cover their houses of clay, and thereby show your gratitude for the freedom you now enjoy at the price of their blood.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

A visit to the commercial bank of Harrison, will convince even the most incredulous, of the sound judgement and thorough business with which its immediate manager, and efficient cashier E. W. Clarke, is employed. During the past week, he has had the interior completely remodeled, throwing the private business room formerly on the south side, into the banking room proper, thus giving our town as neat and commodious a banking house as any city in the North-West can boast of. Mr. Clarke has been here about a year, but during that period, he has won the esteem and confidence as well as the utmost respect of our people, by his courteous and obliging manner, coupled with his strict business ability.

The two dentists, who came up from Crawford, this week did not find Harrison, a very profitable field; so they decided to move on to Lusk, where perhaps they might find some one desiring good teeth, or bad teeth, or no teeth at all, tried to convince us before leaving, of their wonderful agility of foot, much to the amusement of those who witnessed it, the knights of the forces could run fairly well, yet they found the man of iron could do better, consequently they dived down deep into their pockets, and had our good natured liverman, John Leickmann drive them to Lusk.

Bodarc Cleanings.

In answer to repeated inquiries as to our absence we must lay all the blame on the smallpox scare which in its way caused as great a panic, as did the Indian scare of 1890, with this difference in the latter case, the people fled from their homes while in the former they kept so close to their homes that they have not been able to leave them, yet there is no further cause for alarm.

We are pleased to announce the arrival of a new boy at the home of J. B. Bradley.

Jo. Dougherty who has been working at the S-E Ranch, is now in the employ of J. L. Anderson at C. F. Coffee's Ranch on Hat Creek.

Everyone is hustling to get in their crop notwithstanding the failures of past years.

Ed. Rose and Eli Zimmerman, took passage on the train at Ardmore, last Friday for Sheridan, where they expect to work this summer.

Robert Miller, who came from Sheridan, Wyo., last week to spend a few days at his home in the valley returned last Saturday in charge of his father's cattle which were shipped from Ardmore to Sheridan, his brother Will accompanying him.

We very much thank Z. Kiel and Clio for their kind interest, we did not expect to be missed, we hope however nothing more may happen to prevent our coming often. M. A. C.

Recognized at Washington.

The only instance on record of a post office being named after a patent medicine, was last year, when in Wetzel County, W. Va. a new post office was established and named Kodol, after the famous Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, by E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago. It had given such satisfactory results that the name was unanimously selected by the people for the new office and adopted by the department at Washington, D. C. This action was entirely voluntary on the part of the people of the community without any solicitation whatever from the manufacturers of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In fact the first knowledge they obtained regarding the matter was when they received a letter bearing the post mark "Kodol, W. Va." and the contents fully explained the circumstances. For a verification of this statement the reader is referred to the latest Post office Guide.

A preparation so highly prized by a community must be worthy of the greatest confidence.

Now Sister Clio, don't censure us too severe, because of the Kip Van Winkle nap. It did seem to us a month since you had written. Come over and see our boy.

A letter from Mrs. Jordan informs us that she is grandmother to an eight pound boy, born to Dan Jordan and wife on May 3, at the residence of grandma Jordan. The mother is doing nicely, but Dan wears his hat over his left ear and seems absent minded but time will make all things right. Now Dan, don't take a wire fence; I what we say, as you know how it is myself.

At the annual school meeting held the 6th C. L. Christian was elected treasurer the trustees were instructed to put in a cistern at the east school house. Wages for teachers, were kept up to $40 per month, and 16 months of school was decided upon for the year.

Francis Deuel is working for Chris Christian this week.

Miss Amy Christian, will begin in a three months school in the west school house next Monday.

Z. G. Deuel, James Deuel and William Murphy, went to Gering some two weeks ago to look at the country and perhaps buy a few head of cattle. They have not returned at this writing.

Quarterly meeting will be held in the west school house next Saturday and Sunday.

George Davis, has sold the improvements on the Streeter place, which he bought one year ago, and will look for a new location. He bought a pack horse of F. D. Deuel to use in seeking a new location.

Miss Hattie O'Connor has put in one week of school and is well pleased with the school. The children all like the teacher and no doubt it will be a profitable term.

Andrew and Chris Christian were overnight visitors in Lusk on last Saturday. Chris made a trip to Manville on Saturday train.

Mr. Church branded his cattle on last Saturday.

We agree with sister Clio that the PRESS-JOURNAL is the newest paper in the corner of the three states. Now Mr. editor we advise you to stay by our town and not sell the paper, as it is a success as a country newspaper.

Lansy Tutton was out to his home-stand a few days ago.

ZERIEL.

Shudders at his post.

"I recall now with horror," says mail carrier Burnett Mann, of Levan, O., "my three years of suffering from Kidney trouble, I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, but six bottles completely cured me and made me feel like a new man. They're unrivaled to regulate Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and bowels. Perfect Satisfaction guaranteed by J. E. PHINNEY, only 50 cents."

"Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered," so writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich.—J. E. PHINNEY.

There are camps forever silent, for no drums within their beat, And the bugles of the battle blow no "Charge!" and no "Retreat!" But upon heroic bosoms falls the accent of bloom of May. And a grateful Nation kneeleth on her own Memorial Day.

"I have been suffering from Dyspepsia for the past twenty years and have been unable after trying all preparations and physicians to get any relief. After taking one bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia cure I found relief and am now in better health than I have been for twenty years. I can not praise Kodol Dyspepsia cure too highly," thus writes Mrs. C.
