OFFICIAL PAPER OF SIOUX COUNTY.
 1 Dollar Per Year.

The Republican Press continues to keep the Hill boom in motion.

Colorado is a women suffragist state too. Perhaps they want them to vote as they drink.

The agitation over the question whether women should or should not enter saloons in Colorado opens up a new field for women suffragists.

A Protest
 Editor Press-Journal, Harrison, Nebr., Dear Sir: I would like to make a few remarks in regard to a part of the work done by our last assessors. While I know of no protests being entered and no very hard kicking being done, I do not know that the sheep men of this country have done some pretty hard thinking. While we would hate to charge anybody of purposely discriminating against us, it is at least evident that our late assessors were not sheep men, and I do not think the average citizen, judging them by their books, would call them cattle men. They tell us that the ordinary cow can be bought with the value of six or seven sheep, that a first class bull is worth but $20, while a first class ram is worth $50. A third class bull $6, while a third class ram goes into their books at $10. More, the fact is you can buy any amount of sheep at $3. per head but will your neighbor sell you his cows at $18? South Omaha tells us that we ship them the best grass cattle that come into the yards. Would they believe you if you told them that the cow men headed their herds with six hundred cent bulls (nearly all bulls and rams go into the assessors' books as third class animals). Suppose you gather up a load of these $6. bulls and ship them to Omaha, I think any cattle man will tell you they will bring you from $20 to $25. per head after the freight and other expenses are paid. Now go with a load of these $10. rams and you receive a draft for rom $2. to $4. per head. Now has not some one erred in judgement and have not sheepmen a right to ask that the assessors books for another year make a little different showing. I do not know how stock is listed in other counties in the state except that in Scotts Bluff Co. sheep this year were valued at $2.70 per head rams included.

For The Younger Catholics.
 Cleveland, O., July 23.—A rejuvenating of the work among the younger element of the Catholic Church was launched from this city last week by Bishop Horstman.
 In brief it is supposed to adopt the Young Men Christian Association system of education. Every feature of Y. M. C. A. work will be followed. One object of the new organization will be the elimination of foreign traits and languages and a more rapid naturalization through contract with native Catholic young men of the United States. Although the plan has not reached the formative stage, it is proposed that the management of the order shall be as far as possible from the church. Ecclesiastical authority will be strictly drawn and the priesthood will have no more than an ex officio hold of the new organization. Bishop Horstman will make the plan public at Bridgeport, Conn., next September.
 It is believed the plan will receive such an impetus from the Transversin that its success will be inevitable.

Swamy Competition.
 Competition of electric tramways is alluded to in many of the half-yearly reports of English railways as affecting short-distance passenger movement.

 The Punches tribe of Indiana, which numbered 346 in 1880, is now about 400 strong. Males appropriate annually $8,000 for their benefit.
