Now that the campaign is fully on, it behooves the candidates and friends of the reformers to get to work. There is no policy which could be pursued at all times in the political arena which is more fatal than inactivity. The time is now ripe for action and as the old axiom, "A thing comes to him who waits," has no place in politics, it is well for the workers on this ticket to take off their coats and go to work harvesting their crop of votes. It won't harvest itself and no one else can do it for you, although you ought to get your friends to work. You are the ones with whom the question of defeat or triumph rests and if it means success, as it undoubtedly will if you work, you must go to work. You can lie idle and get any reward.

The asylum at Norfolk was burned to the ground Monday night. The loss covers $350,000 and not a cent of insurance. It begins to look as if the Republicans would have to release Bartley again if they make up in even a small measure what their administration has destroyed for the state. There will be a rich harvest for the contractors.

Is there a more engaging exhibit of narrow partisan politics on record than the reply of the chairman of the Republican state central committee to the chairman of the Democratic central committee in regard to calling off the campaign in Ohio.

Antique Furniture of Value.
In 1868 a piece of antique furniture was sold by a gardener of Geneva Switzerland, to an antiquarian for under $11, with the reservation that if it was sold for a higher price the original owner should receive a portion of the same. It was recently sold to the Swiss Historical museum for $12,500, and now the heirs of the original owner are claiming a share of the above sum. The furniture is a unique specimen of the Bernois art of the sixteenth century.

"How Strange Ladies Do Act."
Mr. Stuyvesant Fish, a short time ago, Incognito, did a slight act of charity for a poor ignorant woman, who, on meeting Mrs. Fish the second time, bluntly asked her name. Mrs. Fish told her, whereupon the woman opened her eyes wide in astonishment and exclaimed: "What, Mrs. Fish, the lady!" "I hope so," replied Mrs. Fish with a smile. "Dear me," said the perplexed woman, whose lot in life had made her sadly pessimistic, "how strange some ladies do act nowadays!"—New York Times.

Costly Cherry Pie.
Cherry pie was the cause of the capture of two house breakers at Hutchinson, Kan., a few days ago. This broke into Mr. King's house. Mr. King was up stairs and managed to get to telephone without alarming the burglars, and called the police, who came in a few minutes. The burglars were about to leave, but saw a cherry pie on the table and loitered to eat and the police caught them. The penitentiary will be the price of the pie.

Geo. W. Lane, Pawnee, Mich., writes: "Your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the best remedy for indigestion and stomach trouble that I ever used. For years suffered from dyspepsia, at times compelling me to stay in bed and causing me untold agony. I am completely cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. In recommending it to friends who suffer from indigestion I always offer to pay for it in full. Thus far I have never paid." J. E. Phinney.

A WELL-GUARDED FIREHOUSE.

Sliding Pole Openings and All Protected Against Ho-quoties and Fires.
A New Yorker who chanced upon the house of Truck 6 of the Jersey City fire department in Wayne street, Jersey City, found there something that he had never seen in a fire-house before, namely, a completely wire-screened bunkroom, every opening including not only the windows and doors, but the openings around the sliding poles as well, being perfectly guarded. The screening of the windows and doors is done in the usual manner. As to the sliding pole openings there are placed in them screens set horizontally, dividing in the middle around the pole and opening downward on spring hinges. These screens open readily under the fireman's weight and close up instantly after him when he has passed. The purpose of the screens here was to keep out mosquitoes, of which, as is more or less commonly known, there are now and then to be found one or two in Jersey; but they serve also with equal effectiveness to keep out flies, of which there was not a single one to be seen in the whole, big bunkroom on the occasion of this visit. It might incidentally be mentioned that the company in whose house these screens were seen is the highest-numbered truck company in the Jersey City fire department; that its truck is of the latest model with every sort of up-to-date equipment, including a 75-foot extension ladder and that it is drawn by a team of three big horses driven abreast, all quite in the metropolitan fashion, and finally that Capt. Coleman and the men of his company are as stalwart looking a lot of firemen as anybody could wish to see.—New York Sun.

THE DEUTSCHLAND'S LARDER.

List of the Provisions Carried for a Trip Over Ocean.
For the lover of statistics for their own sake, and incidentally for the man who likes to eat well, the list of the contents of an ocean liner's larder is attractive reading. Here for instance is about the average supply aboard the Deutschland at the beginning of every voyage between this port and Hamburg, and, of course all the other big ships are provisioned in about the same way. In the first place there is forty tons of ice to keep things eatable and drinkable, and these are the things that were on the ice on a recent trip across: fourteen beefs, ten calves, twenty-nine sheep, twenty-four lambs, nine hogs, 1,500 chickens, geese and game birds, 1,700 pounds of fish, 400 pounds of tongue and sweetbreads, 1,700 dozen of eggs, fourteen barrels of oysters and clams, 175 barrels of potatoes, seventy-five barrels of other vegetables, twenty crates of tomatoes, and celery, 200 heads of lettuce, ninety barrels of flour, 600 pounds of oatmeal and hominy, 1,300 pounds of butter, 2,200 quarts of milk, 300 quarts of cream, 1,000 big molds of ice cream, four tons of fruit, 12,000 quarts of wine and liquor, 15,000 quarts of beer and 400 tons of drinking water. Of course all of this is not used on each trip, but enough is carried to provide liberal margin.—New York Sun.

Wants Women as Jurors.
A French deputy has announced his intention of bringing in a bill in Parliament making it not only admissible but legally obligatory for women to sit as jurors. He proposes that all juries shall be required to consist of six good men and true and six women similarly qualified.

President Loubet Distinks Ceremony.
President Loubet, of France, is driving his master of ceremonies to despair. It is said, as he will have no ceremony at all and will not even permit visitors to be presented to him by the usual form of announcement.

Newspaper Woman's Appointment.
Miss Ida May Jackson of Milwaukee was recently appointed, under the new law of Wisconsin, woman factory inspector, and will be the first woman in the state to take up official work of this kind. Her grandfather was an editor, and she has been doing newspaper work for a dozen years past.

Don't be satisfied with temporary relief from indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure permanently relieves and cures. It relieves permanently because it allows the stomach perfect rest. Dieting won't do the stomach. Nature receives supplies from the food we eat. The sensible way to help the stomach is to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which digests what you eat and can't help but do you good.—J. E. Phinney.

F. T. Thomas, Somerville, Ala., suffering from dyspepsia when commenced taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure took several bottles and can digest anything. "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only preparation containing all the natural digestive fluids. It gives weak stomachs entire rest, restoring their natural condition."—J. E. Phinney.

Henry Brayton, Harris, N. C., says: "I took medicine 20 years for asthma and one bottle of One Minute Cough Cure did me more good than anything else during that time. Best Cough Cure." J. E. Phinney.

Many physicians are now prescribing Kodol Dyspepsia Cure regularly, having found that it is the best prescription they can write, because it is the one preparation which contains the elements necessary to digest not only some kinds of food but all kinds; and it therefore cures indigestion and dyspepsia, no matter what the cause. J. E. Phinney.
