THAT STREET CAR CONVERSATION.

Fragmentary reports of a recent conversation to which a few neighbors and myself were parties go me great injustice, seeming to rank me among sympathizers with anarchy. Nothing could be more absurd. No man lives abominates anarchy in every form more heartily than I; perhaps few have done more with arms or with pen to repress anarchy. I myself have kept nothing back, but as parts of the conversation referred to might be thought to compromise the other parties I will not detail it without permission. Suffice it to say that all urged opposition to anarchy, I as earnestly as the rest, only our methods differ.

I respectfully request you to give this statement such publicity as you can.

E. BENJ. ANDERSON, Chairman.

Rebels of a Famous Cave.
Every reader of history will recall the story of the cave constructed by Dionysius, tyrant of Syracuse, as a prison, which was ingeniously shaped like the human ear so that even the whispers of the prisoners might be heard. A traveler who visited the cave tells a wonderful story of some experiments in acoustics that he made there. For example standing at the entrance, he struck the side of a sheet of letter paper lightly with his finger three times, when there came from within the great ear three heavy blows, as loud and resonant as though they had been made with a sledge hammer on the roof of a house of iron. He then rattled the sheet of paper lightly and that feeble sound was increased a millionfold, reverberating through the cave like the roar and crash of thunder. When he spoke or whistled every note was repeated as if a thousand stenographers were inside and calling to him.

Commissioner Convention.

As there seems to be no committee appointed by the third commissioner's district the chairman of the county election commission takes the liberty of calling a county convention to be held at Harrison, Nebraska, on Wednesday, October 2nd, for the purpose of putting in nomination the commissioner for the third district. It is recommended that the caucus be held Wednesday, October 2nd. The apportionment for this convention is the same as for the county convention and entitles the precincts to representation as follows:

- Bowen, 4
  - Runningwater, 2
  - Sheep Creek, 2
  - Wassie Creek, 2
  - Snake Creek, 2
- Geo. A. PHIPPS, Chairman.
J. E. MARSTELLER, Secretary.

Precinct Call.

There will be held on the evening of October 12, 1901, at the late residence of A. Bruck, a primary of the People's Independent Party for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several precinct offices:

- Two Justices of the Peace, one for one year and one for two years.
- Two Constables, one for one year and one for two years.
- One Assessor.
- One Road Overseer.

The New York World is authority for the statement that in this county is guilty of 3,199 lynchings in twenty years. Lynching is anarchy. Mob is anarchy. Then all who favor mob in sympathy with anarchy. No man who is an ardent supporter of law and order can harbor the thought of breaking law to punish a lawbreaker. Let every man advocate the principle of supreme law and there will be no more assassinations or lynchings. Let us call a halt. Look into your mirror and make a careful study of your own thoughts and if there is any anarchy there stamp it out. —Franklin S. Arnold.

What Is Nothing?

An old Scottish farmer, being elected a member of the local school board visited the school and treated the intelligence of the class by his questions. The first inquiry was: "Now boys, can any of you tell me what nothing is?" After a moment's silence a small boy in a back seat arose and replied: "It's what ye gie me tother day for haudin' yer horse!"

Egg Membrane for Skin-Grafting.

German surgeons have discovered that the delicate membrane which covers the contents of an egg will answer as well as bits of skin from a human being to start the healing of open wounds which would not otherwise heal. The discovery has already been successfully tested.

Time Required for Preparation.

An eminent Scotch divine was asked how long he would require to prepare a speech. "That depends," said he, "upon how much time I am given in its delivery. If I am asked for a quarter of an hour, I should like a week to prepare. If I am to speak for half an hour, three days will do; if I am to remain as long as I like, I am ready now."

Willing to Change It.

As was obviously anxious, and appeared almost willing. "I shall refer you to papa," said she, with a becoming blush, "before giving you a final answer." "But I am perfectly willing to take you without any references," said he, magnanimously.—Indianapolis News.
