A DISASTEROUS FIRE.

The Commercial Hotel is

A Total Loss,

On Saturday evening our little city was startled by the cry of "fire." Many thought that the commotion was caused by the children on the streets until it did not cease and then they commenced to investgate, When they stepped to the doors of their business places they saw that the Commercial hotel was ablaze. Many hurried to the scene, but the first to come saw at a glance that with the limited supply of water it was useless to attempt to save that building. A few out the tools of the workmen which had been left there. Before these were out-Ands the building an explosion which might have done credit to an eight pound gun was heard and immediately following, the smoke and flame poured from every window and door in the building .

There being no hope for the hotel building, the men on the scene set to work to save Mr. Sutton's building only a a few feet to the north. It is probable that if they had had time to think they would have procounced it impossible, but this they didn't have.
