HARRISON, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOV. 14, 1901.

NO. XX

THE LOCAL NEWS.

Omaha dentist Nov. 14th and 15th.

Mrs. Bassett, of Andrews, was in our city Monday.

Henry Dickman left Thursday night for a visit in Iowa.

Ernest Phinney was looking after his interests in Fort Robinson Sunday.

Herman Volkman returned Monday from his visit in Iowa.

Dr. Meredith, of Crawford, was in Harrison Monday transacting business.

Hones Will arrived in Harrison yesterday and will spend the winter in the city.

V. A. Hester and Wm. Harvey made a business trip to Lusk fore part of the week.

Just received: A new consignment of men and boys clothing at GERLACH'S.

H. Warneke left yesterday to join the family in Oauser. He will be gone about six weeks.

The poison which has been put out has been doing active service in lessening the number of stray dogs.

More and better goods for the same money at Gerlach's store than any other place, try them.

Mrs. Wm. Miller, of Bodarc, went to Chadron Friday night where she will visit for about a week.

Grant Guthrie arrived from Washington, D. C., yesterday where he was called by the death of his father.

The dance at Lucy's last Friday night in honor of the wedding was pronounced a decided success by those in attendance.

The Crawford Milling Company's representative was in our city last Friday in the interests of the Crawford flour.

Wm. Miller and Jas. Anderson brought in a couple of loads of hay yesterday which will be shipped to Mr. Coffey at Chadron.

G. A. Bieser shipped in a carload of horses from South Omaha last week, two of them were dead when they arrived at their destination.

Chris Ruffing of West Hat Creek was in town Monday with Mr. Tipton's cattle. We acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr. Ruffing.

The Commercial Bank, this week received an adding machine which does the work, except pressing the button and pulling the lever.

Mrs. Allie P. McLaughlin, Supt. of the M. E. Hospital, Omaha, will speak at Harrison Sunday Nov. 17. All are cordially invited.

John Dickman spent Sunday in Crawford—visiting it is said. At least John had a very sleepy appearance Monday morning and acknowledged having a good time.

If you want an experienced city dentist to do your dental work see Dr. Withers Omaha dentist. Set of teeth $5. 17-3

Henry Wertz returned from Omaha Saturday and after spending a few days in a good town, viz: Harrison, went to Douglas where he expects to get some work at his trade.

Dan Slattery was shaking hands with his many friends the first of the week. He arrived Monday with his mother from Washington and expects to locate in in Sioux county.

For Sale.

A desirable house and lot in Harrison. Inquire at Commercial Bank for further particulars.

We wish to acknowledge the receipt of an official map of Nebraska. Beside the map proper the sheet contains statistics of interests to the citizens of Nebraska regarding her resources, and her people. The Commissioner of labor was the donor.

Harrison was threatened by a water-famine last week. Thos. Williams' cistern was the only one remaining with water in when the needed repairs for the town windmill arrived and were put in place.

Mrs. J. H. Bieser, who went to Crawford last week, was taken worse and Friday night her husband went to Crawford to see her. She has been improving since that date and he was able to return the following day.

Fence Posts.

Carl Witt will cut and peel pine fence posts at ten cents apiece. See him at the Witt place or leave your order with L. Gerlach. 19-4

The Press Journal man this week hung two fine photographs of work done at Dr. Langson's Sanitarium. One illustrates the method of applying static electricity by the doctor's new machine and the other shows how an X Ray examination is given. One is hung in the Commercial Bank and one in the Harrison House. It is not Dr. Langson's intention to take any cases away from the resident physician but to show the people of Sioux county that it is no longer necessary to go to Omaha or Chicago for difficult operations.

Carey Items.

Election day dawned bright and clear, a full vote was polled and everything passed off quietly.

Carl M. Lax has the distinction of receiving more votes than any other candidate on the ticket.

News comes from Exeter, Neb., that Mrs. Geo. Brown is very low with typhoid fever. Mrs. Greenwood, her daughter, is in attendance at her bedside.

It is reported that the shed and hay stacks on the Geo. Jacoby place now owned by Jas. Nelson, was burned last Thursday night. It is not known how the fire originated.

A paper called the "Prevaricator" has been started in connection with our people, Chas. Grove and R. Stewart are at the helm. Judging from its name and the reputation of its editors a lively paper is predicted.

Ethel Saxton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Sexton, was bitten by a poisonous spider a week ago Sunday night. She was promptly taken to Dr. Hartwell and had results avoided.

Stock Letter.

Receipts of cattle this week very liberal, about 14000 for two days. Corned cattle are in good demand but scarce. On good choice heaves market is steady to strong but on common and part fatted stuff is weak and lower. Cows in good supply market steady on good strong others weak, canners dull. Receipts of stockers and feeders very liberal but good stock in limited supply. Under active demand market fully steady desirable fleshy feeders and best yearlings. Common and medium grades weak and lower. Western grass beef in light supply, demand active and market steady to strong.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Fifth Annual Announcement of Gordon Hospital, Chadron, Nebr.

The Gordon Hospital does not guarantee to cure incurable diseases but does guarantee to give you the best that intelligence and skill can accomplish. We can refer you to many cases treated in Omaha and various eastern hospitals that received no benefit and still we cured them. You can talk face to face with people that have spent months in eastern institutions only to return to their homes disappointed, finally coming to this hospital and got cured. These patients are not transient but old and respected citizens and nothing will please them more than to have you talk with them. It matters not how long you have suffered or how often you have been disappointed in not being cured don't lose heart but come here your first opportunity and if your case is incurable you will be so informed and if there is hope for you this is the place. Many times a person goes through life miserable and to an early grave all on account of some little thing or organ that is diseased and overlooked. The "X Ray" gives everything plain and in place of guessing that such and such an organ is in trouble we positively see that it is or is not and treat your case accordingly. It is not this better by far than the old way of only guessing that such and such organs are in trouble and then give you medicine to act on the liver perhaps, when the disease is not there but in the nerves or stomach or some other organ? The medicine in such a case only does harm.

We started out offering the public the following: "It at the end of a week you are not satisfied we will return your money and buy you a railroad ticket home."

Another thing, we have yet the first case of a patient going to another hospital and getting well after we have told them we could not cure their disease.

We refer you to any bank, business firm or minister here as to our ability and honor. If you are not acquainted with us please write to any of the names we give below and ask what our success is and how we stand as a physician in our home city:

- G. A. Eckles, Postmaster.
- B. L. Scovill, Cashier 1st National Bank.
- Robt. Hood, Mayor.
- Ed Satterlee, Ex-Mayor, Prop. Blaine Hotel.
- Judge W. W. Babcock, City Attorney.
- Prof. Phipps, Principal High School.
- Prof. Oberkotter, Principal Chadron Academy.
- W. F. Hayward, Shoe Merchant.
- M. E. Smith & Co., Dry Goods.
- Rev. Lee H. Young, Pastor Episcopal Church.
- Rev. Seaborn, P. E. M. E. Church.
- C. Dana Sayers, County Judge.
- Rev. Andrews, Pastor Cong. Church.
- J. W. Good, Gents Furnishing Goods.
- M. E. Wilson, Pres. Telephone Exchange.
- H. A. Barnett, Lumber and Coal.
- A. W. Reikman, Pres. Citizen State Bank.
- E. J. McLaughlin, Pres. Merchants Co.
- E. C. Randall, City Council.
- Benj. Pitman, Pres. City Council.
- F. H. Harmon, Supt. F. E. & M. V. R. R.
- H. F. Maika, Druggist.
- Robt. McNair Hardware.
- W. W. Snyder, Livery Stable.

The above names represent the leading men and firms in Chadron.

TAKE NOTICE.

All passenger trains coming from the east, north or west arrive in Chadron late at night or early in the morning at which time the Hospital is not open. The Blaine hotel, one block from the depot is one of the best houses in Nebraska $2.00 per day. The Elkhorn, about the same distance from depot, is run in first class manner $1.00 per day. Patients will get good treatment at either. Office hours at Hospital 9 till 11 a. m. 2 till 4 p. m.

REFUS K. LANGSON, M. D.

To condense in a paragraph the announcement of the Youth's Companion for 1902 is not easy. Not only will nearly two hundred story writers contribute to the paper, but many of the most eminent of living statesmen, jurists, men of science and of letters, scholars, sailors, soldiers and travelers, including three members of the President's Cabinet.

In a delightful series of articles on military and naval topics the Secretary of the Navy will tell "How Jack Lives," Julian Ralph, the famous war correspondent, will describe "How Men Feel in Battle," and Winston Spencer Churchill, P. M., whose daring escape from a Boer prison pen is well remembered, will describe some experience "On the Flank of the Army."

And this is but a beginning of the long list. A complete announcement will be sent to any address free. The publishers also announce that every new subscriber who sends $1.75 for the 1902 volume now will receive all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1901 free from the time of subscription; also the The Companion Calendar for 1902—all in addition to the fifty-two issues of The Companion for 1902.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION.

195 Columbus Avenue, Boston, Mass.

Stockmen in Nebraska are beginning to know how important it is to have an acquaintance with the best methods of rendering stock immune against diseases to which cattle and swine in our state are peculiarly liable. The importance of a knowledge of the anatomy and physiology of farm animals is also making itself felt. Losses amounting to thousands of dollars are frequently met with because of not having such knowledge as is mentioned above. The cost of attending the School of Agriculture, which began last Monday, is less than one hundred dollars per year. The subjects named above are thoroughly taught. Stockmen would do well to have their sons attend. Students will be admitted for two weeks after the opening day.—University News Letter.

Dr. White, of Douglas, the government wool inspector, took the west bound train from this point Friday. He had been inspecting some sheep in this vicinity.

OUR CHOCOLATE INDUSTRY.

Large Quantities Are Used in This Country Every Year.

"The American people are evidently very fond of chocolate, for there are about 12,000,000 pounds of the commodity consumed in the United States annually," said a large wholesale dealer in chocolate beans in Boston to a writer for the Star recently. "Two-thirds of the chocolate imported into this country is purchased by chocolate manufacturers in Massachusetts and the rest is distributed among the numerous candy firms in New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere. There are three principal grades of chocolate which are known in the trade as the Caracas, the French and the German. Of these three varieties the Caracas is considered the best. The color of the Caracas chocolate is a pale brown. In flavor it is much stronger than the French or German article. To test the quality of chocolate it is only necessary to put a piece of it in a pan of water and let it dissolve. The better grades will have no sediment; the others will. This is due to the fact that in the cheaper varieties the shell is ground up and used as a filler. The lighter the chocolate the better the quality. The cheaper grades are dark brown, owing to the ground-up shell. One of the largest cocoa plantations in the world is located in Nicaragua. It is owned by a French firm, whose chocolate is known all over the world. Their works at Noisel turn out about 40,000,000 pounds of chocolate a year, and their employes number 1,500. The tinfoil in which the cakes of chocolate are wrapped costs about $100,000 per annum. The possibilities of cocoa cultivation in Central America are not yet fully realized outside of France. When they are there will be a big 'boom' for lands suitable for the purpose."—Washington Star.

Perfectly Preposterous.

When the late Hon. P. H. Winston first attended court in Tyrrell county, North Carolina, after beginning to practice, he stopped on his way thither to spend the night with a brother lawyer, then in full practice, who, in reconstruction days, obtained a judgeship and the title of "Jaybird" Jones, says the New York Telegraph. To entertain his young friend, Jones on said occasion discoursed largely of law, and among other inquiries put this question to young Winston: "I have," said he, marking the lines on the floor as he proceeded, "this land case. Beginning at A and running to B, my course and poleage (distance) is all right, and the same from B to C and C to D; but in running from D to the beginning at A, my course is all right, but my poleage overruns. Now, why can't I bend out and get my poleage?" "Well," said Winston, looking intently at the diagram, "no reason at all, except this fellow out here, a miserable sinner, might say: 'Why don't you bend in and get your poleage?'" "Ah!" said Jones, in a passion, "that is preposterous, sir; perfectly preposterous!"

Finances of St. Louis.

St. Louis this year stands upon her own financial basis with reference to money to move western crops; in other words, her bankers are asking no favors of New York. The world's fair ought to witness the fact that St. Louis is the financial center of the great central west.—St. Louis Star.

POTATOES DRIED WHOLESALE.

New Industry Commenced in North Yakima, State of Washington.

Potatoes grow large and fifty to a hill in Washington and one of the varieties turned out there is the Burbank, which attains to a size three times as large as the variety in Michigan of that name. It has not paid to ship them east, paying the high railroad tariffs, and consequently they have been a drug on the market. Hereafter, however, they are to be sliced and dried, and in this condition they can be sent east, and also to the islands of the Pacific. An evaporating and preserving factory has been set up at North Yakima and for use in it the company ordered a potato peeling machine from Germany. It is said that the capacity of the machine, which is operated by steam, is three tons a day. The plant is capable of consuming six tons of raw potatoes daily and a second machine will soon be put in. The manager estimates that he will consume at least 100 tons of Yakima Burbank this season. Several women and girls are employed in the work at wages ranging from 75 cents to more than double that amount a day. They are paid by the quantity peeled, sliced or spread on trays, thus making the wages depend upon the individual exertions of the wage earners. The potatoes are peeled raw and after slicing very thin are placed in trays and cooked by steam. This removes the water, estimated at about 80 per cent of the tuber, and leaves the solids or nutriment in the slices. They then go through the drying process, which is on the principle of dry steam heat, the pipes passing through the evaporator near each row of trays. The evaporating apparatus in the North Yakima plant contains over one mile of pipes carrying the heat to the trays. A wire screen is kept over each tray during the drying to prevent dirt from settling upon the sliced potatoes.—Chicago Chronicle.

Railroad Graveyard.

What is called a railroad graveyard has been established by the New York Central at Rochester. Hundreds of cars, put out of service by wreck or condemnation, are there torn apart and destroyed. The work requires not only physical strength, but mechanical training. The man must submit to the strain of hammering, pulling rivets and untwisting, which is imposed upon him, without complaint. It requires endurance, patience, skill, strength and activity to be a railroad car undertaker.

Old-Age Pensions in Russia.

The St. Petersburg Official Messenger announces that pensions available for the families of the beneficiary after his death will henceforward be granted to all workmen in state employ. For the present the measure is only promulgated as a provisional ukase, but it is to be embodied among the permanent laws of the Russian empire. The newspapers hail the reform as one which all private capitalists employing labor on a large scale will be compelled to adopt.

To Connect Scotland and Ireland.

Scotland and Ireland may yet be connected by a tunnel. At any rate the old scheme was brought up at the engineering congress at Glasgow the other day. Such a tunnel would have to be twenty-five miles long and would cost not less than $50,000,000.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENT DEFENDANTS

To American Investment Company, a corporation, W. J. Bowden, whose true Christian name is known to plaintiff, E. S. Orms by whose true name is unknown, trustee, non-resident defendant.

You and each of you will take notice that Sarah Wisdom plaintiff filed her petition in the District Court of Sioux county on the 10th day of October 1901 against impleaded with Sarah Wisdom and Leona Wisdom heirs of Aaron O. Wisdom deceased, the object and prayer of which petition is the foreclosure of certain liens for taxes upon the south half of the northeast quarter of section twelve and the north half of the northwest quarter of section thirteen all in township thirty-two north of range fifty-three west of the 6th principal meridian in Sioux county, Nebraska, said liens being for the state, county and school district taxes levied against said land for the years 1894, 1895, 1896, 1897, 1898, 1899 and 1900, that an accounting may be had of the amount due on said tax liens, that said premises may be decreed to be sold to satisfy the amount found to be due thereon, that you and each of you may be foreclosed and forever barred of all right, title, interest or equity of redemption in and to the same and for general relief.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 25th day of November 1901. Sarah Wisdom, plaintiff.

Getting Rid of Him. It was in the North of England, and the owner of some large manufacturing works was competing for a seat in the house of commons. He was not a favorite among the several hundred of hands whom he employed, so the term "doubtful" might have been appropriately used in defining his chance of gaining their votes. Consequently, his opponent was smiling up his sleeve at the idea of a certain "walk over."

But on the result of the poll becoming known the countenance of the latter can be better imagined than described, for the employer of labor had beaten him by a majority of nearly 800. Anxious to know if there had been any bribery in the affair, he employed an agent to sift the matter out. The agent's first move was to the manufacturer's foundry works, and there the following conversation took place: Agent—How was it that you voted for your master, when you all have such a bad opinion of him? One of the workmen blurted out: "Well, yer see, mon, we voted fer 'im so as he cud put hisself away in the house. We don't want him here!"—London Tit-Bits.

Brother's Ashes. Mr. E. W. Scripps, of San Diego, Cal., of the Scripps-McRae League, newspaper publishers, says the Cincinnati Enquirer, arrived and registered at the Hotel Alms yesterday morning with his family, consisting of two sons, James G. and John P. Scripps, and daughters, Misses Dorothy and Ellen Scripps. He is also accompanied by his secretary, Mr. H. B. Clark. Mr. Scripps left San Diego some days ago with the ashes of his brother, Mr. George H. Scripps, who died at the Miramar Ranch, in California, on April 13, and whose remains were cremated in that state. Mr. E. W. Scripps will leave tomorrow evening for Rushville, Ill., with his brother's ashes, where they will be interred. A number of relatives of the late George H. Scripps will accompany Mr. E. W. Scripps to Rushville, Ill., to attend the funeral.

Presently and Instantly. Presently to merrily meant instantly, immediately, and is used in this sense in scores of places by Shakespeare and other writers of his time. It is a curious illustration of the dilatoriness of human nature that a word which once meant instantly should come to be universally considered as meaning after a time.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
