H. E. Miller was a pleasant caller at our office last week, and while here renewed his allegiance to the Press-Journal for another year, come again Mr. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hollingsworth went to Chadron last Saturday and Mrs. Hollingsworth returned Monday. Charles bought three car loads of cattle while at Chadron and shipped them to Douglas, and will drive them to his ranch.

Tuesday was a very disagreeable day while it was not cold it was hard on stock, especially those that have the scab. The wet snow was hard on the telegraph wires for Wednesday morning we were cut off both ways by the wires being down but we have no room for complaint as this has been an exceptionally fine winter on stock.

We were glad to see our old time friends C. H. Weller and E. D. Satterlee on our streets, Tuesday. This is the second time Mr. Weller has been in Harrison since he disposed of his business interests and Mr. Satterlee has made us but few visits since he moved from our midst. Come often, gentlemen, for we are always glad to see those that stood by us and helped us make the town what it is.

Didrick Nelson, formerly of Sioux County, orders the Press-JOURNAL sent to him at Moscow, Idaho. In his letter he says, he is well satisfied in Idaho. He bought 85 acres of land with improvements on it, for $1100, and he finds it a good, productive country, and thinks he will like it all right. We were sorry to lose Mr. Nelson, but we are glad to know that he has found a good country, and we wish him success.

J. H. Wilhemsdorfer has a part of the material on the ground, to build an addition onto his place of business. We understand the building is to be 14 x 20 with a 12 foot post. This will give Mr. Wilhemsdorfer more room, that he may be able to carry a larger stock of harness, saddles, and everything that is found in a first class harness shop. Mr. Wilhemsdorfer is also supplying a long needed want, that is a watch repairer, and he is willing to guarantee his work in this line and if you have any work of this kind drop in and see him, and we are sure you will be pleased with his work as well as his charges.

Last Monday, St. Patrick's day was observed by a good many of our citizens by the wearing of Shamrocks. In the evening a large crowd of our young people from different parts of the county, gathered to celebrate the day that is set apart, and commemorated to the birth of the great Irishman, that first christianized the Irish people by tripping the light fantastic until the wee small hours of the morning.

There is a legend that this day is observed for the reason of St. Patrick banishing the frogs and snakes from Ireland which this is only legendary. We are quite sure the young ladies of Harrison and vicinity will always find like commemorating this day more heartily for, the banishment of tobacco smoke from the ball-room on this special day.

The above was switched on to our dead hook, therefore did not get into the paper last week.

We notice the local merchants are beginning to drop their advertising out of many local exchanges, and the force of their work along the lines of publicity between now and the late fall will be of little consequence. Why they do this is beyond our comprehension unless it is for the purpose of helping Montgomery, Ward & Co. and the traveling grocery peddler and giving range men a better chance at the people. If this is the object, then the purpose is admirably served. The local merchant don't appear to know that it takes a long time to drive a nail when you only hit it once every three or four weeks. The other fellow can drive more spikes with a tack hammer than you can shingle nails with a sledge because he keeps hitting all the time. No fisherman expects to catch anything who keeps jerking his hook out of the water and waiting for the fish to follow it out on the bank. Bait your hook of advertising with honest goods and fair prices and drop it into the cold stream of the circulation of the local paper. Keep your bait fresh and give all new fish-time. This local paper is ready, willing, anxious to help you win against the mail order house, but nothing can be done without your co-operation.

Ernest Bunge of Mat Creek valley was a Harrison visitor last week.

James Nolan, from Eckard So. Dak. was a Harrison visitor Tuesday.

Rev. Youngman writes, that he is improving rapidly and will be home in a few days.

Frank Fleming, who was sent to the asylum, at Lincoln, from this county, died three some time ago.

Mrs. Titer who has been visiting with her relatives for the last few weeks left Wednesday evening, for her home at Hitchcock, Kansas.

Chas. Woodward who was sentenced to be hung at Casper, Wyo. March 23, got a respite of 105 days, to await the action of the supreme court.

Hon. C. F. Coffee, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Satterlee and C. H. Weller came up from Chadron, Tuesday, to attend the funeral services of Mrs. A. McGintley who died at 5 o'clock Monday morning.

Virgie Hester and E. A. Hester returned home Monday from Indian creek where they have been at work for some time building a house for James Nolan. Industrious men are never hunting work the work is hunting them, in the case with Mr. Hester and Esther, they are always busy.

Have you looked in Lee Gerlach's front window since the first day of spring? Well, we saw Lew scoubling away on those windows, and we wondered what was going to happen; we want see him but you will see the finest assortment of shoes that has ever come to Harrison, so don't fail to look in.

Happy Charlie left Saturday evening, for a trip down to the Sand Hills returning Wednesday. We understand he went gunning for ducks, but as to his success we did not learn, but we do know Mr. Charlie enjoys a trip out in the fresh air once and a while, and Nebraska can furnish as much of that as any state in the Union.

Grandma Davis returned Monday, from Omaha, where she has been undergoing treatment for her eyes. Her eyes are improved from what they were before she went there, but are not any better than when she was with us before. Her many friends were in hopes she might be fully restored to her sight again, but while such is not the case we are glad to have her with us again.

Adeline Items.

Mr. George Davis is again employed on the Adeline station.

The rain of Friday and Sunday was greatly welcomed by the farmers who have several small grain.

Mr. W. A. Downey went to Lead Co. Dak. last Tuesday where she will visit with her sister for a while.

Them who attended the St. Patrick's dance at Admora last Monday evening report having a fine time.

Public Health has given up school his, for work on the night. We wish him success in his undertaking.

OBITUARY

Death entered the home of Andrew McGintley last Monday morning at 5 o'clock and claimed for his victim, Laura S. McGintley, wife of Andrew McGintley.

Laura S. Haven was born Nov. 30—1840 and was married to Andrew McGintley, Sept. 17, 1855 and to say she has been an invalid nearly all her life, to state bore her afflictions without a murmur, and her every effort and desire was for the happiness of her husband, and those around her. As we looked on her peaceful face, as she lay there in death, we saw no trace of the 60 years of suffering written there, but of peace and calm. We might well say death, where is the sting? when we can look upon a face so beautiful and calm in death. We doubt she would have liked to have taken her husband, whom she loved so dearly, along with her, but alas we all have to travel this dark valley of the shadow of death alone, so far as earthly friends are concerned, but thank God we can take faith by the hand, through this dreary land if we are only faithful to him that doeth all things well. The body was incased in a beautiful casket decorated with flowers, and was followed to the grave by sorrowing relations and friends, and there the last burial rites were performed.

The Rev. J. A. Schmahorn of Gordon officiated at the services that were held at the home of the deceased, and may the kind words, spoken by him, be long remembered by those present. The Press-JOURNAL extends sympathy to the sad heart that is left alone to fight the battles of life, and may he be able to say when his life's battles are at an end, as she did, "His will be done."

The dance at C. Christian's last Friday was very well attended by the boys, but the girls were rather scarce.

We offer no excuse nor apology for these few lines, but simply fire them in to see what will become of them.

There seems to be a blind pig in Harrison, and some folks take advantage of the poor things infirmity, and run in to it every time they go to town.

Mr. John Long of St. Joe Mo. a nephew of Mrs. Stephen Eldridge, arrived last week, to try the pure air of this region as a health restorer, having suffered with malaria and lung fever at his home.

Miss Florence Christian will celebrate the end of a successful term of school in the east P. R. school house next Friday with a literary entertainment in the evening. Florence is all right as a teacher or as a model young lady.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather on last Sunday, a large audience gathered at the west Pleasant Ridge school house, to greet their former pastor, Elmer Warren, and to hear him preach. They were a disappointed lot of people when they heard he could not be there.

A boy was compelled by his teacher to write an essay "on the mouth," and this is what he wrote: The mouth is the front door to the face; it is the aperture of the cold storage of your anatomy. Some mouths look like penches and cream; some look like a hole in a brick wall to admit dirt or window. The middle is crimson like to your liver; it is patriotism's foundation and the tool chest for pie. Without the mouth the politician would be a wanderer on the face of the earth, and go down to an unnumbered grave. It is the grocer's friend, the orator's pride and the dentist's hope. It puts some men on the rostrum and others in jail. It is temptations lunch counter when attached to a maiden and tobacco's friend when attached to a man. It is the home of that unruly member—the tongue. Without it married life would be a summer dream and a dude would lose half his attractions.—Exchange.

Charlie Fred returned home from S. & G. ranch in Wyoming, last Tuesday. He has been herding sheep up there for the last two months.

Mr. Alfred Linberg went to Crawford last Monday to get his teeth pulled and returned on Thursday, oh! it must have been a bad tooth to take so long to pull it. He was accompanied home by Howard L. Smith. We were just wondering if H. L. S. was the dentist.
